The Journey's End Mutia, Ba'bila,2016-06-13 When Akuma a youthful African government secondary school teacher leaves his hometown and goes to the capital city he hardly knows that he will be paralyzed and will not be able to use his legs again The Journey s End is a character driven narrative that explores the lives of two men who meet in Yaound the capital city Lucas Wango an elderly pensioner who comes to collect his back pay of seven years pension money and Akuma a physically challenged man who helps him recover his pension arrears Wango doesn t know that Akuma aka G n ral is a mobster and the boss of a city gang that commands and controls a better part of the metropolis Running parallel to this central plot are two subplots that eventually converge at the end of the novel Lucas Wango s meddling in and eventual frustration with national political life and G n ral s relationship with Martina a woman with whom he falls in love in the city Set in the rural African landscape of Yambe and Menamo Akuma s home village which he left to come to the city and the urban backdrop of the rapidly populated city of Yaound The Journey s End epitomizes the predicament of Africa's expanding slum cities characterized by poverty corruption and survival driven individuality For whom does the journey end remains an absorbing question that animates every single page in this extraordinary urban adventure Standard Catalog for Public Libraries H.W. Wilson Company, 1929 A Journey to the End of the Millennium A.B. Yehoshua, 2012-07-05 The year is 999 A.D. Christians in Europe are preparing themselves for the arrival of the Messiah at the millennium and religious fervour is in the air Sailing from the North African port of Tangier to a small distant town called Paris are a Jewish merchant Ben Attar his two beloved wives and his Arab partner Abu Lutfi They have come for a meeting with their third partner the widower Raphael Abulafia who has been forced to turn his back on their previous trading partnership because of his new wife's distrust of the dual marriage of Ben Attar The latter turns this annual trading voyage into a personal quest to legitimise his second wife restore his honour and equally important to show others the richness and humanity in his way of life A confrontation ensues between people of different cultures whose ways of living and loving are so different and yet who are of the same religion believe in the same God and in the same morality Thus we enter a profound human drama whose moral conflicts of fidelity and desire resonate deeply with our times A.B. Yehoshua has imaginatively recreated a medieval world with its merchant trade in great depth and sensuous detail His evocation of one man's love is lyrical erotic even and A Journey to the End of the Millennium will rank with the best of Yehoshua's work The Autocar, 1910 Drancy - Journey's End Raymond Roscoe, Film Treatment Available to legitimate producers Brief Overview At just 14 years old a boy from Liverpool England borrows his older brother's birth certificate to pursue a dream of adventure at sea In 1937 he joined a ship owned by the Harrison Line enjoying three years of life at sea before World War II erupted In 1940 his unarmed cargo ship is attacked by a German Raider disguised as a Swedish vessel The Raider's crew mercilessly plunders the ship before sinking it killing some crew members and taking the rest including the young boy as prisoners of war Journey to Drancy After months of captivity at sea the boy and his fellow POWs are transported to occupied France and confined in Drancy a concentration camp notorious for its inhumane conditions There they endure torture starvation and the constant fear of being sent to Auschwitz Drancy is a place of horror where the screams of tortured men women and children fill the night After six agonizing months the boy is transferred to various German POW camps where he continues to struggle for survival amidst gruelling conditions and dangerous escape attempts He remains a POW until six months after the war's end finally returning to a world that has drastically changed Post War Injustice Forty years after the war Germany established a compensation fund for those who suffered in the Drancy Concentration Camp France However when a British MP seeks to secure the compensation that Germany awarded for the few British survivors of Drancy the government tribunal refuses dismissing Drancy as merely a transit camp This decision stands in stark contrast to overwhelming evidence from survivors historians and authorities in Germany France Israel and beyond who recognize Drancy's true nature as a concentration camp A full twenty page stenographer's transcript of the
