Light Sculptures By Lucana:

Light Sculptures by Lucana Lucana, Reinhold Misselbeck, 1998 The qualities shared by all of her works are revealed only through an examination of her entire oeuvre as a whole and in the proper order And then it becomes clear that Lucana is a sculptress in photography and artist whose fundamental aesthetic principles prevail throughout her work and determine her approach to arrangement Light is her most important creative resource and thus it is easy to understand why her works are best described as light sculptures

New Books on Women and Feminism, 1999 The Last Statues of Antiquity R. R. Smith, Bryan Ward-Perkins, 2016-02-04 Spanning centuries and the vastness of the Roman Empire The Last Statues of Antiquity is the first comprehensive survey of Roman honorific statues in the public realm in Late Antiquity Drawn from a major research project and corresponding online database that collates all the available evidence for the statue habit across the Empire from the late third century AD onwards the volume examines where how and why statues were used and why these important features of urban life began to decline in number before eventually disappearing around AD 600 Adopting a detailed comparative approach the collection explores variation between different regions including North Africa Asia Minor and the Near East as well as individual cities such as Aphrodisias Athens Constantinople and Rome A number of thematic chapters also consider the different kinds of honorand from provincial governors and senators to women and cultural heroes Richly illustrated the volume is the definitive resource for studying the phenomenon of late antique statues The collection also incorporates extensive references to the project's database which is freely accessible online
