Between Hebrew and Arabic Poetry Yosef Tobi,2010-07-14 The book includes sixteen studies about medieval Hebrew poetry compared with Arabic poetry It is well known that since the tenth century medieval Hebrew poets took Arabic poetry as the ultimate paradigm in terms of prosody language purism and rhetorical devices and even in regard to poetical genres However the concept unifying all studies in this book is that a comparative examination must consider not only the identical elements in which Hebrew poetry borrowed from the Arabic one but alos what is much more significant what Hebrew poetry stubbornly set itself at a distance from Arabic poetry The conclusive result of this sort of examination is that Hebrew poetry combined selectively borrowed Arabic poetical values with traditional ethical Jewish values to create a

Here James Pollock,2012-11-15 Northrop Frye wrote that for Canadian poets the question of identity isn t so much Who am I as Where is here In his ground breaking book James Pollock gives his answer that where we are as a literary culture has a great deal to do with our relationship to elsewhere For far too long Canadians have refused to read our poetry in the larger international context of poetry as an art leaving our poets isolated and ignored Pollock sets out to situate our verse on the map of world poetry a map which like one of those incomplete globes from the sixteenth century still leaves Canada largely uncharted Acutely intelligent and unflinchingly honest in its judgements You Are Here is an eye opening guide to the new world of Canadian poetry sensitively exploring the work of such poets as Anne Carson Daryl Hine Jeffery Donaldson Karen Solie and Eric Ormsby The collection ends with a witty treatise on good criticism and a passionate and learned reconsideration of poetic values making You Are Here an essential companion for students and lovers of Canadian poetry everywhere
