Like Mary Towards Christian Maturity In The Twentyfirst Cen:

Like Mary Fritz Arnold,2001 In this book Fritz Arnold looks not so much at Mary but along with her in the same direction He starts by tracing from the biblical texts the important stages of Mary s life from the Annunciation and birth of Jesus through His public ministry t Innovation within Tradition Mary Frances McKenna,2015-09-01 Innovation within Tradition explores Joseph Ratzinger s biblical interpretation of women and salvation history Arguing that Ratzinger s concept of a female line in the Bible brings the female characters of Scripture to the fore Mary Frances McKenna shows how this illustrates his creative approach to theology and hermeneutics as well as his response to feminist theology Pivotal as well are questions around the findings on the use of history in theology and the potential for the continuing development and deepening of the church s comprehension of the meaning of revelation The Twenty-First-Century Parson's Handbook Jared C. Cramer,2025-01-30 When first published at the end of the nineteenth century The Parson s Handbook went on to go through twelve editions the final of which was published in 1932 four years before the death of its author Percy Dearmer In 1965 a thirteenth edition was published by Dearmer s student Cyril Pocknee Now nearly a hundred years after the publication of Dearmer s twelfth edition Jared Cramer provides a new version of this work that will bring the insights of Dearmer s distinctively Anglican approach to worship to bear on the ministry of clergy and lay leaders in the twenty first century Entirely revised and rewritten with attention to the principals of modern liturgical theology and history along with the ecumenical and multicultural context of today s Christian worship this book demonstrates that the principles at the core of Dearmer s approach still can be of tremendous value to anyone who seeks to provide beautiful dignified and collaborative worship in the Anglican prayer book tradition Haunted Spaces in Twenty-First Century British Nature Writing Anneke Lubkowitz,2020-06-08 This study investigates the figure of haunting in the New Nature Writing It begins with a historical survey of nature writing and traces how it came to represent an ideal of natural space as empty of human history and social conflict Building on a theoretical framework which combines insights from ecocriticism and spatial theory the author explores the spatial dimensions of haunting and hauntology and shows how 21st century writers draw on a Gothic repertoire of seemingly supernatural occurrences and spectral imagery to portray natural space as disturbed uncanny and socially contested Iain Sinclair and Robert Macfarlane are revealed to apply psychogeography s interest in hidden histories and haunted places to spaces associated with wilderness and the countryside Kathleen Jamie s allusions to the Gothic are put in relation to her feminist re writing of the outdoors and John Burnside s use of haunting is shown to dismantle fictions of the far north This book provides not only a discussion of a wide range of factual and fictional narratives of the present but also an analysis of the intertextual dialogue with the Romantic tradition which enfolds in these texts Heythrop Journal ,2002 A select book list appears quarterly Reading 1 Corinthians in the Twenty-First Century Cornelia Cyss Crocker,2004-04-23 Cornelia Cyss Wittenstein uses the insights of hermeneutics and other critical methods to offer a new reading of 1

Corinthians Dying in the Twenty-First Century Lydia S. Dugdale, 2017-07-14 Physicians philosophers and theologians consider how to address death and dying for a diverse population in a secularized century Most of us are generally ill equipped for dying Today we neither see death nor prepare for it But this has not always been the case In the early fifteenth century the Roman Catholic Church published the Ars moriendi texts which established prayers and practices for an art of dying In the twenty first century physicians rely on procedures and protocols for the efficient management of hospitalized patients How can we recapture an art of dying that can facilitate our dying well In this book physicians philosophers and theologians attempt to articulate a bioethical framework for dying well in a secularized diverse society Contributors discuss such topics as the acceptance of human finitude the role of hospice and palliative medicine spiritual preparation for death and the relationship between community and individual autonomy They also consider special cases including children elderly patients with dementia and death in the early years of the AIDS epidemic when doctors could do little more than accompany their patients in humble solidarity These chapters make the case for a robust bioethics one that could foster both the contemplation of finitude and the cultivation of community that would be necessary for a contemporary art of dying well Contributors Jeffrey P Bishop Lisa Sowle Cahill Daniel Callahan Farr A Curlin Lydia S Dugdale Michelle Harrington John Lantos Stephen R Latham M Therese Lysaught Autumn Alcott Ridenour Peter A Selwyn Daniel Sulmasy Aging in Spirit Karen Kaigler-Walker, 2023-03-14 Does God expect women who've lived faithfully most or all our lives to continue to grow in Christ as we age into our later decades Absolutely Not only does God want us to keep on maturing but God provides the path to spiritual growth God hardwired us to blossom into a new realm of spirituality as we age Aging in Spirit provides a blueprint for developing the type of greater love compassion understanding and acceptance that Jesus taught as we move into our elder years so we can continue to be the hands and feet of God until the end of our lives Restoring the First-century Church in the Twenty-first Century Warren Lewis, Hans Rollmann, 2005-10-15 Restoring the First century Church in the Twenty first Century Essays on the Stone Campbell Restoration Movement in Honor of Don Haymes is a snapshot of a major American religious movement just after the turn of the millennium When the Disciples of Alexander Campbell and the Christians of Barton Warren Stone joined forces early in the 19th century the first indigenous ecumenical movement in the United States came into being Two hundred years later this American experiment in biblical primitivism has resulted in three possibly four large segments Best known is the Christian Church Disciples of Christ active wherever ecumenical Christians gather The denomination is typically theologically open having been reshaped by theological Liberalism and the Social Gospel in the twentieth century and has been re organized on the model of other Protestant bodies The largest group the Churches of Christ easily distinguished by their insistence on a cappella music singing only is theologically conservative now tending towards the evangelical and congregationally autonomous though with a denominational sense of brotherhood The Christian Churches Churches of Christ Independent are a via media between the two other bodies theologically conservative and evangelical congregationally autonomous pastorally oriented and comfortable with instrumental music The fourth numerically significant group the churches of Christ Anti Institutional is a conservative reaction to the a cappella churches much in the way that the Southern a capella churches reacted against the emerging intellectual culture and social location instrumental music and institutional centrism of the Northern Disciples following the Civil War Besides these four numerous smaller fragments typically one article splinter groups decorate the history of the Restoration Movement One Cup brethren Premillennialists No Sunday School congregations No Located Preacher churches and others This movement to unite Christians on the basis of faith and immersion in Jesus Christ and to restore New Testament Christianity is too little recognized on the American religious landscape and it has been too little studied by the academic community This volume is focused primarily on the a cappella churches and their interests but implications for the entire Stone Campbell Restoration Movement abound The voices that speak freely within were unimpeded in authoring these essays by standards of orthodoxy imposed from without All of the contributors are acquainted with Don Haymes the honoree of the volume and have been inspired by this friend and colleague a man with a rigorous and earthy intellect and a heavenly spirit David Bundy series editor Studies in the History and Culture of World Christianities The Five Disciplines for Christians Elliott Cooke,2022-10-11 The Five Disciplines for Christians are imperative for spiritual growth These five disciplines are fellowship Bible study prayer ministry and witnessing The Christian will not grow to maturity in Christ without all five but most Christians don t know what they are This book will help the reader to rediscover these ancient biblical practices which will bring them closer to God transform the world around them and provide personal fulfillment The book is broken down into five sections one for each discipline Each section provides the biblical mandate describes the nuances of the discipline identifies challenges to its practice and gives tools to enhance one s routine Crossroads Robert J. Stewards of the Gospel Ronald E. Vallet, 2011-07-22 The word stewardship comes across as stale and mildly distasteful to many in the church today as a term limited in its scope to euphemistic conversations about financial giving Yet as Ronald Vallet points out when the apostle Paul refers to stewards of the mysteries of God 1 Cor 4:1 he's talking about something much deeper and richer than fund raising In Stewards of the Gospel Vallet recovers a more adequate understanding of Christian stewardship in light of both the New Testament and the realities facing today's church as it deals with challenges to justice to the environment and even to faith itself He then applies his reinvigorated concept of stewardship in practical ways to congregations to their pastors and leaders and to the seminaries and denominational structures that mold and support those leaders Enhancing Vallet's broad gospel oriented vision of stewardship are thoughtful responses from six seasoned theological educators Daniel Aleshire David L.
