Heart of

Creation Andrea Joyce Stone, 2002 This accessible state of the art review of Mayan hieroglyphics and cosmology also serves as a tribute to one of the field's most noted pioneers The core of this book focuses on the current study of Mayan hieroglyphics as inspired by the recently deceased Mayanist Linda Schele As author or coauthor of more than 200 books or articles on the Maya Schele served as the chief disseminator of knowledge to the general public about this ancient Mesoamerican culture similar to the way in which Margaret Mead introduced anthropology and the people of Borneo to the English speaking world Twenty five contributors offer scholarly writings on subjects ranging from the ritual function of public space at the Olmec site and the gardens of the Great Goddess at Teotihuacan to the understanding of Jupiter in Maya astronomy and the meaning of the water throne of Quirigua Zoomorph P The workshops on Maya history and writing that Schele conducted in Guatemala and Mexico for the highland people modern descendants of the Mayan civilization are thoroughly addressed as is the phenomenon termed Maya mania the explosive growth of interest in Maya epigraphy iconography astronomy and cosmology that Schele stimulated An appendix provides a bibliography of Schele's publications and a collection of Schele's written memories of the Rabbit Woman by some of her colleagues and students Of interest to professionals as well as generalists this collection will stand as a marker of the state of Mayan studies at the turn of the 21st century and as a tribute to the remarkable personality who guided a large part of that archaeological research for more than two decades

Embodied Lives: Rosemary A. Joyce, Lynn M. Meskell, 2014-02-25 Examining a wide range of archaeological data and using it to explore issues such as the sexual body mind body dualism body modification and magical practices Lynn Meskell and Rosemary Joyce offer a new approach to the Ancient Egyptian and Mayan understanding of embodiment Drawing on insights from feminist theory art history phenomenology anthropology and psychoanalysis the book takes bodily materiality as a crucial starting point to the understanding and formation of self in any society and sheds new light on Ancient Egyptian and Maya cultures The book shows how a comparative project can open up new lines of inquiry by raising questions about accepted assumptions as the authors draw attention to the long term histories and specificities of embodiment and make the case for the importance of ancient materials for contemporary theorization of the body For students new to the subject and scholars already familiar with it this will offer fresh and exciting insights into these ancient cultures

Blood and Beauty Rex Koontz, Heather Orr, 2009-12-31 Warfare ritual human sacrifice and the rubber ballgame have been the traditional categories through which scholars have examined organized violence in the artistic and material records of ancient Mesoamerica and Central America This volume expands those traditional categories to include such concerns as gladiatorial like boxing combats investiture rites trophy head taking and display dark shamanism and the subjective pain inherent in acts of violence Each author examines organized violence as a set of practices grounded in cultural understandings even when the violence threatens the limits of those understandings The authors scrutinize the representation of and relationships between different types of organized violence as well as the implications of those activities which can include the unexpected such as violence as a means of determining and curing illness and the use of violence in negotiation strategies

Questioning Collapse Patricia A. McAnany, Norman Yoffee, 2009-09-28 Questioning Collapse challenges those scholars and popular writers who advance the thesis that societies past and present collapse because of behavior that destroyed their environments or because of overpopulation In a series of highly accessible and closely argued essays a team of internationally recognized scholars bring history and context to bear in their radically different analyses of iconic events such as the deforestation of Easter Island the cessation of the Norse colony in Greenland the faltering of nineteenth century China the migration of ancestral peoples away from Chaco Canyon in the American southwest the crisis and resilience of Lowland Maya kingship and other societies that purportedly collapsed Collectively these essays demonstrate that resilience in the face of societal crises rather than collapse is the leitmotif of the human story from the earliest civilizations to the present Scrutinizing the notion that Euro American colonial triumphs were an accident of geography Questioning Collapse also critically examines the complex historical relationship between race and political labels of societal success and failure

Education beyond Europe Cristiano Casalini, Edward Choi, Ayenachew A. Woldegiyorgis, 2021-02-15 The focus of this volume is on illuminating how local educational traditions developed in particular contexts around the world before or during the encounter with European early modern culture In this vein this volume breaks from the common narrative of educational historiography privileging the imposition of European structures and its consequences on local educational traditions Such a narrative lends to historiographical prejudice that fosters a distorted image of indigenous educational cultures as historyless as if history was brought to them merely through the influence of European models Fifteen multi disciplinary scholars globally have contributed with surveys and perspectives on the history of local traditions in countries from around the globe before their own modernities Contributors include Guochang Shen Yongyan Wang Xia Shen Ga tan Rappo Sunghwan Hwang Jan S Aritonang Mere Skerrett Saiyid Zaheer Husain Jafri Zackery M Heern Judith Francis Zeitlin Layla Jorge Teixeira Cesar Mustafa G nd z Igor Fedyukin Edit Szegedi Inese Runce Sigur ur Gylfi Magn sson and Dav lafsson

Cosmology, Calendars, and Horizon-Based Astronomy in Ancient Mesoamerica Anne S.

Dowd, Susan Milbrath, 2015-05-01 Cosmology Calendars and Horizon Based Astronomy in Ancient Mesoamerica is an interdisciplinary tour de force that establishes the critical role astronomy played in the religious and civic lives of the ancient peoples of Mesoamerica. Providing extraordinary examples of how Precolumbian peoples merged ideas about the cosmos with those concerning calendar and astronomy, the volume showcases the value of detailed examinations of astronomical data for understanding ancient cultures. The volume is divided into three sections: investigations into Mesoamerican horizon based astronomy, the cosmological principles expressed in Mesoamerican religious imagery and rituals related to astronomy, and the aspects of Mesoamerican calendars related to archaeoastronomy. It also provides cutting edge research on diverse topics such as records of calendar and horizon based astronomical observation like the Dresden and Borgia codices, iconography of burial assemblages, architectural alignment studies, urban planning and counting or measuring devices. Contributors who are among the most respected in their fields explore new dimensions in Mesoamerican timekeeping and skywatching in the Olmec, Maya, Teotihuacano, Zapotec, and Aztec cultures. It will be of great interest to students and scholars of anthropology, archaeology, art history, and astronomy.
