A Treatise on the Law of Portions and Provisions for Children of the Nature of Portions John Hubbersty Mathews,1829 Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell,Robert S. Littell,1855 Learning Without Lessons David F. Lancy,2024-01-09 In Learning Without Lessons David F Lancy fills a rather large gap in the field of child development and education Drawing on focused empirical studies in cultural psychology ethnographic accounts of childhood and insights from archaeological studies Lancy offers the first attempt to review the principles and practices for fostering learning in children that are found in small scale pre industrial communities across the globe and through history His analysis yields a consistent and coherent pedagogy that can be contrasted sharply with the taken for granted pedagogy found in the West The practices that are rare or absent from indigenous pedagogy include teachers classrooms lessons verbal instruction testing grading praise and the use of symbols Instead field studies document the prevalence of self guided learners who rely on observation listening learning in play from peers the hands on use of real tools and learning through voluntary participation in everyday activities such as foraging Aiming to reverse the customary relation between western and non Western theories or ideas about child learning and development this book concludes that the pedagogy found in communities before the advent of schooling differs in very significant ways from that practiced in schools and in the homes of schooled parents Australian Annual Digest ,1910 Littell's Living Age ,1872 Proceedings, American Philosophical Society (vol. 145, no. 1, 2001) , North Carolina Reports North Carolina.
