Here's to Our Fraternity

Marianne Rachel Sanua, 1998 In the late 1800s an increasingly dominant fixture of student life on college campuses was the fraternity groups of like minded individuals who banded together based on Greek intellectual and social ideals One such society was Zeta Beta Tau founded by Dr Richard James Horatio Gottheil and fourteen charter members at Columbia University in 1898 as a forum where young Jewish men could discuss their faith enhance pride in their heritage and embrace the ideals of the Zionist movement In this study Marianne Sanua follows the evolution of the fraternity from its rabbinic roots to its contemporary non sectarianism and shows how ZBT s social opportunities hitherto denied its members in the non Jewish world were a means of proving first on the college campus and later to all the world that young Jewish men could be the equal of their best Gentile counterparts in achievement behavior and gentlemanly bearing In chronicling ZBT however

Sanua also examines broader issues like anti-Semitism Zionism assimilation the presence of Jews in academe and the changing goals and expectations of generations of the fraternity's members Here's to the Gods Austin Parker, 1923
