Hetty Dorval:

Hetty Dorval Ethel Wilson, 2012-01-25 Seeking refuge from her mysterious past the beautiful Mrs Dorval arrives in a small British Columbia town at the confluence of the Fraser and Thompson Rivers As Frankie Burnaby the young schoolgirl Mrs Dorval befriends pieces together Hetty's story she begins to realize that her enigmatic idol is also a treacherous opponent Hetty Dorval Wilson's first novel is a wise and expertly crafted tale of innocence and experience Hetty Dorval Ethel Davis Wilson, 1947 Ethel Wilson David Stouck, 2003-01-01 Ethel Wilson is one of Canada's most important writers This biography draws on archival material and interviews to describe in detail her early life as an orphan in England and Vancouver and her long writer's apprenticeship spanning from the publication of some children's stories in 1919 to the appearance of Hetty Dorval in 1947 2003 Cross-Cultural Reckonings Blanche H. Gelfant, 1995-01-27 Blanche H Gelfant's book Cross Cultural Reckonings both demonstrates and questions the applicability of postmodern cultural and literary theories to realistic texts to fiction and autobiographies valued for their truth Drawing together an unusual combination of Russian American and Canadian writers the various essays of this book provide new and original perspectives upon the puzzling issues of national identity of historical change and continuity of gender and the integrity of literary genres the boundaries between text and context and the underlying if overlooked conflicts between the postmodern critic's skepticism and a writer's belief in the transcendence of art and truth To avoid the contingencies inherent in binary comparisons the essays in this book seek a triadic form analogous to the triptych or polyptych of the visual arts Multi faceted non linear and open ended such a form might allow the academic essay to recover a waywardness that traces back to Montaigne cited in prefatory notes and to the etymological meaning of the essay as an exagium or weighing as an act of reckoning A study at once elegant erudite and personal Cross Cultural Reckonings reckons with writers of different backgrounds and reputation in whom Gelfant discovers surprising affinities among them the Russian writers Lydia Chukovskaya Natalya Baranskaya and Alexander Solzhenitsyn Ethel Wilson a highly reputed Canadian writer the famous cross cultural figure Emma Goldman and established as well as new or rediscovered American writers such as Willa Cather Saul Bellow Arlene Heyman and Meridel Le Sueur These writers are discussed singly and in comparative essays each of which is discrete and self contained while all interconnect and reflect upon each other as exemplary demonstrations of cross cultural literary criticism and the deferred final judgment that results from a weighing and reweighing of books Hetty Dorval [sound Recording] Ethel Wilson, 1992 Unreal Country Glenn Willmott, 2002 Willmott English Queen's U Canada has undertaken a study of modern English language Canadian novels breaking them down into unifying components to allow their consideration as a distinct literary genre Among the authors whose novels are discussed are Bertram Brooker Sinclair Ross Frederick Philip Grove Martha Ostenso Ethel Wilson Thomas Raddall Ernest Buckler and Alice Jones Themes include the nation as youth post colonialism post modernism imperialist ideology and economic class distinctions Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
