Matthew 2:11

The Never Ending Christmas Celebration

Those men traveled full-handed to present gifts of the best their culture knew to the best gift our world would ever know. A couple of thousand years later and we're still traveling to Him, bearing gifts of the best we have, and we learn that it's us - our love and devotion, faith, trust and service. Our life is the most cherished gift our Savior receives, because that's how we can be part of helping others know Him.

The wise men showed us how-they worshipped the Lord Jesus first and then presented their gifts. they understood the first Noel and set for us and our families an example of God's wishes at Christmas and beyond: worship our Savior because He's our Savior and then honor the King with all we have to give. This order brings Christmas alive year-round because we come to see that worship is in everything we do, and giving our best is a gift that we live.

It's a never-ending Christmas celebration to represent Jesus to those around us. So when we love Him by loving others in every little or big way we know, every day of the year, He sees a birthday gift, and the joy continues.

Dear Jesus, Thank you for the opportunity to give all we are are to You, on Christmas and always, to worship You by giving ourselves to You and giving to others.
