Landscape Ecology in Asian Cultures Sun-Kee Hong, Jianguo Wu, Jae-Eun Kim, Nobukazu Nakagoshi, 2010-12-25

Cultural landscapes are a product of the interactions between humans and natural settings They are landscapes and seascapes that are shaped by human history and land use Socioeconomic processes especially but also environmental changes and natural disturbances are some of the forces that make up landscape dynamics To understand and manage such complex landscapes interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary approaches are necessary emphasizing the integration of natural and social sciences and considering multiple landscape functions The spatial patterns of Asian landscapes are strongly related to human activities and their impacts Anthropogenic patterns and processes have created numerous traditional cultural landscapes throughout the region and understanding them requires indigenous knowledge Cultural landscape ecology from a uniquely Asian perspective is explored in this book as are the management of landscapes and land use policies Human dominated landscapes with long traditions such as those described herein provide useful information for all ecologists not only in Asia to better understand the human environmental relationship and landscape sustainability

Integrating Landscape Ecology Into Natural Resource Management Jianguo Liu, William W. Taylor, 2002-08

The rapidly increasing global population has dramatically increased the demands for natural resources and has caused significant changes in quantity and quality of natural resources To achieve sustainable resource management it is essential to obtain insightful guidance from emerging disciplines such as landscape ecology This text addresses the links between landscape ecology and natural resource management These links are discussed in the context of various landscape types a diverse set of resources and a wide range of management issues A large number of landscape ecology concepts principles and methods are introduced Critical reviews of past management practices and a number of case studies are presented This text provides many guidelines for managing natural resources from a landscape perspective and offers useful suggestions for landscape ecologists to carry out research relevant to natural resource management In addition it will be an ideal supplemental text for graduate and advanced undergraduate ecology courses

Data Analysis in Community and Landscape Ecology R. H. Jongman, C. J. F. Ter Braak, O. F. R. van Tongeren, 1995-03-02 Ecological data has several special properties the presence or absence of species on a semi quantitative abundance scale non linear relationships between species and environmental factors and high inter correlations among species and among environmental variables The analysis of such data is important to the interpretation of relationships within plant and animal communities and with their environments In this corrected version of Data Analysis in Community and Landscape Ecology without using complex mathematics the contributors demonstrate the methods that have proven most useful with examples exercises and case studies Chapters explain in an elementary way powerful data analysis techniques such as logic regression canonical correspondence analysis and kriging

Landscape Ecology Francoise Burel, Jacques Baudry, 2003-01-05 This book is intended as a resource for students and researchers interested in developmental biology and physiology and specifically addresses the larval stages of fish Fish larvae and fish embryos are not small juveniles or adults Rather they are transitionary organisms that bridge the critical gap between the singlecelled egg and sexually immature juvenile Fish larvae represent the stage of the life cycle that is used for differentiation feeding and distribution The book aims at providing a single volume treatise that explains how fish larvae develop and differentiate how they regulate salt water and acid base balance how they transport and exchange gases acquire and utilise energy how they sense their environment and move in their aquatic medium how they control and defend themselves and finally how they grow up

Landscape Ecology for Sustainable Society Sun-Kee Hong, Nobukazu Nakagoshi, 2018-03-23 The research category of the landscape ecology which researches the structure functions and the spatio temporal changes of the ecological landscapes has now been contributing to the human life and the shifts of the socio economic paradigm Global warming has been influencing the universal life patterns of the mankind which have been maintained in the past several hundreds of years And it has been having the influences on the international social problems and economic problems Although the diverse plans for adapting to the climate changes have been the topics of the conservations among the ecologists internationally it is the reality that the speed of the changes of the environment has been quicker than the time it takes to complete the solutions In order to maintain the sustainable earth and the sustainable society the role of the landscape ecology has been coming to the fore Especially the theories and the methodologies of the landscape ecology have been applied to the multidisciplinary researches by going beyond the research category of ecology including the maximization of the efficiencies of the land spaces the management of the ecological space habitats in which the biological diversity can be maintained the utilization of the resources that are absolutely needed by the human beings Here it is compressed to water energy and food etc and until reaching the human society It is considered that to that extent the utilizations and the applications of the landscape ecology are very much needed for the diagnoses and the evaluations of the global environmental problems which have been proceeded with rapidly in the modernity This book is not comprised of any general remarks that explain the theories and the methods of the landscape ecology Already based on the basic theories of the landscape ecology the writers have conducted the investigations on the farm villages the cities and the coastal ecosystems And through the space analyses and interpretations the structure and functions of the landscapes were analyzed Of course in this book too the diverse ecosystems and the landscape ecological methodologies regarding the land use have been presented However the core of this book focuses more on what role the landscape ecology must play for the materialization of a sustainable society in the future At the farm villages the sustainable agriculture will be presented and at the cities the discussions on the green networks and the energies will be proceeded with Also regarding the coasts and the seas a thesis on the safety of the life zones of the residents adjacent to the sea and on the conservation of the island ecosystems will be presented The sustainable society is a system that is formed by having the sustainable development as a basis It is considered to be one aspect within a kind of a sustainable process with regard to which the natural world and the human world coexist and are in a symbiotic relationship harmoniously In order to maintain the biodiversity the reasonable adjustments of the human activities like the use of the resources are absolutely needed Without the biological resources the cultural diversity of the human beings too cannot exist Consequentially recently and internationally there are a lot of the case examples that express the biocultural diversity by linking the biological diversity with the cultural diversity In this book the role of the landscape ecology as an academic link which can connect the two possible if possible is highly expected It is indeed the biocultural landscape It can be said that this concept also is the interconnection of the multidisciplinary spaces that must be dealt with in the modern landscape ecology Through this book it is intended to present a new directionality which can contribute to the sustainable society at the same time as the organization of the theories and the methods of the landscape ecology

The Top Books of the Year Land Ecology Project Ecology The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
