S. Johnson,2019-08-28 Everyone Lies PRAGUE 1870 For the last ten years nineteen year old Eleanora

Svobodov has worked as a servant in her stepmother's household. Along with her older brother she dreams of the day they will be free to live life on their own terms. But everything changes when their estranged grandmother comes to Prague on behalf of Queen Victoria. Throughout Bohemia a string of murders and secret whispers hint at a larger coup. As the leader of the Order of the Crystal Daggers, an ancient order of spies and soldiers that protect kingdoms and their rulers, Lady Penelope is determined to discover the perpetrators. Now Eleanora must make the choice between a life of intrigue and saving the lives of others. Can Eleanora find a way to do the right thing and still find freedom?

FROM THE BOOK: I want to be free. The words came rushing out of me before I could think through their implications and consequences. There are two things you need to know about yourself if you want to be free: what you stand for and what you stand against. Lady Penelope held up her hands, brandishing a pair of daggers that had been hidden in her skirts. This world lives enslaved to its destruction, and so long as you are living as long as you are fighting, you will be free. I gazed at the daggers transfixed. Each blade was clothed in a leather scabbard, but the silver and obsidian of the daggers' hilts winked at me as though it was calling for me.

FROM THE AUTHOR: With a fun blend of historical fiction, true love, castle intrigue, and family dysfunction, The Order of the Crystal Daggers is my latest adventure series.

WHAT REVIEWERS ARE SAYING: 5 STARS. Reader's Favorite. This story was fantastic. Definitely one of my favorite reads of this year. Laura A. Grace, Unicorn Quester Book Review.

Pioneer Priests of North America, 1642-1710 Thomas Joseph Campbell, 1908. Pioneer Priests of North America, 1642-1710 Thomas Joseph Campbell, 1913. The Priest, the Woman, and the Confessional Chiniquy, Charles, 2015-02-20. There are two women who ought to be constant objects of the compassion of the disciples of Christ and for whom daily prayers ought to be offered at the mercy seat: the Brahmin woman who, deceived by her priests, burns herself on the corpse of her husband to appease the wrath of her wooden gods; and the Roman Catholic woman who, not less deceived by her priests, suffers a torture far more cruel and ignominious in the confessional box to appease the wrath of her wafer god. For I do not exaggerate when I say that for many noble-hearted, well-educated, high-minded women to be forced to unveil their hearts before the eyes of a man, to open to him all the most secret recesses of their souls, all the most sacred mysteries of their single or married life, to allow him to put to them questions which the most depraved woman would never consent to hear from her vilest seducer, is often more horrible and intolerable than to be tied on burning coals. More than once I have seen women fainting in the confessional box who told me afterwards that the necessity of speaking to an unmarried man on certain things on which the most common laws of decency ought to have forever sealed their lips had almost killed them. Not hundreds but thousands of times I have heard from the lips of dying girls as well as of married women the awful words: I am forever lost. All my past confessions and communions have been so many sacrileges. I have never dared to answer correctly the questions of my confessors. Shame has sealed my lips and damned my soul. How many times I remained as one petrified by the side of a corpse when these last words, having hardly escaped the lips of one of my female penitents who had been snatched out of my reach by the merciless hand of death before I could give her pardon through the deceitful sacramental absolution I then believed as the dead sinner herself had believed that she could not be forgiven except by that absolution For there are not only thousands but millions of Roman Catholic girls and women whose keen sense of modesty and womanly dignity are above all the sophisms and diabolical machinations of their priests They never can be persuaded to answer Yes to certain questions of their confessors

The Priest, the Woman, and the Confessional Charles Paschal Telesphore Chiniquy, 1979-11 Former priest reveals a tragic danger of the confessional What happens when women are commanded under penalty of eternal damnation to confess to a man their deepest sexual thoughts and sins Former priest Charles Chiniquy continually dealt with this problem He personally heard the confessions of over 200 priests All but 21 admitted falling prey to Satan's devices in this area This book reverently and tastefully exposes why confession of sins to a man cannot be of God You'll see how this practice destroys both the priest and the person doing the confessing This Generation George Kumler Anderson, Eda Lou Walton, 1939
