Hollywood's (m)Other Aperture Jaime Bihlmeyer, 2019-10-07 This study explores how mainstream movies lend themselves to the portrayal of imagery that reflects the earliest stages of human development Filmmakers take full advantage of this rich body centered source of human experience Avatar Minority Report and Annihilation among the other movies explored in this book incorporate patterns of images that represent pre Oedipal m Others FEMININITY and the originary maternal authority The book explores how mainstream movies increasingly expose mass audiences to signs and resonances from our prelingual intrauterine and extrauterine psychological experiences In addition it compares and contrasts how the prelingual experience as depicted in these movies relates to themes of inclusivity that encompass diverse film inquiry including queer theory as well as human nonhuman animal kinship and hybridity In sum the text analyses how Hollywood movies depict and integrate the prelingual experience into the commercial cinematic apparatus and how this inspires new understanding of plurality FEMININITY and originary maternal authority in culture and society

Victims, Gender and Jouissance Victoria Grace, 2012-04-27 Victimization has a long cross cultural history The status of the victim has been the source of active and stirring controversy in cultural theory criminology and legal theory philosophy and psychoanalysis it is of particular interest within feminist theory Can the victim relation be refused Are we all victims The aim of this book is to analyze the intersection of gender and the victim and the role of a libidinal enjoyment jouissance in knotting this relation The enduring link between the construct of the victim and the sacrificial processes at its heart reveals something ultimately compelling about sacrifice Legislating victimization out of existence will fail because the victim relation is central to the very formation of human subjectivity and implicated in the reproduction of social life Lacanian psychoanalysis is used to interrogate the limits to arguments for resolving the problem of sacrificial violence from Girard to Bataille from Butler to Kristeva from de Sade to Nietzsche However without denying the inevitable structuring power of the signifier only its relentless reversion or undoing will expose the myths that sustain it and create an opening within the social beyond this impasse Such a break is theorized through a confrontation of Lacan with Baudrillard

On Becoming God: Late Medieval Mysticism and the Modern Western Self Ben Morgan, 2013 Do we have to conceive of ourselves as isolated individuals inevitably distanced from other people and from whatever we might mean when we use the word God On Becoming God offers an innovative approach to the history of the modern Western self by looking at human identity as something people do together rather than on their own Ben Morgan argues that the shared practices of human identity can be understood as ways of managing and keeping at bay the impulses and experiences associated with the word God The self is a way of doing things or of not doing things with God The book draws on phenomenology Heidegger gender studies Beauvoir Butler and contemporary neuroscience to present a new approach to the history of modern identity It surveys existing approaches to modern selfhood Foucault Charles Taylor and proposes an alternative account by investigating late medieval mysticism in particular texts written in Germany by Meister Eckhart and others in the same milieu Reactions to the condemnation of Meister Eckhart's teaching for heresy in 1329 offer a microcosm of the circumstances in which something like the modern self arises as people change their behavior toward others toward themselves and toward what they call God The book makes Meister Eckhart and his contemporaries appear as our contemporaries by changing the assumptions with which we approach our own identity To make this change requires a revision of current vocabularies for approaching ourselves and in particular the vocabulary and habits inherited from psychoanalysis The book finishes by exploring the parallel between late medieval confessors and their spiritual charges and late nineteenth century psychoanalysts and their patients The result is a renewed vision of the Freud's project of finding a vocabulary for acknowledging and nurturing our everyday commitments to others and to our spiritual longings

Cinema of Anxiety Vincent F. Rocchio, 2010-07-22 The new realism of Italian cinema after World War II represented and in many ways attempted to contain the turmoil of a society struggling to rid itself of Fascism while fighting off the threat of radical egalitarianism at the same time In this boldly revisionist book Vincent F Rocchio combines Lacanian psychoanalysis with narratology and Marxist critical theory to examine the previously neglected relationship between Neorealist films and the historical spectators they address Rocchio builds his analysis around case studies of the films Rome Open City Bicycle Thieves La Terra Trema Bitter Rice and Senso Through the lens of psychoanalysis he challenges the traditional understanding of Neorealism as a progressive cinema and instead reveals the anxieties it encodes a society in political turmoil an economic system in collapse and a national cinema in ruins while war occupation collaboration and retaliation remain a part of everyday life These case studies demonstrate how Lacanian psychoanalysis can play a key role in analyzing the structure of cinematic discourse and its strategies of containment As one of the first books outside of feminist film theory to bring the ideas of Lacan to theories of cinema this book offers innovative methods that reinvigorate film analysis Clear and detailed insights into both Italian culture and the films under investigation will make this engaging reading for anyone interested in film and cultural studies

Histories of Violence Brad Evans, Terrell Carver, 2017-01-15 While there is a tacit appreciation that freedom from violence will lead to more prosperous relations among peoples violence continues to be deployed for various political and social ends Yet the problem of violence still defies neat description subject to many competing interpretations Histories of Violence offers an accessible yet compelling examination of the problem of violence as it appears in the corpus of canonical figures from Hannah Arendt to Frantz Fanon Michel Foucault to Slavoj Žižek who continue to influence and inform contemporary political philosophical sociological cultural and anthropological study Written by a team of internationally renowned experts this is an essential interrogation of post war critical thought as it relates to violence

Critical Excess Colin Davis, 2010-04-06 The ancient quarrel between philosophy and literature seems to have been resolved once and for all with the recognition that philosophy and the arts may be allies instead of enemies Critical Excess examines in detail the work of five thinkers who have had a huge ongoing impact on the study of literature and film Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze Emmanuel Levinas Slavoj Žižek and Stanley Cavell Their approaches are very different from one another but they each make unexpected interpretive leaps that render their readings exhilarating and unnerving But do they go too far Does a scribbled note left behind by Nietzsche really tell us about the nature of textuality Can Hitchcock truly tell you everything you always wanted to know about Lacan Does the blanket hung up in a motel room invoke the Kantian divide between the knowable phenomenal world and the unknowable things in themselves Contextualizing the work of the five thinkers in the intellectual debates to which they contribute this book analyzes the stakes and advantages of overreading The Cinema of Tod Browning Bernd Herzogenrath, 2008-09-22

film and psychoanalysis The volume develops a theoretical and practice based framework that will be a valuable resource for students scholars and practitioners alike in the fields of philosophy literary studies theatre and performance studies and comedy studies List of Contributors Caterina Angela Agus Fred Dalmaso Lisabeth During Xavier Escribano Giovanni Fusetti Davide Giovanzana Josephine Gray Mar a J Ortega M ez Meg Mumford Jean Michel Rabat Carolyn Shapiro Lisa Trahair

Slavoj Žižek: Live Theory Rex Butler, 2005-01-01 Slavoj i ek is undoubtedly one of the world s leading cultural critics His witty psychoanalytically inspired analyses of contemporary society have almost single handedly revived the notion of ideology His brilliant commentaries on the French psychoanalyst Jacques Lacan and the 19th century German Idealists have brought alive their often difficult ideas for a new generation of readers But does i ek have anything to say in his own right Is there a system of thought that we can properly call i ekian This book argues that there is through a reading of two terms in his work the master signifier and the act Featuring an interview with i ek himself Slavoj i ek Live Theory presents a snapshot of the i ek system ideal for undergraduates in social and cultural theory and philosophy

Lacan and Contemporary Film Todd McGowan, 2020-09-08 This unique volume collects a series of essays that link new developments in Lacanian psychoanalytic theory and recent trends in contemporary cinema Though Lacanian theory has long had a privileged place in the analysis of film film theory has tended to ignore some of Lacan s most important ideas As a result Lacanian film theory has never properly integrated the disruptive and troubling aspects of the filmic experience that result from the encounter with the Real that this experience makes possible Many contemporary theorists emphasize the importance of the encounter with the Real in Lacan s thought but rarely in discussions of film By bringing the encounter with the Real into the dialogue of film theory the contributors to this volume present a new version of Lacan to the world of film studies These essays bring this rediscovered Lacan to bear on contemporary cinema through analysis of a wide variety of films including Memento Eyes Wide Shut Breaking the Waves and Fight Club The films discussed here demand a turn to Lacanian theory because they emphasize the disruptive role of the Real and of jouissance in the experience of the human subject There is a growing number of films in contemporary cinema that speak to film s power to challenge and disturb the complacency of spectators and the essays in Lacan and Contemporary Film analyze some of these films and bring their power to light Because of its dual focus on developments in Lacanian theory and in contemporary film this collection serves as both an accessible introduction to current Lacanian film theory and an introduction to the study of contemporary cinema Each essay provides an accessible jargon free analysis of one or more important films and at the same time each explains and utilizes key concepts of Lacanian theory The collection stages an encounter between Lacanian theory and contemporary cinema and the result is the enrichment of both
