Lachlan Macquarie:

Lachlan Macquarie John Ritchie, 1986 A biography of Lachlan Macquarie governor of the colony of New South Wales from 1810 to 1821 The Governors of New South Wales 1788-2010 David Clune, 2009 This book contains biographical accounts of all 37 Governors of New South Wales from Arthur Phillip in 1788 to Marie Bashir Highlights of the book include John Hunter's amazing sea voyages the erratic career of the devious and foul tempered William Bligh the highly public clashes of Sir Hercules Robinson nicknamed the Crisis maker with Governments and Parliament the Boy's Own Naval career of the swashbuckling Sir Harry Rawson the extraordinary double life of Lord Beauchamp and the dramatic events surrounding Sir Philip Game's dismissal of Jack Lang Leading historians such as Brian Fletcher JM Bennett Geoffrey Bolton Graham Freudenberg Anne Twomey Chris Cunneen Ian Hancock Evan Williams and Rodney Cavalier tell of both extraordinary lives and the political and constitutional crises many had to face Governor Macquarie Derek Parker, 2011-04-05 The first new biography of Lachlan Macquarie in decades this book draws on a wealth of sources both in Australia and overseas to paint a picture of the man and his times It must be seen as one of the great ironies of Australian history that as far as the British Government was concerned he failed in his duty as Governor of New South Wales as was clearly documented to official minds in the official report compiled by Commissioner John Bigge This report concluded that while Governor Macquarie had certainly supervised the building in New South Wales of some good roads and some handsome buildings if at far too high a cost to the British taxpayers under his government the colony had ceased to be what it was required to be a place with a reputation for cruelty and hopelessness so terrifying that the very threat of being banished there would strike terror into the heart of any prospective malefactor Macquarie had in fact had a vision shared by few others that New Holland had the potential to become one of the greatest and most flourishing colonies belonging to the British Empire and became determined to do his part in steering the fledgling community in that direction Settler Colonialism and (Re)conciliation Penelope Edmonds, 2016-04-08 This book examines the performative life reconciliation and its discontents in settler societies It explores the refoundings of the settler state and reimaginings of its alternatives as well as the way the past is mobilized and reworked in the name of social transformation within a new global paradigm of reconciliation and the age of apology Historical Records of New South Wales: Bligh and Macquarie, 1809-1811 New South Wales, 1901 , Historical Records of New South Wales: Bligh and Macquarie, 1809, 1810, 1811 , 1901 The Palgrave Handbook on Rethinking Colonial Commemorations Bronwyn Carlson, Terri Farrelly, 2023-06-30 The Palgrave Handbook on Rethinking Colonial Commemorations explores global efforts particularly from Indigenous and Black communities to dismantle colonial commemorations monuments and memorials Across the world many Indigenous and Black communities have taken action to remove rectify and or re imagine colonial commemorations These efforts have had the support of some non Indigenous and white community members but very often they have faced fierce opposition In spite of this many have succeeded and this work aims to acknowledge and honour these efforts As a current and much debated issue this book will present fresh findings and analyses of recent and historical events including RhodesMustFall Anzac Day protests and the transferral of confederate monuments to museums Comprising of chapters written by Indigenous Black and non Indigenous authors from a wide variety of locations backgrounds and purposes this topical volume is a timely and important contribution to the fields of memory studies Indigenous Studies and cultural heritage

The Europeans in Australia Alan Atkinson,2016-07-01 It is the duty of historians to be wherever they can accurate precise humane imaginative using moral imagination above all and even handed The first of three volumes of the landmark award winning series The Europeans in Australia gives an account of early settlement by Britain It tells of the political and intellectual origins of this extraordinary undertaking that began during the 1780s a decade of extraordinary creativity and the climax of the European Enlightenment Volume One The Beginning examines the forces that led to the penal colony at Port Jackson and the first twenty five years of white settlement Atkinson examines as few historians have done before the political and intellectual origins of this extraordinary undertaking It began during the 1780s a decade of extraordinary creativity and the climax of the European Enlightenment The purpose of settlement might seem uninspiring but the fact that this was to be a community of convicts and ex convicts raised profound questions about the common rights of the subject the responsibility of power and the possibility of imaginative attachment to a land of exile Atkinson explores the imagery and technique of European power as it made its first impact on Australia He argues that the Europeans were not simply conquerors motivated by brutal or short term colonising imperatives The Europeans culture was ancient and infinitely complex thickly woven with ideas about spirituality authority self and land all of which influenced the development of Australia The possession of land and conflict with Aboriginal peoples were at issue but so were the ancient habits of Europeans themselves The culmination of an extraordinary career in the writing and teaching of Australian history The Europeans in Australia grapples with the Australian historical experience as a whole from the point of view of the settlers from Europe Ambitious and unique it is the first such large single author account since Manning Clark's A History of Australia
