alarmist tales of women laughing themselves to death epitomized the tension between subversive pleasure and its violent repression Hennefeld traces the social politics of women's laughter from the heyday of nineteenth century sentimentalism to the collective euphoria of early film spectatorship traversing contagious dancing outbreaks hysteria photography madwomen's cackling cinematic close ups and screenings of slapstick movies in mental asylums Placing little known silent films and an archive of remarkable often unusual texts in conversation with affect theory comedy studies and feminist film theory this book makes a timely case for the power of hysterical laughter to change the world
