

"COURAGE AND IMAGINATION UNINTIMIDATED BY CONVENTIONAL WISDOM"

"Bishops today are thought to be harmless ceremonial figures who do little, say less, and exhibit a modicum of administrative skill. Once upon a time, however, bishops were the spiritual and intellectual artillery of the church militant. With a courage and an imagination unintimidated by conventional wisdom, Bishop Spong has chosen to fight for the reconciliation of the mind and heart of the church in the contemporary world. Refusing to accept the status quo as the equivalent of divine truth, Spong stands in the great iconoclastic tradition of St. Augustine, Bishop Colenso, and Bishop John A. T. Robinson, each of whom riled the settled convictions of the day and who, for their troubles, were regarded as turbulent priests. This turbulent bishop, regarded by many as a threat to faith, has made it possible for many more to believe with integrity. This story of his life's pilgrimage is a rare and compelling exercise in spiritual and intellectual autobiography."—PETER J. GOMES, Harvard University, author of The Good Book: Reading the Bible with Mind and Heart

"The poignant account of someone who loves the church deeply and has frequently been misunderstood."—ARCHBISHOP DESMOND MPIOLO TUTU

"The remarkable story of a soul raised in the segregation and racial prejudice of North Carolina, who garnered the sensibility and courage to stand for genuine equality—risking all in order to bring a clear vision into the church he loves so much."—CLARISSA PINKOLA ESTÉS, Ph.D., author of Women Who Run With the Wolves, The Gift of Story, and The Faithful Gardener

Here I Stand My Struggle For A Christianity Of Integrity Love And Equality:

Here I Stand John Shelby Spong, 2000-01-26 If someone had told me years ago that I would create these enormous levels of both appreciation and hostility in my ordained life I would have been dumbfounded shocked and probably deeply hurt How did it happen What created the twin emotions of praise and anger of gratitude and fear What forces pushed me compelled me or led me to play my particular role in the struggle to make the Christian church respond to the issues of our century and indeed to open new dimensions of spirituality to the citizens of this century That is the story I seek to tell John Shelby Spong has spent a lifetime struggling to discover and create a more just loving and authentic Christian faith Throughout his career as an Episcopal priest and bishop he has inspired praise and gratitude among the marginalized Christians whose causes he has championed as well as hostile resistance from traditional and conservative Christians whom he has so boldly challenged Here I Stand reveals the private side of this very public figure as Bishop Spong tells the story of the people and events that shaped his thoroughly contemporary yet deeply biblical theology and his commitment to liberal Christian values Early in his life Spong witnessed injustices that were instrumental in awakening his moral consciousness Growing up in the American south of the 1930s Spong spent his childhood in an environment of racism fundamentalism sexism and homophobia The church of his time was no exception its exclusionary attitudes and practices struck the young Southerner as contradictory to the Christianity he encountered in the Bible and heard preached from the pulpit and taught in Sunday school Rather than becoming disillusioned with the church and dropping out Spong has devoted himself to reforming it working to integrate women blacks gays lesbians and other marginalized Christians fully into the faith community better known for rejecting or marginalizing them In the process he has challenged the views of leaders such as Jerry Falwell John Cardinal O Connor and his own Episcopal hierarchy He has been honored by many as a hero while enduring harsh reactions from fundamentalists and those wedded to the status quo Through it all Bishop Spong has remained committed to his role as a shepherd to every member of the Christian flock His courageous efforts have made him an inspirational symbol of a Christian church truly worthy of Jesus and the standard bearer for those who strive to be both contemporary thinking persons and faithful enlightened Christians The Living Church ,2000 A Thorn in the Flesh Caroline J. Addington Hall, 2013-03-22 A Thorn in the Flesh How Gay Sexuality is Changing the Episcopal Church explores how and why the full inclusion of gay and lesbian Christians in all the rites of the church including ordination and marriage has proven so explosive and divisive Caroline J Addington Hall a Mainline Christianity Jason S. Lantzer, 2012-04-30 Since the Revolutionary War Mainline Christianity has been comprised of the Seven Sisters of American Protestantism the Congregational Church the Episcopal Church the Evangelical Lutheran Church the Presbyterian Church the United Methodist Church the American Baptist Convention and the Disciples of Christ These denominations have been the dominant cultural representatives since the nineteenth century of how and where the majority of American Christians worship Today however the Seven Sisters no longer represent most American Christians The Mainline has been shrinking while evangelical and fundamentalist churches as well as non denominational congregations and mega churches have been attracting more and more members In this comprehensive and accessible book Jason S Lantzer chronicles the rise and fall of the Seven Sisters documenting the ways in which they stopped shaping American culture and began to be shaped by it After reviewing and critiquing the standard decline narrative of the Mainline he argues for a reconceptualization of the Mainline for the twenty first century a new grouping of Seven Sisters that seeks to recognize the vibrancy of American Christianity "I Could Not Speak My Heart" University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center,2004 This anthology of 19 articles documents the pain misunderstanding that lesbian gay bisexual transgendered people have experienced in the very recent past and demonstrates the real progress both in theory in practice that has been made in the struggle for equity social justice The articles include autobiography testament fiction poetry and traditional personal analytic essays from authors with different intellectual perspectives human rights social reform human justice feminist liberationist and queer theory

Rediscovering Christianity: Origins and a New Era Patricia Budd Kepler,2024-06-29 With humanity on the cusp of a dramatic new era Patricia Kepler invites us to reexamine the foundations of Christian faith that mainstream expressions of Christianity share Rediscovering Christianity explores basic beliefs about God Jesus Christ the Holy Spirit Scripture and the early church It goes on to explore the theological and ethical questions essential to moving toward the new creation of which Jesus speaks In that creation heart and mind come together in search of God s Realm on earth This book is for people who never learned much about their faith and those Christians who are asking questions in these changing times Kepler sees faith as evolving and has great hope for the future Given that humanity now has the power to destroy its world Kepler sees that we have as never before responsibility with God for saving it holding fast to the sanctity of life reclaiming the importance of community pursuing peace with justice and revering the earth It is time for Christianity to come of age What we believe about God and humanity matters Theology and Ethics matter The new era opens a door to new creativity and spiritual depth in the power of the Spirit The Suffering Servant of the Lord, Second Edition David J. MacLeod,2019-06-18 The Suffering Servant of the Lord A Prophecy of Jesus Christ is a major new study of the fifty third chapter of Isaiah It is exegetical expositional devotional and Christological It is exegetical in that it is based on a careful study of the text It is expositional in that it explains the meaning of chapter to both its original and modern readers The book will give preachers and teachers help in outlining and illustrating their sermons and lectures It is devotional in that this marvelous chapter addresses the deepest need of people the need for forgiveness of sin and peace with God It is Christological in that it focuses on the person of Jesus Christ MacLeod writes I have finished this work more convinced than ever that the passage is a straightforward prophecy of Jesus Christ written by the prophet Isaiah some seven hundred years before the birth of the Savior Our Universal Spirit Journey John P. Cock,2002-06 Cock s fourth book has a creational context for everyone s journey in an age of transformation This book is an exuberant statement of the all pervasive presence and power of spirit and its ever present support for the Earth Venture and the Human Venture from the Foreword by Thomas Berry noted Earth spokesperson and author

Theology as Autobiography Colby Dickinson, 2020-03-17 Autobiographical writings on faith frequently come from the lives of ordinary persons whose struggles with faith are often lived at the margins of the church academy and society Yet these voices have the potential to reshape the ways in which each of these fields function To find out what it means to stand before God with all of one's humanity on display is to engage in not only the act of confession but to demonstrate a bold theological reflection that needs to be more explicitly understood By turning to spiritual autobiographies as theological source texts we learn to place our emphasis where it matters most on the people whose lives of faith move us deeply and cause us to re-examine our own lives in light of their witness Moving through a range of ancient early modern and contemporary spiritual writers in order to demonstrate a profound connection that unites them all this book portrays how a critical self-examination of one's most personal internal fractures our poverty as it were is the only way to develop a life of faith the dual meaning of the word confession which expresses both a revealing of one's sins or brokenness and the articulation of what one believes

Different Visions of Love Brian Griffith, 2008 Griffith's narrative moves like a searchlight over each phase of church history illuminating the visions options and choices behind events He traces the rise of a dominator version of Christianity in which the primary concern was a chain of command to be followed with rewards or punishments according to the degree of obedience And beside this he illuminates another face of Christianity concerned with healing all divisions between loved and unloved people The story Griffith presents is often deeply disturbing as in his unstinting accounts concerning the gospel for women or the age of holy wars and witch hunts But ultimately his story offers solid grounds for optimism He shows that all contention between different religious visions can be a process of building partnership As Griffith points out Jesus himself wished to debate his opponents openly not to silence or eliminate them He was not afraid of real encounter or the potential of creative conflict I want to congratulate Brian Griffith on this masterful controversial and highly readable account His book offers hope in a divided world where reaction against globalized godless corporate secularism meets with a war on religious fundamentalism I hope to see other writers do comparable work in highlighting the partnership and dominator visions within their religious traditions around the world

Riane Eisler author of The Chalice the Blade Sacred Pleasure Tomorrows Children The Power of Partnership The Real Wealth of Nations I find it gives me an incredibly clarifying perspective on Christianity way beyond my previous understanding It should be read by everyone with an interest in Western Civilization It is a marvelous companion to The Great Turning David Korten author of The Great Turning From Empire to Earth Community

Women Clothed with the Sun Dana Littlepage Smith, 2001 IN quietly dazzling language Women Clothed with the Sun engages ninety women from the Old and New Testaments the inconspicuous as well as the more prominent Eve Lot's wife Zipporah Miriam Judith Ruth Bathsheba Mary

Elizabeth Martha the woman at the well the wife of Pilate the women of Jerusalem and others Without a feminist axe to grind in the foreground without pretension or piety but fearlessly and enthusiastically Dana Little page Smith has imaginatively entered into each woman s life by turns boldly delicately sensuously intelligently always skillfully Smith pulls aside the veil to let each woman speak her mind What emerges is the female humanity of the women some caught in appalling circumstances some freed to new heights of spiritual and physical presence all of them lifted from the relative silence of their lives in patriarchal times and allowed to command our full attention There is great variety here spirited and heroic women bawds victims of incest wives and daughters The poet has heard the drumming and the songs the scribes could not hear These women have practiced pain like a pentateuch They have asked themselves What is this heart you fear breaking And they have found answers in action image and word

The Logic of Renewal William J. Abraham,2003-12-08 Helps Church leaders and members get their bearings in the renewal debate by analyzing the most salient proposals for Church renewal that have surfaced over the last fifty years In successive chapters the editor pairs outspoken figures who in all but one chapter represent strongly contrasting convictions He also gives special attention to the theological assumptions of each proposal highlights its overall strengths and weaknesses and develops his own proposals for Church renewal through interaction with those under review

The Kingdom of Christ Russell Moore,2004-10-18 In this scholarly work Russell D Moore relates the history leading up to the new Kingdom consensus among evangelicals from the time theologian Carl F H Henry called for it fifty years ago He examines how this consensus offers a renewed theological foundation for evangelical engagement in the social and political realms While evangelical scholars and pastors will be interested in this sharp insightful book all evangelicals interested in public policy will find it useful in discovering how this new Kingdom perspective works out in the public square

Privilege and Prophecy Robert Tobin, Robert Benjamin Tobin, 2022 The Episcopal Church has long been regarded as the religion of choice among America's ruling elite Yet after World War II a new generation of leaders emerged eager to shake off the church's reputation as a bastion of privilege and transform it into an agent of social reform Taking an active part in the civil rights and anti war movements of the 1960s these leaders struggled to draw the church's membership into their vision of change Despite their shortcomings these activist leaders played a pivotal role in the evolution of Episcopalianism from establishment church into a more diverse and inclusive denomination

Jefferson Davis's Flight from Richmond John Stewart, 2014-12-24 In the space of a few hours on the night of April 2 1865 Richmond the Confederate capital was evacuated and burned the government fled slavery was finished in North America Union forces entered the city and the outcome of the Civil War was effectively sealed No official documents tell the story because the Confederate government was on the run First there were newspaper accounts mostly confused then history books based on those accounts But much of what we know about the fall of Richmond comes from eyewitnesses like Confederate Navy Secretary Stephen Mallory whose tale became history A great deal of what has been presented over the years by historians has been plagiarized invented or misconstrued and nearly all we have learned of Jefferson Davis's flight from Richmond to Danville is wrong This book closely examines all relevant source material much of it newly discovered by the author as well as the writers diarists and eyewitnesses themselves and constructs a minutely detailed new account that comes closer to what Abraham Lincoln had in mind when he said History is not history unless it is the truth
