Robert Hay

Hms Culloden:

Lost Voyages Bradley Sheard, 1998 In a Tokyo in the not too distant future a young girl studies diligently with ambitions of soon attending space academy If things work out just right her future may very well be among the stars as well And yet every time she looks up to the stars there is a sense of melancholy in her heart A sadness surrounds Asumi as space exploration itself has profoundly impacted her life for as long as she can remember But she is not alone A young man wearing a lion s mask is always beside her He speaks of the constellations and galaxies as if he they were like home He knows what it is like to love the stars slightly bitter and yet always so warm and inviting Truth is he has gone through much of Asumi is just experiencing And now in spirit he will forever be with Asumi guiding her on her path to space Landsman Hay Robert Hay, 2010-11-05 A Royal Navy sailor recounts his adventuresome life at sea in this colorful memoir offering a rare look at early nineteenth century naval life In 1803 at the age of fourteen Robert Hay ran away from home to join the Royal Navy For the next eight years he experienced the trials and tribulations of a sailor s life Intelligent and capable he served a series of officers all of whom helped advance his education Yet he found the taxing conditions of life onboard detestable He was even tempted to desert his post after an action off the French coast Hay was posted to the East Indies for five eventful years and was badly wounded before returning home His next ship ran aground off Plymouth and this time he took the opportunity to desert but was then quickly taken by a press gang Terrified of being identified he managed to escape to Scotland and home Told with humor and verve Hay s memoir offers an impressive description of early nineteenth century naval life Colorful stories of drink and debauchery come side by side with keen observations on nature and humanity Encyclopedia of Western Atlantic Shipwrecks and Sunken Treasure Victoria Sandz, Robert F. Marx, 2006-10-25 From aerial survey to zoology Part I of this two part encyclopedia covers all aspects of underwater archeology treasure hunting and salvaging For example entries are included for different types of artifacts notable treasure hunters the various salvaging equipment and techniques in mapping and excavating Part II covers the shipwrecks themselves dividing them into 13 geographical categories Beginning with the northernmost category Canada and ending with the southernmost South America every known shipwreck both identified and unidentified receives an entry in alphabetical order under its appropriate geographical category Entries are by name such as Andrea Gail Titanic and Queen Ann s Revenge Unidentified is used when a shipwreck s name remains unknown Entries give the nationality e g Spanish British American type schooner frigate brig are three function examples slave transportation piracy fishing location and history of the shipwreck A Maritime History of Long Island Ralph Brady, 2019-02-21 A trip into the Long Island history of ships lighthouses ports shipbuilders shipwrecks and much more Webster s Dictionary defines the word maritime as on near or living near the sea so you can see that the basic membership requirement to be a part of the story is easily satisfied Just having an address in either Nassau or Suffolk County pretty much meets the criteria and then the things that you do with your time can determine how big a role you play in this tale Own a
