Hollywood's African American Films Ryan Jay Friedman, 2011 In 1929 and 1930 during the Hollywood studios conversion to synchronized sound film production white controlled trade magazines and African American newspapers celebrated a vogue for Negro films Hollywood s African American Films argues that the movie business turned to black musical performance to both resolve technological and aesthetic problems introduced by the medium of talking pictures and at the same time to appeal to the white Broadway audience that patronized their most lucrative first run theaters Capitalizing on highbrow associations with white slumming in African American cabarets and on the cultural linkage between popular black musical styles and natural acoustics studios produced a series of African American cast and white cast films featuring African American sequences Ryan Jay Friedman asserts that these transitional films reflect contradictions within prevailing racial ideologies arising most clearly in the movies treatment of African American characters decisions to migrate Regardless of how the films represent these choices they all prompt elaborate visual and narrative structures of containment that tend to highlight rather than suppress historical tensions surrounding African American social mobility Jim Crow codes and white exploitation of black labor The American Girl Goes to War Liz Clarke,2022-01-14 During the 1910s films about war often featured a female protagonist The films portrayed women as spies cross dressing soldiers and athletic defenders of their homes roles typically reserved for men and that contradicted gendered expectations of home front women waiting for their husbands sons and brothers to return from battle The representation of American martial spirit particularly in the form of heroines has a rich history in film in the years just prior to the American entry into World War I The American Girl Goes to War demonstrates the predominance of heroic female characters in in early narrative films about war from 1908 to 1919 American Girls were filled with the military spirit of their forefathers and became one of the major ways that American women s changing political involvement independence and active natures were contained by and subsumed into pre existing American ideologies Farmer and Stock-breeder ,1942

Cultural Pedagogies and Human Conduct Megan Watkins,Greg Noble,Catherine Driscoll,2015-03-24 Pedagogy is often glossed as the art and science of teaching but this focus typically ties it to the instructional practices of formalised schooling Like the emerging work on public pedagogies the notion of cultural pedagogies signals the importance of the pedagogic in realms other than institutionalised education but goes beyond the notion of public pedagogies in two ways it includes spaces which are not so public and it includes an emphasis on material and non human actors This collection foregrounds this broader understanding of pedagogy by framing enquiry through a series of questions and across a range of settings How for example are the processes of teaching and learning realised within and across the pedagogic processes specific to various social sites What ensembles of people things and practices are brought together in specific institutional and everyday settings to accomplish these processes This collection brings together researchers whose work across the interdisciplinary nexus of cultural studies sociology media studies education and museology offers significant insights into these cultural pedagogies the practices and relations through which cumulative changes in how we act feel and think occur Cultural Pedagogies and Human Conduct opens up debate across disciplines theoretical perspectives and empirical foci to explore both what is pedagogical about culture and what is cultural about pedagogy The Man from the Third Row Fredrik Gustafsson,2016-10-01 Until his early retirement at age 50 Hasse Ekman was one of the leading lights of Swedish cinema an actor writer and director of prodigious talents Yet today his work is virtually unknown outside of Sweden eclipsed by the filmography of his occasional collaborator and frequent rival Ingmar Bergman This comprehensive introduction the first ever in English follows Ekman s career from his early days as a film journalist through landmark films such as Girl with Hyacinths 1950 to his retirement amid exhaustion and disillusionment Combining historical context with insightful analyses of Ekman s styles and themes this long overdue study considerably enriches our understanding of Swedish film history      Letters, personal and political Franklin Knight Lane,1922      The Letters of Franklin K. Lane Franklin K. Lane,1922
