Lady Tennyson's Journal:

Lady Tennyson's Journal Baroness Emily Sellwood Tennyson Tennyson, 1981 After the death of the poet laureate in 1892 Lady Tennyson spent most of her time assisting her son Hallam second Baron Tennyson with his prodigious task of preparing the Tennyson Memoir Together she and Hallam collected sorted and assembled an extraordinary mass of materials related in various ways to Tennyson's life and works Lady Tennyson gathered and inspected all extant letters to the poet and she worked at recovering every available letter written by Tennyson as well as the many letters she herself had written during forty two years of married life And in addition to selecting and arranging hundreds of letters and other items for her son's convenience Lady Tennyson prepared her own final Journal From immediately after her marriage in June 1850 until shortly before her nearly fatal collapse in the autumn of 1874 Emily Tennyson kept a running account of life in the Tennyson home Though she by no means made an entry for every day during that period of twenty four years certainly there are no sizable gaps and she was particularly scrupulous in noting every occurrence of the slightest moment involving her husband The epitome Journal put together after the poet's death is the product of a laborious combining of the several initial journals to form a more convenient and usable whole Since Emily compiled her final Journal solely as a source of information for Hallam one would suppose that she deleted certain items of highly personal material preserved in her antecedent diaries Nonetheless her Journal as we have it is a treasure trove of information about the Tennysons daily life and it enables us to see both the laureate and the entire Tennyson family circle more clearly than ever before
