Korean Art from the Gompertz and Other Collections in the Fitzwilliam Museum Yong-i Yun,2006 Including a representative range of ceramics from the fifth to the twentieth century and items in various other materials the collection of

Korean art in the Fitzwilliam Museum Cambridge is one of the finest outside of the Far East Although Korea's ceramics equal China's in quality and technique they are far less known Compiled by Yun Yong-i and edited by Regina Krahl this richly illustrated catalog provides detailed information on each object as well as background studies on Korean culture and ceramic technology    The Charles A. Greenfield Collection of Japanese Lacquer Eskenazi Ltd,1990    Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair,C. H. Bleaney,Pablo García Suárez,2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies    The Historical Harpsichord Sheridan Germann,Richard Rephann,2002 Volume IV of The Historical Harpsichord contains two monographs of major importance Harpsichord Decoration A Conspectus by Sheridan Germann and A Fable Deconstructed The 1770 Taskin at Yale by Richard Rephann Sheridan Germann an acclaimed scholar and practitioner in the field of harpsichord decoration offers the first comprehensive illustrated conspectus of the subject In Part I Ms Germann tells us that the styles of the decoration of harpsichords and spinets virginals and clavichords tended to follow contemporary furniture fashions but usually lagged conservatively behind the prevailing fashions Because unlike most furniture the instruments are often dated they provide rare documentation of how long these styles remained in common use This survey follows chronologically the five major regional traditions of keyboard instrument decoration Italian Flemish French German and English but with emphasis on the international changes in taste on which each region produced its own variations In Part II Richard Rephann of the Yale Musical Instrument Collection describes his research into the uniquely experimental construction of the 1770 Pascal Taskin harpsichord This essay forms a pendant to William Dowd's in Vol I that treats the surviving instruments of the Blanchet Taskin workshop up to 1770 The romantic provenance of the 1770 Taskin concocted by the antique trade to enhance the instrument's market value is revealed as a fable    Iran and The West Cyrus Ghani,2013-09-05 First Published in 1987 this volume offers a bibliography of biographies autobiographies and books on contemporary politics by prominent 20th century figures on the topic of Iran    The Great Wonders of China Jonathan Fenby,2024-06-04 The magnificent wonders of China ancient and modern revealed by an international team of leading scholars China is the oldest continuous civilization on earth and holds a unique global place in the twenty first century The Great Wonders of China's wide focus shows what makes China such a special country with topics stretching from the natural wonders including mountains and rivers to the Silk Road the technological innovations of printing and the compass and the modern vibrant cities of today as well as famous monuments such as the Forbidden City in Beijing and the Great Wall In this new and updated paperback edition a team of leading scholars from Asia and the West provide a compelling history of China Beyond the quality of the individual entries

The Great Wonders of China provides a chronicle of Chinese history and culture as well as helping readers understand and appreciate this vast country     Furniture History ,1986     Japanese Inrō Julia Hutt,Victoria and Albert Museum,1997 This is a comprehensive study of the inro the small lacquer container used by Japanese men wearing traditional dress to carry items in daily use drawing on the V A s collection Suspended from the belt by means of a netsuke and originally intended to hold a seal and ink or a supply of medicines the inro gradually developed as a highly decorative dress accessory and became an object of high fashion which is now prized by collectors The majority of inro were made of lacquer and include some of the finest and most innovative examples of the Japanese lacquerer s craft The book traces the diverse origins of the inro from around 1600 until the early 20th century and includes sections on construction and techniques of manufacture on materials used as well as on individual craftsmen with photographs of their signatures The sources of inro designs are explored from paintings ukiyoe prints and woodblock printed books with many examples illustrated Methods of dating are also discussed making this a useful reference for collectors and experts while those with a general interest in Japanese art should be drawn to the craftsmanship of the individual pieces     Conservation of Furniture Shayne Rivers,Nick Umney,2007-06-07 This book is a comprehensive resource covering the principles and practice of the conservation and restoration of furniture and other decorative art objects made wholly or partly of wood It integrates theory with practice to show the principles which govern interaction between wooden objects the environmental and conservation treatments and the factors which need to be taken into account to arrive at acceptable solutions to conservation problems The practical knowledge and experience of a team of conservators active in the field are bought together with theoretical and reference material from diverse sources and unified within a systematic framework Specialist conservators from related disciplines cover diverse materials often incorporated into furniture     Chinese Art in Detail Carol Michaelson,Jane Portal,2006 Drawing on the British Museum s extensive collection this book explores the traditional hierarchy of materials and techniques reaching back as far as the Han Dynasty in the third century BC In the history and character of the works under scrutiny this sumptuously illustrated book conveys an understanding of Chinese art in all its great variety     Painters, Paintings and Books Yves Porter,2020-04-13 The work aims at bringing the Persian texts into the study of the arts and technology of the Indo Iranian world an approach much neglected so far Drawing upon Persian sources both from Iran and India viz technical treatises historical chronicles and poetical texts the work deals with painting and the art of book making during twelfth to nineteenth century The introduction presents the geographical and chronological dimensions of the study After a brief history of Persian painting before the twelfth century the book discusses mural painting manuscripts origin of paper and its fabrication the composition of the page colours pigments used in the paintings painting subjects bookbinding etc The painter man and artist his origin his training his status aesthetics and taste his workshop and its organisation and distribution of tasks therein modular construction of the manuscripts library the calligraphy surrounding the painting its illuminations and binding are all analysed In fact the book reconstructs the entire process of making an illustrated manuscript from its ground work to its binding Persian text and illustrations enhance the utility of the work     Liverpool China Traders Christina Baird,2007 Perhaps the most enduring image of the China Trade is the clipper ship carrying tea from China In 1869 the clippers were finally overshadowed by the introduction of steam vessels which could make passage through the Suez Canal significantly shortening the length of the voyage Letters journals and order books have survived which tell us about the traders their private trading activities motivation tastes and private lives This book examines the role played by the port of Liverpool in this time of great change The book examines Liverpool s early participation in the China Trade following the cessation of the British East India Company s monopoly of the trade in 1834 and maps the changes in artistic tastes that the commencement of free trade gave rise to These new tastes represented a true fusion of European and Chinese cultural influences and replaced the pastiche of The Orient that chinoiserie represented during the period of the monopoly Amazon com     Andon ,1994
