Counter-Archive Paula Amad, 2010-09-23 Tucked away in a garden on the edge of Paris is a multimedia archive like no other Albert Kahn's Archives de la Planète 1908 1931 Kahn's vast photo cinematographic experiment preserved world memory through the privileged lens of everyday life and Counter Archive situates this project in its biographic intellectual and cinematic contexts Tracing the archive's key influences such as the philosopher Henri Bergson the geographer Jean Brunhes and the biologist Jean Comandon Paula Amad maps an alternative landscape of French cultural modernity in which vitalist philosophy cross pollinated with early film theory documentary film with the avant garde cinematic models of temporality with the early Annales school of history and film's appropriation of the planet with human geography and colonial ideology At the heart of the book is an insightful meditation upon the transformed concept of the archive in the age of cinema and an innovative argument about film's counter archival challenge to history The first comprehensive study of Kahn's films Counter Archive also offers a vital historical perspective on debates involving archives media and memory Framing the Nation Alison J. Murray Levine, 2011-11-03 Framing the Nation Documentary Film in Interwar France argues that between World Wars I and II documentary film made a substantial contribution to the rewriting of the French national narrative to include rural France and the colonies The book mines a significant body of virtually unknown films and manuscripts for their insight into revisions of French national identity in the aftermath of the Great War From 1918 onwards government institutions sought to advance social programs they believed were crucial to national regeneration They turned to documentary film a new form of mass communication to do so Many scholars of French film state that the French made no significant contribution to documentary film prior to the Vichy period Using until now overlooked films Framing the Nation refutes this misconception and shows that the French were early and active believers in the uses of documentary film for social change and these films reached audiences far beyond the confines of commercial cinema circuits in urban areas Waiting for the sun Barney
