Annie Smart, 2011-12-23 In Citoyennes Annie Smart argues that many revolutionary and pre-revolutionary works constructed a civic identity for women and portrayed the home as a site for both civic virtue and private subjectivity This interdisciplinary study offers a fresh interpretation of the role of women and the home in eighteenth century France and goes a long way to filling a gaping hole in the contemporary literature on the subject L'œuvre Complète de Zacharias Tanee Fomum

L'Europe et l'Amour en Poésie Jean-Pierre Lefeuvre, 2013-01-15 Cette œuvre collective de traduction propose de rencontrer les plus célèbres poètes d'Europe représentatifs de sept pays Allemagne Angleterre Espagne Irlande Italie Portugal Roumanie Trente et un poètes sur plusieurs siècles représentant 60 poèmes sont ici traduits en français parfois versifiés en français et présentés par une courte biographie de l'auteur l'occasion pour les francophones de faire connaissance avec ces grandes figures de notre patrimoine européen Women's Work and Identity in Eighteenth-Century Brittany Dr

Nancy Locklin, 2013-06-28 Based on a solid foundation of archival research that ranges from tax rolls to notarial records this study adds an important chapter to our understanding of women in pre-industrial Europe Through a rigorous examination of primary documents peculiar to eighteenth century Brittany the author demonstrates the difficulties engendered in broad generalities about European women and makes a strong case for the necessity for historians to account for regional differences in women's experiences. In particular, Nancy Locklin makes a compelling argument for the need to incorporate a broader basis upon which women attained their identity. Indeed, Locklin rightly contends that most women in pre-industrial European societies were recognized and perhaps saw themselves through a variety of identities over the course of their lives depending on their age, familial connections, marital status, and the type of work they performed, and that often these identities overlapped. Locklin also shows the extent to which legal and ideological prescriptions painted a relatively negative picture of women's status, but that a close examination of women's participation in family, community, and commercial affairs reveals a much more complex and divergent reality. The Moral Sex Lieselotte Steinbrügge, 1995. How was the nature of women redefined and debated during the French Enlightenment? Instead of treating the Enlightenment in the usual manner as a challenge to orthodox ideas and social conventions, Lieselotte Steinbrügge interprets it as a deviation from a position staked out in the seventeenth century: namely, the mind has no sex. The Legacy of Chrétien de Troyes I, 2025-01-20.

Thirteen women at the forefront of philosophy locate new feminist points of view within the discipline by rigorously engaging works of contemporary French philosophy. In so doing, they both transform the standard practices of the field and carve out new territory. These writers amplify the work of feminist philosophers such as Simone de Beauvoir, Luce Irigaray, and Sarah Kofman in ways that are both stylistically and substantively creative. They also appropriate for radical feminist use the works of male philosophers such as Michel Foucault, Gilles Deleuze, Maurice Merleau-Ponty, and Jean-Paul Sartre. The essays illustrate the manner in which feminist philosophers bypass traditional methodology in favor of a disciplinary freedom characterized by fluid methodologies best exemplified in Beauvoir's work and by the employment of imaginative forms including the autobiographical and the poetic. The modes of inquiry used here range variously from psychoanalysis and existentialism to deconstruction, post-structuralism, and newly resurgent phenomenology. This volume also contains a comprehensive bibliography of feminist thinkers who are enacting French philosophy in English, German, and French.

Revolution of the Right to Education A. Reis Monteiro, 2021-07-19. The author argues in his essay on the Revolution of the Right to Education that the birth of the human right to education after a millennia-long gestation has opened up a new chapter in the History of Education. Moreover, its normative, jurisprudential, doctrinal, and programmatic developments are constituents of an International Education Law that is now the highest source in the hierarchy of the contemporary normativity on education to which the Education Law in States Parties should conform. Therefore, it should be recognised and studied as a new legal and educational discipline, the source of principles of legitimacy and quality of education. This book offers an interdisciplinary and topical introduction to the International Education Law broadly defined. It explains in what ways the normative integrity of the right to education carries far-reaching revolutionary significance, corollary of the Revolution of Human Rights and the Revolution of the Rights of the Child Narratives of Mothering Gill Rye, 2009 Mothers have been both idealized and demonized in Western cultures With Simone de Beauvoir's feminist analysis of motherhood in The Second Sex as her point of departure Rye Germanic and Romance studies U of London studies how French autobiographical and fictional narratives of mothering since 1990 differ from those told about them In the context of societal changes she explores themes including loss and trauma related to childbirth literally and figuratively ambivalence and guilt power and powerlessness and lesbian and single parenting in the works of Christine Angot Genevieve Brisac Marie Darrieussecq Camille Laurens Leila Marouane and Marie Ndiaye among others French Women in Politics: Writing Power Raylene L. Ramsay, 2003-01-01 Although more women in France have entered political life than ever before the fact remains that there are fewer women representatives in the French parliament than there were after the Second World War In a new and original approach the author presents an overview and analysis of the emerging body of text by or on women who have held high political office in France The argument is that writing about women and politics has not just described or reflected women's slow but now substantial entry into political life it has played a major part in shaping the parity debate and its outcomes Interviews with political women such as Huguette Bouchardeau Simone Veil or Edith Cresson inserted in the text demonstrate the emergence and circulation of a new common discourse focused on the issue of whether women in politics make or should make a difference A close reading of the various texts examined in this book and their connection to new public counter discourses in France suggest that a re writing of power is indeed occurring Rethinking Disability Patrick Devlieger, Beatriz Miranda-Galarza, Steven E. Brown, Megan Strickfaden, 2016-06-15 The act of life is a lived experience common and unique that ties each of us to every other lived experience The fact of disability does not alter this fundamental truth In this edition of Rethinking Disability World Perspectives in Culture and Society we are presented with a system of thinking that considers the values of disability as a resource as a creative source of culture that moves disability out of the realm of victimized people and insurmountable barriers and provides opportunities to use the experience of disability to enter into networks that recognize strengths of differing abilities The authors within will intrigue you will move you will charm you but always will challenge your notion of sameness and difference as they confront the construct and deconstruct of disability and ableism They present compelling arguments for viewing disability through the multiple lenses of disability culture They explore themes and issues that transcend past and origins time and place nuances of genetics to experiences of present and becoming and towards the future and beyond mere human yet always intrinsically connected to being human This book is intended for all audiences who dare to confront difference and sameness within themselves and in connection with others to inspire researchers who wish to explore and examine disability across social cultural and economic barriers It is an invitation to push away the barriers bring ableism inside to a place where the prosthesis is no longer the elephant in the room The Routledge History of the Domestic Sphere in Europe Joachim Eibach, Margareth

Lanzinger,2020-12-29 This book addresses the multifaceted history of the domestic sphere in Europe from the Age of Reformation to the emergence of modern society By focusing on daily practice interaction and social relations it shows continuities and social change in European history from an interior perspective The Routledge History of the Domestic Sphere in Europe contains a variety of approaches from different regions that each pose a challenge to commonplace views such as the emergence of confessional cultures of private life and of separate spheres of men and women By analyzing a plethora of manifold sources including diaries court records paintings and domestic advice literature this volume provides an overview of the domestic sphere as a location of work and consumption conflict and cooperation emotions and intimacy and devotion and education The book sheds light on changing relations between spouses parents and children masters and servants or apprentices and humans and animals or plants thereby exceeding the notion of the modern nuclear family This volume will be of great use to upper level graduates postgraduates and experienced scholars interested in the history of family household social space gender emotions material culture work and private life in early modern and nineteenth century Europe

Conjunctures ,2025-01-20 Negotiated Breastfeeding Caroline Chautems,2021-10-18 Based on an ethnography of postpartum consultations by independent midwives in Switzerland this book produces unique insights into home birth parents breastfeeding journey from the first hours after birth to weaning Considered the natural continuity of childbirth without intervention breastfeeding is a fundamental component of the holistic continuous and individualised care independent midwives provide as they engage with parents in a shared construction of meaning around breastfeeding This book offers new perspectives on the conceptualisation of breastfeeding as a shared process Parents in collaboration with their midwife and baby are jointly constructing negotiated breastfeeding As the child grows and develops questions arise regarding the management of risks the construction of the lactating body and the body work required and the perception of breastfeeding as a means of communication with the child consistent with a child centred approach to parenting Fostering a reflection on the contrasts and similarities between the marginal model of holistic care and the dominant biomedical model this book sheds light on issues of a broader scope the relationship to health risks and health promotion gender inequalities regarding parental roles and responsibilities the concept of the child as a project and the consequential intensification of parenthood The book also explores transversal themes by outlining how reproduction and parenting are undertaken in Switzerland framed by the local cultural political and economic context including the gender system and resulting power relationships

Motherhood in Contemporary International Perspective Fabienne Portier-Le Cocq,2019-08-30 Divided into 15 chapters this book provides the reader with an insight into certain representations of mothers and motherhood in history and today s societies in some areas of the world notably in Britain and Asia Key facts about the history of motherhood are presented together with the use of very recent notions and phrases portraying good and bad mothers An analysis of the concepts of naming and blaming along with regret with respect to mothers in 21st century societies provides food for thought

Other issues addressed are varied and numerous the politics of early intervention feminist critique mothers with disabilities and mothers of disabled children incarcerated mothers surrogate mothers teenage mothers lesbian mothers and mothering in Eastern Asia namely in China Japan and Korea Interestingly both visual arts and literature play a crucial role in this analysis The publication will appeal to students academics researchers and the general public interested in and seeking to comprehend the shifts that have occurred over time in connection with the vast and inexhaustible subject of motherhood and mothers a private and public matter Readers are also provided with a rich reference section dealing with the latest publications on the issues tackled by prominent academics and researchers in human geography women s studies sociology gender studies contemporary history and the arts
