Division of Bibliography,Appleton Prentiss Clark Griffin,1905 Capital Corruption Amitai Etzioni, This work is a quality analysis of the problems posed by Political Action Committees in American life As the author notes in his new introduction Political corruption as measured by campaign contributions of special interests to elected officials increased significantly in the few years since the first publication of Capital Corruption The number of PACs rose from 2 551 in 1980 to 4 175 by 1986 The percentage of PAC contribution of total campaign costs increased from 31 4 percent in 1980 to 41 9 percent House and 24 5 percent to 27 0 percent Senate in 1986 Such data only begin to tell the story of a book which has grown in stature during the decade Etzioni characterizes Washington as a marketplace where deals are struck where a special interest group can buy single pieces of legislation or long run commitments or a whole slew of legislation Because such purchases are not direct but elliptical they fall within the legal system but for Etzioni they are beyond the pale of moral or political worthiness The book provides policy answers to vexing political dilemmas of mass politics today The volume has been described as a devastating indictment of our present system of financing elections John Anderson Etzioni has been called arguably the best political sociologist writing today Warren Bennis and the founder of Common Cause has termed this a powerful and important book If it is widely read and understood the nation will benefit John Gardner Report State Library of Massachusetts,1906 Public Documents of Massachusetts Massachusetts,1896
