Myth and Violence in the Contemporary Female Text V.G. Julie Rajan, 2016-12-05 How various mythologies challenge enable and inspire women artists and activists across the globe to communicate personal and historical experiences of violence is the central concern of this collection. Beginning with the observation that twentieth and twenty first century female writers and artists often use myth to represent their social and artistic struggles, the distinguished international scholars and writers consider mythic fabulations as spaces for contested meanings and resistant readings. The identified resistance of the mythic material to repression, working as it were in opposition to another celebrated drive, role of myth that of containment, makes the use of myth particularly stimulating for twentieth century and contemporary female artists, and it is an interest in the aesthetic and political consequences of such resistances that animates this book. Exemplifying the diverse types of engagement with myth and femininity, literary criticism, discussions of film and art, artwork as well as original creative writing could all be found within the boundaries of this innovative volume. Femininity, myth and violence are here explored in contexts such as female mythopoiesis in the early twentieth century, the politics of representation in contemporary writing, revision of old myths and creation of new myths in multicultural female experiences. Keeping the focus on the actual works of art, the editors and contributors offer scholars and teachers an inclusive way to approach literature and the arts that avoids the limits imposed by genre or national and regional boundaries.

Taslima Unbound Taslima Nasrin, 2022-04-22. Internationally acclaimed Bangladeshi writer Taslima Nasrin brings together for the first time in English a compelling collection of her work written over a period of thirty years. In this powerful selection of essays, Taslima confronts issues of women's oppression and gender inequality, freedom of speech and religious violence. In bold, pragmatic style, her language of protest challenges the androcentric paradigms that have dictated the female experience for millennia. Taslima unflinchingly questions long held views on marriage, effects of religious rituals on women, prostitution, genital mutilation, divorce and sexual assault among many other crucial issues. Forced into exile after being expelled from Bangladesh for her frank and brave writing, Nasrin has been a heroic and courageous voice throughout the world, with many of her works topping the bestseller lists. Taslima Unbound captures the essence of her life's work and is key for those seeking to gain a deeper understanding of this celebrated feminist writer. Taslima Nasrin has been the recipient of the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship, the UNESCO Madanjeet Singh Prize for the promotion of tolerance and non violence, the Simone de Beauvoir Prize, an honorary doctorate from the American University of Paris among many other important recognitions.

Whither Governance K. Sreedhar Rao, 2002. On the professional experiences of an Indian civil servant in Assam.

Fifty Years of Bangladesh, 1971-2021 Taj Hashmi, 2022-04-22. This book, the first historical sociology of its kind concerning Bangladesh, examines the country's what went wrong syndrome during the first fifty years of its existence, 1971-2021. The work is an exception to the traditional studies on modern and contemporary Bangladesh. The study is also a post history of united Pakistan. Busting several myths, it sheds light on many known and unknown facts about the history, politics, society and culture of the country. Besides being a twice born country liberated twice from the British in 1947 and from West Pakistanis in 1971 it is also an artificial entity suffering from acute crises of culture development governance and identity Hashmi attributes the culture and identity crises to the demographic byproducts of bad governance In addition to being overpopulated Bangladesh is also resource poor and has one of the most unskilled populations largely lumpen elements and peasants According to Marx these people represent the unchanging remnants of the past The second round of independence empowered these lumpen classes who suffer from an identity crisis and never learn the art of governance The proliferation of pseudo history about liberation has further divided the polity between the two warring tribes who only glorify their respective idols Mujib and Zia Pre political and pre capitalist peasants lumpen elements lack of mutual trust and respect have further plagued Bangladesh turning it into one of the least governable corrupt and inefficient countries It is essential to replace the pre capitalist order of the country run by multiple lumpen classes with capitalist and inclusive institutions

Literature, Gender, and the Trauma of Partition Debali Mookerjee-Leonard,2017-04-07 Partition occurring simultaneously with British decolonization of the Indian subcontinent led to the formation of independent India and Pakistan While the political and communal aspects of the Partition have received some attention its enormous personal and psychological costs have been mostly glossed over particularly when it comes to the splitting of Bengal The memory of this historical ordeal has been preserved in literary archives and these archives are still being excavated This book examines neglected narratives of the Partition of India in 1947 to study the traces left by this foundational trauma on the national and regional cultural imaginaries in India Pakistan and Bangladesh To arrive at a more complex understanding of how Partition experiences of violence migration and displacement shaped postcolonial societies and subjectivities in South Asia the author analyses through novels and short stories multiple cartographies of disorientation and anxiety in the post Partition period The book illuminates how contingencies of political geography cut across personal and collective histories and how these intersections are variously marked and mediated by literature Examining works composed in Bengali and other South Asian languages this book seeks to broaden and complicate existing conceptions of what constitutes the Partition literary archive A valuable addition to the growing field of Partition studies this book will be of interest to scholars of South Asian history gender studies and literature Taslima Nasrin Peter Priskil,2000
