She challenges Cuba's well established myth of racial equality and shows that racism is deeply rooted in Cuban creole society. Helg argues that despite Cuba's abolition of slavery in 1886 and its winning of independence in 1902 Afro Cubans remained marginalized in all aspects of society. After the wars for independence in which they fought en masse Afro Cubans demanded change politically by forming the first national black party in the Western Hemisphere. This challenge met with strong opposition from the white Cuban elite culminating in the massacre of thousands of Afro Cubans in 1912. The event effectively ended Afro Cubans political organization along racial lines and Helg stresses that although some cultural elements of African origin were integrated into official Cuban culture true racial equality has remained elusive Busy Chipmunk Kirsten Hall, 2001 Rhyming tale of a chipmunk gathering nuts and other food to prepare for winter Sharks! Catherine Nichols, 2002-06 An easy to read introduction to sharks and their physical characteristics and eating habits Eggs All Over Marcy Dunn Ramsey, 2002 Rhyming text and illustrations present many different eggs including brown and speckled blue eggs snake and turtle eggs penguin and spider eggs and even Humpty Dumpty Big Bug Fun Joanne Oppenheim, 2000
