The Cambridge History of Linguistics Linda R. Waugh, Monique Monville-Burston, John E. Joseph, 2023-08-10. The establishment of language as a focus of study took place over many centuries and reflection on its nature emerged in relation to very different social and cultural practices. Written by a team of leading scholars, this volume provides an authoritative chronological account of the history of the study of language from ancient times to the end of the 20th century, i.e. recent history when modern linguistics greatly expanded. Comprised of 29 chapters, it is split into 3 parts, each with an introduction covering the larger context of interest in language, especially the different philosophical, religious and/or political concerns and socio-cultural practices of the times. At the end of the volume, there is a combined list of all references cited and a comprehensive index of topics, languages, major figures, etc. Comprehensive in its scope, it is an essential reference for researchers, teachers and students alike in linguistics and related disciplines.

The Semiotics of Law in Legal Education Jan M. Broekman, Francis J. Mootz III, 2011-07-06. This book offers educational experiences including reflections and the resulting essays from the Roberta Kevelson Seminar on Law and Semiotics held during 2008-2011 at Penn State University's Dickinson School of Law. The texts address educational aspects of law that require attention and that also are issues in traditional jurisprudence and legal theory. The book introduces education in legal semiotics as it evolves in a legal curriculum. Specific semiotic concepts such as sign, symbol or legal language demonstrate how a lawyer's professionally important tasks of name-giving and meaning-giving are seldom completely understood by lawyers or laypeople. These concepts require analyses of considerable depth to understand the expressiveness of these legal names and meanings and to understand how lawyers can say the law or urge such a saying correctly and effectively in the context of a natural language that is understandable to all of us. The book brings together the structure of the Seminar, its foundational philosophical problems, the specifics of legal history and the semiotics of the legal system with specific themes such as gender, family law and business law.

Museum Making Suzanne Macleod, Laura Hourston Hanks, Jonathan Hale, 2012-03-15.
