situations which had sought to thwart the life long desires of a couple to be participants of the promises of Gods own country
Would the promise of realization of the American Dream succumb to the evil machinations of two inanimate tubers of yams Or would the justice and fair play in a country that prides itself with its trust in God one that holds certain truths as self evident once again proclaim its superiority over apparent trivialities in the Land of the free and the Home of the brave     A
