Robert Walsh, John Jay Smith

Ladies On The Rocks:

The Female Student: Or, Lectures to Young Ladies on Female Education, Etc Almira Hart Lincoln PHELPS, 1844 Golf on the Rocks Gary Sutherland, 2011-05-12 Gary Sutherland was a lapsed golfer until he acquired his late dad's putter. After studying a crumpled golf map of Scotland, Gary decided to embark on a voyage. His target was to play 18 rounds of golf on 18 Scottish islands in honour of his dad, a ship's captain who when he wasn't at sea was never off the golf course. His journey would take him from the Northern Isles to the Outer Hebrides. Playing in the Harris hail and Arran sunshine, he would encounter an odd variety of golfing hazards including sheep on the tees, cows on the fairways, and electric fences round the greens. This is golf in the raw, a million miles from St Andrews. It is a life-affirming tale of remembrance and discovery. It's about having a laugh and holding on to what's dear. And it's about a putter with magical properties. You can believe what you choose to, but it all happened. The Ladies' National Magazine, 1844 Woman on the American Frontier William Worthington Fowler, 1881

Woman on the American Frontier William Worthington Fowler, 2016-07-12 WOMAN AS A PIONEER Every battle has its unnamed heroes. The common soldier enters the stormed fortress and falling in the breach, which his valor has made, sleeps in a nameless grave. The subaltern whose surname is scarcely heard beyond the roll call on parade bears the colors of his company where the fight is hottest. And the corporal who heads his file in the final charge is forgotten in the earthquake shout of the victory which he has helped to win. The victory may be due as much or more to the patriot courage of him who is content to do his duty in the rank and file as to the dashing colonel who heads the regiment or even to the general who plans the campaign and yet unobserved, unknown and unrewarded, the former passes into oblivion while the leader's name is on every tongue and perhaps goes down in history as that of one who deserved well of his country.

W. Griffith. However, only a small group of his more than five hundred films has been the subject of a systematic analysis, and the vast majority of his other works still await proper examination. For the first time in film studies, the complete creative output of Griffith from Professional Jealousy (1907) to The Struggle (1931) will be explored in this multivolume collection of contributions from an international team of leading scholars in the field. Created as a companion to the ongoing retrospective held by the Pordenone Silent Film Festival, the Griffith Project is an indispensable guide to the work of a crucial figure in the arts of the nineteenth century. This volume covers the year 1913 and includes J. B.
