Heroes And Anti Heroes A Reader In Depth:

Heroes and Anti-heroes; a Reader in Depth Harold Lubin (comp),1968 Heroes and Anti-heroes Harold Lubin,1968 Heroes and Anti-heroes Rita Ghesquiere,Knut Johannessen Ims,2010 Extraordinary Ordinarity Simon Wendt,2016-11-10 This collection of essays looks at everyday heroes and heroines ordinary men women and children who are honored for actual or imagined feats Comparing the United States Germany and Britain it asks both when this particular hero type first emerged and how it was discussed and depicted in political discourse mass media literature film and other forms of popular culture Looking across fields of study countries and centuries this book sheds new light on the many social cultural and political functions that our everyday heroes have served Place, Power, Situation, and Spectacle Stuart C. Aitken,Leo Zonn,1994 Using contemporary film theory and elements of socio cultural and political discourse fourteen geographers examine the effects of cinematic representation of place and space on perceptions of self and societies in the world Landscapes of the Soul Douglas V. Porpora,2003-10-09 Do you believe in God Nine out of ten Americans unhesitatingly answer yes But for Douglas Porpora the real questions begin where pollsters leave off What he asks does religious belief actually mean in our lives Does it shape our identities and our actions Or despite our professions of faith are we morally adrift Landscapes of the Soul paints a disturbing picture of American spiritual life In his search for answers to his questions Porpora interviewed clerks and executives Jews evangelical Christians Buddhists Taoists and even followers of Bhagwan Sri Rajneesh He asked them about God and about what they saw as their own place in the universe What he found was a widespread inability to articulate any grand meaning of life We lack heroes to inspire us We lack a sense of calling of transcendent purpose in our existence Many of us seem incapable of caring deeply about the suffering of others Our society is permeated with moral indifference Yes we are a believing people but God is often a distant abstraction and rarely an emotional presence in our lives Only such an emotional connection Porpora argues can be the basis of a genuine moral vision Our emotional estrangement from God and the sacred keeps us from caring about social justice keeps us from wanting to change the world keeps us enclosed in our own private worlds Landscapes of the Soul is a passionate call to broaden our spiritual and moral horizons to raise our eyes to the greater reality that unites us all Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms Earthbodies Glen A. Era of Globalization Yvonne Raley, Gerhard Preyer, 2009-12-04 Terrorism ethnocentrism religious tension competition over limited resources war these are just a few of the problems and challenges that have emerged in today's global economy Globalization both implies and requires economic interdependence and this should bring with it a heightened sense of the interconnectedness of the participating societies But unfortunately as recent events indicate rather than our having formed a global community today's society is more fragmented than ever In light of this education faces some formidable new challenges How do we prepare future citizens for the world they will live in How do we teach future generations to embrace the paradox of accepting the value of multiculturalism despite the conflicts it has produced How do we instill religious tolerance in a time when fundamentalism has become inextricably tied with terrorism How do we promote economic growth in the face of overpopulation and its depletion of resources The authors of this collection of essays explore these and related challenges and they suggest some novel ways of dealing with them

Art and Celebrity John A. Walker, 2002-12-20 The growing cult of the celebrity in contemporary culture is throwing up paradoxical ideas about the contradictions between high art and mass appeal and blurring the already unstable boundaries between art commodity and popular culture This is a lively and accessible study of the phenomenon informed by a look at what happens when the serious world of art collides with celebrity Global culture is now dominated by celebrities some of whom like Madonna and Stallone are art collectors and some like Dennis Hopper and David Bowie are part time artists Walker explains how artists such as Warhol Gavin Turk Jeff Koons Elizabeth Peyton and Alison Jackson contribute to but also critique the cult of celebrity by depicting film celebrities rock stars and royalty in paintings and statues Celebritisation has overtaken the art world too Walker surveys 14 art stars of the twentieth century from Dali to Tracey Emin He also reviews alternatives the left wing pantheon of figures such as Mao Che Guevara and Rosa Luxemburg and pictorial celebrations of the people
