Lail Speaks:

A Sense of Place Steven Kolpan, 2013-02-01 In A Sense of Place renowned wine expert and writer Steven Kolpan tells the story of how Francis Ford Coppola brought California's most distinguished and historic vineyard back to life. Gustave Niebaum's Inglenook Estate started in 1879 was one of the Napa Valley's first established vineyards and the birthplace of its premium wine industry. Generations after Niebaum's death the vineyard was sold to Heublein the wine and spirits monolith who broke up the land and changed the Inglenook brand from a premium connoisseur wine to a mass market jug wine. In 1975 Francis Coppola bought the Niebaum residence and the surrounding estate. Along with the original estate's reputation he also brought back some of its original workers including Rafael Rodriguez who in his late seventies now serves as the vineyard manager and historian. Coppola overcame naysayers, red tape and financial turmoil to reestablish the winery as a defender of quality producing wine under four different labels including the revered wine Rubicon. In 1995 Coppola purchased the Inglenook Chateau and its adjacent vineyards fulfilling his dream of reuniting the original Napa Valley estate. Kolpan's luscious flavorful narrative is worth enjoying now and keeping for later.

Parallel Worlds Kerry M. Hull, Michael D. Carrasco, 2012-05-15 Despite recent developments in epigraphy, ethno-poetics and the literary investigation of colonial and modern materials, few studies have compared glyphic texts and historic Maya literatures. Parallel Worlds examines Maya writing and literary traditions from the Classic period until today, revealing remarkable continuities across time. In this volume, contributions from leading scholars in Maya literary studies examine Maya discourse from Classic period hieroglyphic inscriptions to contemporary spoken narratives, focusing on parallelism to unite the literature historically. Contributors take an ethno-poetic approach, examining literary and verbal arts from a historical perspective, acknowledging that poetic form is as important as narrative content in deciphering what these writings reveal about ancient and contemporary worldviews. Encompassing a variety of literary motifs including humor, folklore, incantation, mythology and more specific forms of parallelism such as couplets, chiasms, kennings and hyperbatons, Parallel Worlds is a rich journey through Maya culture and pre-Columbian literature that will be of interest to students and scholars of anthropology, ethnography, Latin American history, epigraphy, comparative literature, language studies, indigenous studies and mythology.

Icons of Power Nicholas J. Saunders, 2013-04-15 Icons of Power investigates why the image of the cat has been such a potent symbol in the art, religion and mythology of indigenous American cultures for three thousand years. The jaguar and the puma epitomize ideas of sacrifice, cannibalism, war and status in a startling array of graphic and enduring images. Natural and supernatural felines inhabit a shape-shifting world of sorcery and spiritual power, revealing the shamanic nature of Amerindian world views. This pioneering collection offers a unique pan-American assessment of the feline icon through the diversity of cultural interpretations but also striking parallels in its associations with hunters, warriors, kingship, fertility and the sacred nature of political power. Evidence is drawn from the pre-Columbian Aztec and Maya of Mexico, Peruvian and

Panamanian civilizations through recent pueblo and Iroquois cultures of North America to current Amazonian and Andean societies This well illustrated volume is essential reading for all who are interested in the symbolic construction of animal icons their variable meanings and their place in a natural world conceived through the lens of culture The cross disciplinary approach embraces archaeology anthropology and art history The Starstone TA Sullivan,2015-03-15 Two centuries ago at the end of the war the Starstone was broken into three pieces Scattered across the land the pieces were soon forgotten and Danaria found a relative peace Now one piece of the Starstone has resurfaced and Lord Darkwind is determined to capture it along with the one person who can direct its powers Thrust into the search for the Starstone Neerah and Joelnar find themselves evading not only Lord Darkwind but also the Guardians of Starfall religious zealots who believe that only Neerah's death can save their world With the advice of the mysterious Ethereals to guide her Neerah struggles to retrieve the pieces of the Starstone and save Danaria from the darkness that threatens her world The Cambridge Handbook of Material Culture Studies Lu Ann De Cunzio, Catharine Dann Roeber,2022-06-09 Material culture studies is an interdisciplinary field that examines the relationships between people and their things the production history preservation and interpretation of objects It draws on theory and practice from disciplines in the social sciences and humanities such as anthropology archaeology history and museum studies Written by leading international scholars this Handbook provides a comprehensive view of developments methodologies and theories It is divided into five broad themes embracing both classic and emerging areas of research in the field Chapters outline transformative moments in material culture scholarship and present research from around the world focusing on multiple material and digital media that show the scope and breadth of this exciting field Written in an easy to read style it is essential reading for students researchers and professionals with an interest in material culture Hearings United States. Drilled to Write J. Michael Rifenburg,2022-10-14 Drilled to Write offers a rich account of US Army cadets navigating the unique demands of Army writing at a senior military college In this longitudinal case study J Michael Rifenburg follows one cadet Logan Blackwell for four years and traces how he conceptualizes Army writing and Army genres through immersion in military science classes tactical exercises in the Appalachian Mountains and specialized programs like Airborne School Drawing from research on rhetorical genre studies writing transfer and materiality Drilled to Write speaks to scholars in writing studies committed to capturing how students understand their own writing development Collectively these chapters articulate four ways Blackwell leveraged resources through ROTC to become a cadet writer at this military college

Each chapter is dedicated to one year of his undergraduate experience with focus on curricular writing for his business management major and military science classes as well as his extracurricular writing like his Ballroom Dance Club bylaws and a three thousand word short story In Drilled to Write Rifenburg invites readers to see how cadets are positioned between civilian and military life a curiously liminal space where they develop as writers Using Army ROTC as an entry into genre theory and larger conversations about the role higher education plays in developing Army officers he shows how writing students develop genre awareness and flexibility while forging a personal identity
