Land Beyond The River Europe In The Age Of Migration:

Land Beyond the River Richard B. Lyttle, 1986 Describes how the migrating Huns barbarians Moslems Vikings Mongols and others changed the face of Europe between the 2nd and 9th centuries The Roots of Balkanization Ion

Grumeza, 2010-08-04 Balkanization is a modern term describing the fragmentation and re division of countries and nations in the Balkan Peninsula as well as a dynamic meaning the Balkan way of doing things The Roots of Balkanization describes the historical changes that took place in the Balkan Peninsula after the collapse of the Roman Empire and their impact in Eastern lands It develops conclusions reached in the author's previous book Dacia Land of Transylvania Cornerstone of Ancient Eastern Europe covering 500 B C A D 500 Balkan multi ethnicity was formed after the fifth century when barbarian invaders settled and violently mixed with the native ancient nations By the use of sword and terror warlords became kings and their confederations of tribes became state nations New societies emerged under the blessing of the Orthodox Church only to fight against each other over disputed land that eventually came to be occupied by other invaders The involvement of western powers and the Ottoman expansion triggered more grievances and violence culminating with the fall of Constantinople in 1453 and the end of the Byzantine Empire The medieval culture of the Balkans survived and continues to play a major role in how business and political life is conducted today in Eastern Europe Exploring Europe, Grades 5 - 8

Kramme, 2012-01-03 Take students in grades 5 8 on a field trip without leaving the classroom using Exploring Europe This 48 page book features reading selections and assessments that utilize a variety of questioning strategies such as matching true or false critical thinking and constructed response Map projects and hands on activities engage students in learning about the physical political and human geography of Europe For struggling readers the book includes a downloadable version of the reading selections at a fourth to fifth grade reading level This book aligns with state national and Canadian provincial standards Relexification in Creole and Non-Creole Languages Julia Horvath, Paul Wexler, 1997 Literature for History-social Science, 1993 Developing Multicultural Awareness Through Children's Literature Patricia Roberts, Nancy Lee Cecil, 1993 Children develop their feelings toward other cultures and individuals largely through the ideas presented to them by parents and teachers One good way is to show them respectable and accurately portrayed literary characters from many U S cultures Over 200 selections from children's literature with plot and character synopses feature Americans who can serve as role models in overcoming cultural stereotypes Target activities role playing writing assignments etc reinforce the multicultural concepts The selections are divided into five areas African American Asian American European American Latino American and Native American Human Heritage Miriam Greenblatt, Peter S.

Lemmo, 2001 A world history textbook chronicling the rise of Western and Eastern civilizations Includes photos art illustrated charts vocabulary exercises and review questions The Voice of the Narrator in Children's Literature Charlott

Otten, Gary D. Schmidt, 1989-06-26 As Otten and Schmidt note in their preface voice is a broad metaphor Thus the 41 essays in this collection provide varied approaches examining point of view focus selection of details tone and even illustrations as part of the narrative identity Eight genres including picture books fantasy realism and biography receive separate study in generally brief articles by writers and more substantial analyses by critics In her contribution Jill Paton Walsh describes contemporary criticism as an impenetrable thicket of technical terms In most cases the critics here avoid jargon They speak clearly offering practical criticism accessible to anyone seriously concerned about narrative technique in children's literature Choice Although children's literature is now a recognized branch of English and American literature much of the criticism of it has focused on teaching methodology history and basic exposition Since children's books are no less a part of the literary tradition than adult books there is room for new approaches to children's literature While the importance of the voice of the narrator is emerging in criticism of adult fiction poetry and nonfiction little has been written about this subject in children's literature Examining the voice of the narrator can identify hitherto unexplored and unrecognized aspects of children's literature The essays in this collection were contributed by noted authors and critics Their inquiry is divided into eight genres the illustrated book folk literature and myth fantasy realism poetry historical fiction biography and informational books and each genre is discussed in terms of the authorial voice and the critical voice Each of the essays works toward an understanding of how the voice of the narrator functions in a given work or in the larger corpus of an author's work The result is not only a greater understanding of how specific authors shape their material and how authors use voice for particular effects but also how the narrator differs functionally from one genre to the next This unique essay collection is particularly suited for use in children's literature courses Because the contributors are some of the most significant authors and critics in children's literature in English it should also be part of any academic library's holdings in the criticism of children's literature in particular and literary criticism in general
