Here Comes Punkin:

Here Comes Punkin Guy Gilchrist, 1988 Normal Instructor and Teachers World, 1928 Power to Press On Barry Amacker, 2012-06 God's unlimited power is available to flow through us if we prepare ourselves to be a vessel He can use. As we develop and engage our physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual dimensions, a synergetic state of being emerges capable to release God's power. Just like electricity, God's power is flowing, but we have to flip the switch for it to be released. Power to Press On gives practical strategies for preparing ourselves to flip the switch and bind the strongman. Dr. Barry Amacker is currently the Superintendent of Education of the Jackson County School District in Mississippi. Previously, he has served as a band director, assistant principal, and principal in the Mobile County Public School System in Mobile, Alabama, and as a principal and assistant superintendent in the Jackson County School District in Mississippi. After graduation from Moss Point High School, he attended the University of South Alabama and earned a bachelor of science in music education. Later, he earned a master's in education from the University of South Alabama, as well as a doctorate in education from Nova Southeastern University. Along with maintaining his professional career in education, Dr. Amacker has served as minister of music at various churches throughout the years. Barry and his wife Kathy have a daily radio program Power to Press On covering the southern counties of Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and parts of Florida. He also authored the book These Old Shoes. Xulon Press, 2012. Contact information: Power to Press On, P.O. Box 844, Ocean Springs, MS 39566. The miners were beaten, their rank and file organization crushed. The epithet "Bloody Harlan" survived the day and remained a symbol for that battle and those that periodically erupted for the next half century. But the proper legacy of the Harlan wars, as the veteran Hobart Grills tells us, is not the chaotic violence but the spirit of steady resistance that smolders until the changing times fan the sparks into a new flame. During the long Depression era, the winds of change blew all across the South, from the coal fields of Appalachia to the tenant farms of Arkansas, from the cotton mills of Gastonia to the automobile factories of Atlanta. It was a period rich in the South's peculiar blend of semi-organized rebellion, individual courage, and rank and file militancy, but its lessons were omitted from the history books. To rectify that insult, Southern Exposure published a special book-length issue on the Depression, based largely on the oral testimonies of those who were the sparks for that era's struggles. Entitled No More Moanin', the collection, now near the end of its second printing, has been a popular source book in union halls, university classrooms, and
