The Annotated Works of Henry George Francis K. Peddle, William S. Peirce, 2017-03-02

Henry George (1839-1897) rose to fame as a social reformer and economist amid the industrial and intellectual turbulence of the late nineteenth century. His best-selling Progress and Poverty (1879) captures the ravages of privileged monopolies and the woes of industrialization in a language of eloquent indignation. His reform agenda resonates as powerfully today as it did in the Gilded Age, and his impassioned prose and compelling thought inspired such diverse figures as Leo Tolstoy, John Dewey, Sun Yat Sen, Winston Churchill and Albert Einstein. This six-volume edition of The Annotated Works of Henry George assembles all his major works for the first time with new introductions, critical annotations, extensive bibliographical material and comprehensive indexing to provide a wealth of resources for scholars and reformers. Volume II of this series presents the unabridged text of Progress and Poverty, arguably the most influential work of Henry George. The original text is supplemented by notes which explain the changes George made during his lifetime and the many references he made to history, literature, economics and public policy. A new index augments accessibility to the text and key terms. The introductory essay The Rhetoric and the Remedy by series co-editor William S. Peirce provides an overview of the historical context for George's philosophy of economics and summarizes the argument of Progress and Poverty within the framework of the economic theories of his day. It then looks at some of the early reactions by leading economists and opinion makers to George's fervent and eloquent call for economic justice. Henry George wrote Progress and Poverty in order to identify and resolve the great paradox of modern industrial life: How was it possible for abject poverty, financial instability and extreme economic inequality to co-exist with rising productivity and technological progress? He analyzed and rejected the widely held beliefs that poverty inevitably followed from the laws of economics or from a Darwinian struggle for survival of the fittest. George concluded that at the heart of this dilemma was how society treated natural resources especially urban land He did not succumb to the panacea of arbitrarily confiscating property or taking from the rich to give to the poor George argued that taxes on productive labor and capital should be drastically reduced His sovereign remedy declared that public goods could be adequately funded from the returns to land and other natural resources The activities of society as a whole give land its value It is therefore both equitable and efficient for the community to tax or recapture land values to support the activities of government Lands Beyond Lyon Sprague De Camp,Willy Ley,1952 Selected Water Resources Abstracts ,1991 Geography, Cartography and Nautical Science in the Renaissance W.G.L. Randles,2022-01-26 The transformation of the medieval European image of the world in the period following the Great Discoveries of the 15th and 16th centuries is the subject of this volume The first studies deal specifically with the emergence of the concept of the terraqueous globe In the following pieces Dr Randles looks at the advances in Portuguese navigation and cartography that helped sailors overcome the obstacles to the circumnavigation of Africa and the crossing of the Atlantic and at the impact of the Discoveries on European culture and science Other articles are concerned with Portuguese naval artillery and with attempts to classify the indigenous societies of the newly discovered lands and to map the interior of Africa European Images of the Americas and the Classical Tradition Wolfgang Haase,Reinhold Meyer,2011-08-02 No detailed description available for European Images of the Americas and the Classical Tradition Connecticut General Statutes Annotated Connecticut,1960 PRINT SUBSCRIPTION CANCELLED 10 2013 Ecclesiastical Annals from the Commencement of Scripture History to the Epoch of the Reformation ...
