Ancient History Sarah B. Pomeroy, 2014-03-01 This collection of essays explores the lives and roles of women in antiquity. A recurring theme is the relationship between private and public and many of the essays find that women's public roles develop as a result of their private lives specifically their family relationships. Essays on Hellenistic queens and Spartan and Roman women document how women exerted political power usually but not always through their relationship to male leaders and show how political upheaval created opportunities for them to exercise powers previously reserved for men. Essays on the writings of Sappho and Nossis focus on the interaction between women's public and private discourses. The collection also includes discussion of Athenian and Roman marriage and the intrusion of the state into the sexual lives of Greek Roman and Jewish women as well as an investigation of scientific opinion about female physiology. The contributors are Sarah B. Pomeroy, Jane McIntosh Snyder, Marilyn M. Skinner, Cynthia B. Patterson, Ann Ellis Hanson, Lesley Dean Jones, Natalie Boymel Kampen, Mary Taliaferro Boatwright and Shaye J. D. Cohen.

The Methuen Drama Handbook of Gender and Theatre Sean Metzger, Roberta Mock, 2023-12-28 Shortlisted for the 2024 TaPRA Edited Collection Prize This is a guide to contemporary debates and theatre practices at a time when gender paradigms are both in flux and at the centre of explosive political battlegrounds. The confluence of gender and theatre has long created intense debate about representation, identification, social conditioning, desire, embodiment and lived experience. As this handbook demonstrates from the conventions of early modern English, Chinese, Japanese and Hispanic theatres to the subversion of racialized binaries of masculinity and femininity in recent North American, African, Asian, Caribbean and European productions, the matter of gender has consistently taken centre stage. This handbook examines how critical discourses on gender intersect with key debates in the field of theatre studies as a lens to illuminate the practices of gender and theatre as well as the societies they inform and represent across space and time. Of interest to scholars in the interrelated areas of feminist gender and sexuality studies, theatre and performance studies, cultural studies and globalization and diasporic studies, this book demonstrates how researchers are currently addressing theatre about gender issues and gendered theatre practices. While synthesizing and summarizing foundational and evolving debates from a contemporary perspective, this collection offers interpretations and analyses that do not simply look back at existing scholarship but open up new possibilities and understandings. Featuring essential research tools including a survey of keywords and an annotated play list, this is an indispensable scholarly handbook for anyone working in theatre and performance.

congruent and uncovers a variety of positions ranging from Orientalist to anticolonial The book then turns to Bernard de Zogheb a virtually unpublished writer and elicits his camp parodies of elite Levantine mores in operettas one of which centers on Cavafy Drawing on Arabic critical and historical texts as well as contemporary writers and filmmakers engagement with the canonical triumvirate Halim orchestrates an Egyptian dialogue with the European representations
