Salvio, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2008 Critics Choice Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association A Pulitzer Prize winning poet who confessed the unrelenting anguish of addiction and depression Anne Sexton 1928 1974 was also a dedicated teacher In this book Paula M Salvio opens up Sexton's classroom uncovering a teacher who willfully demonstrated that the personal could also be plural Looking at how Sexton framed and used the personal in teaching and learning Salvio considers the extent to which our histories both personal and social exert their influence on teaching In doing so she situates the teaching life of Anne Sexton at the center of some of the key problems and questions in feminist teaching navigating the appropriate distance between teacher and student the relationship between writer and poetic subject and the relationship between emotional life and knowledge Examining Sexton s pedagogy with its weird abundance of tactics and strategies Salvio argues that Sexton s use of the autobiographical I is as much a literary identity as a literal identity one that can speak with great force to educators who recognize its vital role in the humanities classroom

Conner,2012-04-29 To many James Joyce is simply the greatest novelist of the twentieth century Scholars have pored over every minutia of his public and private life from utility bills to deeply personal letters in search of new insights into his life and work Yet for the most part they have paid scant attention to the two volumes of poetry he published The nine contributors to The Poetry of James Joyce Reconsidered convincingly challenge the critical consensus that Joyce's poetry is inferior to his prose. They reveal how his poems provide entries into Joyce's most personal and intimate thoughts and ideas. They also demonstrate that Joyce's poetic explorations of the nature of knowledge, sexual intimacy, the changing quality of love, the relations between writing and music, and the religious dimensions of the human experience were fundamental to his development as a writer of prose. This exciting new work is sure to spark new interest in Joyce's poetry and will become an essential and indispensable resource for students and scholars of his life and work. The Literature of All Nations and All Ages Julian Hawthorne, John Russell Young, John Porter Lamberton, 1900
