Land Of The Coyote:

Land of the coyote George Holmes Beine, 1972 Coyote's Land Margery Wolf, 2018-07-26 Via time travel Charlotte Makee a 21st century anthropologist meets an elderly Coast Miwok curer named Sekiak in the hills near Olompali in Marin County California Charlotte wishes to learn about Coast Miwok life before their society was disrupted and then destroyed by Catholic priests Spanish soldiers settlers and other foreigners over less than 100 years Once Sekiak decides to work with Charlotte she administers a potion that renders her visitor invisible to all but Sekiak and one or two others That potion also allows Charlotte to comprehend Miwok speech and she embarks on ethnographic fieldwork listening and observing in the nearby settlements with Sekiak as her primary teacher of local customs and history As the two women move back and forth through time Charlotte fills dozens of notebooks with data about Coast Miwok life that she intends to draw upon to tell the story of what happened to the people of Coyote s Land But as Margery Wolf s novel ethnography unfolds an ominous air settles over the research enterprise comparable to the ominous air of death and devastation that demolish a once thriving society This experimental ethnography joins fiction to historical and cultural data helping us to feel and see what happened as the Coast Miwok world turned upside down and then was altered beyond recognition U.S. Army's Land Acquisition Project for National Training Center, Fort Irwin, San Bernardino County ,1996 Nevada Test Site (NTS) and Off-site Locations in the State of Nevada, Tonopah Test Range, Portions of the Nellis AFB Range (NAFR) Complex, the Central Nevada Test Area, and Shoal Area, Nye County ,1996 American Indian Reservations and Trust Areas Veronica E. Velarde Tiller, 1996 The World of the Crow Indians Rodney Frey, 1987 Profiles the Crow Indians and discusses how their society has been able to survive for more than a century because of their philosophies Gaming Regulatory Act Amendments Act of 1995 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Indian Affairs (1993-), 1996 Santa Clara Valley Habitat Plan ,2010 *California. Court of Appeal (1st Appellate District). Ellins, 2010-01-01 The coyote may well be North America s most adaptable large predator While humans have depleted or eliminated most other native predators the coyote has defied all attempts to exterminate it simultaneously expanding its range from coast to coast and from wilderness to urban areas As a result coyotes are becoming the focus of increasing controversy and emotion for people across the continent from livestock growers who would like to eradicate coyotes to conservationists who would protect them at any cost In this thoughtful well argued and timely book Stuart Ellins makes the case that lethal methods of coyote management do not work and that people need to adopt a more humane way of coexisting with coyotes Interweaving scientific data about coyote behavior and natural history with decades of field experience he shows how endlessly adaptive coyotes are and how attempts to kill them off have only strengthened the species through natural selection He then explains the process of taste aversion conditioning which he has successfully employed to stop coyotes from killing domestic livestock and pets Writing frankly as an advocate of this effective and humane method of controlling coyotes he asks Why are we mired in the use of archaic inefficient unsophisticated and barbaric methods of wildlife management in this age of reason and high technology This question must be addressed while there is still a wildlife to manage
