Ladies And The Mammies:

The Ladies and the Mammies Selma James,1983-01-01 Colonialism and Gender Relations from Mary Wollstonecraft to Jamaica Kincaid Moira Ferguson,1993 Against the historical background of slavery and colonialism this study investigates how white and Afro Caribbean women writers have responded to feminist abolitionist and post emancipationist issues It aims to reveal a relationship between colonial exploitation and female sexual oppression In Ghana at Independence Hans Buser,2010 Woman and Self Bhagyashree Varma,2007 Study on the autobiographies of Amrita Pritam 1919 2005 Panjabi authoress Kamala Das b 1934 Indo English women litterateur and Jean Rhys 1890 1979 English women novelist Picturing the New Negro Caroline Goesser,2007 Chronicles the vibrant partnership between literary and visual African American artists that resulted in the image of the New Negro In the process demonstrates that commercial illustration represents the largest and in some cases most progressive body of visual art associated with the Harlem Renaissance The Five Types of Women to Avoid in the Hood McGregor Philippe,2020-02-07 In the hood a woman can make a man successful or destroy him The black community has a wide variety of women good and bad and now author McGregor Philippe seeks to help men watch out for those who can damage them Philippe describes five particular types of women in the hood that men should try to identify at first meeting so that they can then run for dear life the thot the mammy the hood rat the bad bitch and the educated ratchet He explains how these women can be disastrous to a man s life no matter how mean a man is even if he is a thug an armed robber or an assassin he can never be as mean as these women Philippe s goal is to save men from falling in traps that would lead to their downfall and to inspire women on taking a positive change in their behavior In this self help guide one man provides a description of five types of toxic women that inhabit the hood and hopes to aid men in avoiding them Doing Business With Beauty Adia Harvey Wingfield,2009-07-15 Black women comprise one of the fastest growing groups of business owners in the United States In Doing Business with Beauty sociologist Adia Harvey Wingfield examines this often overlooked group and one of the most popular businesses run by these entrepreneurs hair salons Using in depth interviews with hair salon owners Doing Business with Beauty explores several facets of the business of owning a hair salon including the process of becoming an owner the dynamics of the owner employee relationship and the factors that steer black women to work in the hair industry Through Harvey Wingfield s research we can understand the black female business owner s struggle for autonomy and her success in entrepreneurship African American Women in the News Marian Meyers,2013-07-24 African American Women in the News offers the first in depth examination of the varied representations of Black women in American journalism from analyses of coverage of domestic abuse and crack mothers to exploration of new media coverage of Michelle Obama on Youtube Marian Meyers interrogates the complex and often contradictory images of African American women in news media through detailed studies of national and local news the mainstream and Black press and traditional news outlets as well as newer digital platforms She argues that previous studies of African Americans and the news have largely ignored the representations of women as distinct from men and the ways in which socioeconomic class can be a determining factor in how Black women are portrayed in the news Meyers also proposes that a pattern of paternalistic racism as distinct from the modern racism found in previous studies of news coverage of African Americans is more likely to characterize the media's treatment of African American women Drawing on critical cultural studies and black feminist theory concerning representation and the intersectionality of gender race and class Meyers goes beyond the cultural myths and stereotypes of African American women to provide an updated portrayal of Black women today African American Women in the News is ideal for courses on African American studies American studies journalism studies media studies sociology studies women's studies and for professional journalists and students of journalism who seek to improve the diversity and sensitivity of their journalistic practice The Truth About

M(O)therhood: Choosing to be Childfree Helene A. Cummins, Helene A. Cummins Cummins, Julie Anne Rodgers, Judith Dunkelberger Wouk, Julie Anne Rodgers Rodgers, 2021-01-29 In a world full of messages about the joys of motherhood ticking biological clocks pronatalist ideologies and socio cultural imperatives for women to mother what does the alternative look like That is what is the experience of women who choose or find themselves without progeny when they are deemed other instead of being a mother This anthology of interdisciplinary work links to sociology anthropology psychology demography religion language literature popular media medicine and child and family studies Are women that choose to be childfree always narcissistic self obsessed and lonely Or can they be free mobile and successful Do all women who choose to be childfree do it in the same way or have the same motivation What is the role of age partnership status trauma or poverty in this decision Using techniques such as literature review ethnographic interviews autoethnography and textual analysis and reframing these sixteen authors from around the globe unpack largely pronatalist racist sexist and heteronormative views and assumptions about childfree women BIPOC and LGBTQ Feminist Radical Visionaries Jasmine A. Mena, Delishia M. Pittman, 2024-04-04 Black Indigenous and People of Color BIPOC and Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender and Queer LGBTQ feminist visionaries have contributed to a paradigm shift in feminist theory and practice by espousing an intersectional and inclusive conceptualization of liberation This book honors the journeys and contributions of seven feminist visionaries who share some of their most formative experiences and challenges that fomented a desire for equity justice and collective wellbeing The transformations to feminism psychology psychotherapy and other areas following their immeasurable contributions are vast and have produced enduring changes The chapters in this volume also offer their reflections and wisdom about what remains unfinished in service to building an equitable and just society These deep and critical reflections serve as an excellent resource for anyone seeking to increase their awareness of equity and justice in psychology Readers will also have a view into how it is that lived experiences inform intellectual and professional pursuits and vice versa This book will serve as an exceptional accompaniment to any course aiming to expose students to these indispensable perspectives which are at once personal and undoubtedly professional The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Women Therapy      Within the Plantation Household Elizabeth Fox-Genovese,2000-11-09 Documenting the difficult class relations between women slaveholders and slave women this study shows how class and race as well as gender shaped women s experiences and determined their identities Drawing upon massive research in diaries letters memoirs and oral histories the author argues that the lives of antebellum southern women enslaved and free differed fundamentally from those of northern women and that it is not possible to understand antebellum southern women by applying models derived from New England sources      Making Whiteness Grace Elizabeth Hale,2010-08-25 Making Whiteness is a profoundly important work that explains how and why whiteness came to be such a crucial embattled and distorting component of twentieth century American identity In intricately textured detail and with passionately mastered analysis Grace Elizabeth Hale shows how when faced with the active citizenship of their ex slaves after the Civil War white southerners re established their dominance through a cultural system based on violence and physical separation And in a bold and transformative analysis of the meaning of segregation for the nation as a whole she explains how white southerners creation of modern whiteness was beginning in the 1920s taken up by the rest of the nation as a way of enforcing a new social hierarchy while at the same time creating the illusion of a national egalitarian consumerist democracy By showing the very recent historical making of contemporary American whiteness and by examining how the culture of segregation in all its murderous contradictions was lived Hale makes it possible to imagine a future outside it Her vision holds out the difficult promise of a truly democratic American identity whose possibilities are no longer limited and disfigured by race      Black eyes crossed the sea Maria Cristina Francisco,2020-07-19 Brazil is a racialized country Its social history is recorded in the spaces occupied by the colonial invasion the domination of native peoples slavery and European immigration Walking through this large territory it is clear that this story has imprinted marks on the land colonized bodies and minds which translates and is updated daily in relationships in the purposeful invisibility of a part of the population Everyone participates in this system black white and non white and it is essential that this is known The racist ideology propagating ideas of inferiority and subordination of certain peoples crosses everyone although from different places and experiences and oppressed peoples black and indigenous suffer immensely from the consequences of social inequalities leading to physical and psychological illness The white race enjoys opportunities but exempts itself from responsibility in an unfair system The African diaspora portrayed in this book Black Eyes Crossed the Sea reveals the impact of the psychic effects caused by racism and its consequences in inter and intrapsychic relations singularly in black people The theme is a call with the intention of sensitizing professionals from different areas of knowledge to understand what is inscribed in addition to skin color It is a statement where everyone needs to recognize and review themselves It is a door that opens in the hope of elaborating and transforming thinking about values colonialist beliefs and a possible emancipation Going through the theoretical bases of therapeutic action based on Wilhelm Reich's corporal analysis on Alexander Lowen's Bioenergetics on David Boadella's Biosynthesis on Frantz Fanon and Neusa Santos Souza's psychoanalysis and on Pichon Riviére's operative group the corporal work is highlighted stage of individual and collective history with a view to this transforming place Not only starting from verbalization but having the body as a protagonist home to joy suffering and trauma A group experience is also shown in the encounter of black bodies a place for exchanging reflections and experiences in relation to blackness and whiteness which over time proved to be affirmative in the strengthening of identity In the words recorded here it is stated how vital it is for institutions that aim to transmit knowledge to review themselves so as not to reproduce behaviors that lead to inequalities injustices suffering and illness This book is about believing fraternal value respect caring for yourself and others so that you can have better days for everyone

The Tangled Roots of Feminism, Environmentalism, and Appalachian Literature Elizabeth Sanders Delwiche Engelhardt, 2003 In this study Elizabeth Engelhardt finds in the work of four women writers from Appalachia the origins of what is recognized today as ecological feminism a wide reaching philosophy that values the connections between humans and non humans and works for social and environmental justice
