Holland Suggestions By Dunning John:

The Holland Suggestions John Dunning, 2013-11-26 Trying to connect with his daughter a man is undone by a secret from his past in this novel from a master of suspense USA Today The first time he notices how much Judy looks like her mother Jim Ryan is so surprised he nearly faints Vivian was the most interesting woman he had ever known but their relationship was traumatic and seeing her every day in their daughter's face sends a chill through him that he cannot understand He is just getting up the nerve to tell his daughter the truth about her mother when a picture arrives in the mail that will change his life forever It is an ordinary snapshot of a treacherous looking mountain pass but it stirs a powerful force deep within Jim's unconscious and compels him to visit the quiet town in the photo He proceeds as if hypnotized risking his life and his family for an answer to the riddle that has corrupted his dreams Collected Books Allen Ahearn, Patricia Ahearn, 2013-02 An introduction to and advice on book collecting with a glossary of terms and tips on how to identify first editions and estimated values for over 20 000 collectible books published in English including translations over the last three centuries about half are literary titles in the broadest sense novels poetry plays mysteries science fiction and children's books and the other half are non fiction Americana travel and exploration finance cookbooks color plate medicine science photography Mormonism sports et al Ensouling Language Stephen Harrod Buhner, 2010-08-23 The first comprehensive work on nonfiction as an art form Shows how nonfiction especially how to and self help can take on the same power and luminosity as great fiction Develops processes to reliably induce the dreaming state from which all writing comes Teaches the skill of analogical thinking that is the core perceptual tool for writers Explores the subtle techniques of powerful writing from inducing associational dreaming in the reader to language symmetry sound patterning foreshadowing feeling flow and more Approaching writing as a sacred art Stephen Buhner explores the core of the craft the communication of deep meaning that feeds not just the mind but also the soul of the reader Tapping into the powerful archetypes within language he shows how to enrich your writing by following golden threads of inspiration while understanding the crucial invisibles essential to the art of both fiction and nonfiction how to craft language with feeling and vision employ altered states of mind to access the writing trance clear your work by recognizing the powerful sway of cliché thinking and hidden baggage and intentionally generate duende that physical emotional response to art that gives you chills opens up unrecognized aspects of reality or simply resonates in your soul Covering some very practical aspects of writing such as layering and word symmetry the author also explores the inner world of publishing what you really will encounter when you become a writer He then shows how to develop a powerful and engaging book proposal based on understanding the proposal as a work of fiction the map is never the territory nor is the proposal the book that it will become This book written using all the techniques discussed within it offers a powerful experiential journey into the heart of writing It does for nonfiction what John Gardner's books on writing did for fiction It is one of the most significant works on writing published in our time Collected Books Allen

Ahearn, Patricia Ahearn, 1997 Used by more book dealers and serious collectors in the country this updated guide featuring current values for more than 20 000 first editions explains how to identify first editions of books and covers a wide range of subjects including Americana early printed books literature mysteries science fiction children s books and photography
