Mercer Glenn T. Eskew, 2013-11-15 John Herndon Johnny Mercer 1909-76 remained in the forefront of American popular music from the 1930s through the 1960s writing over a thousand songs collaborating with all the great popular composers and jazz musicians of his day working in Hollywood and on Broadway and as cofounder of Capitol Records helping to promote the careers of Nat King Cole Margaret Whiting Peggy Lee and many other singers Mercer's songs sung by Bing Crosby Billie Holiday Judy Garland Frank Sinatra Ella Fitzgerald Tony Bennett Lena Horne and scores of other performers are canonical parts of the great American songbook Four of his songs received Academy Awards Moon River Days of Wine and Roses On the Atchison Topeka and the Santa Fe and In the Cool Cool Cool of the Evening Mercer standards such as Hooray for Hollywood and You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby remain in the popular imagination Exhaustively researched Glenn T. Eskew's biography improves upon earlier popular treatments of the Savannah Georgia born songwriter to produce a sophisticated insightful evenhanded examination of one of America's most popular and successful chart toppers Johnny Mercer Southern Songwriter for the World provides a compelling chronological narrative that places Mercer within a larger framework of diaspora entertainers who spread a southern multiracial culture across the nation and around the world Eskew contends that Mercer and much of his music remained rooted in his native South being deeply influenced by the folk music of coastal Georgia and the blues and jazz recordings made by black and white musicians At Capitol Records Mercer helped redirect American popular music by commodifying these formerly distinctive regional sounds into popular music When rock n roll diminished opportunities at home Mercer looked abroad collaborating with international composers to create transnational songs At heart Eskew says Mercer was a jazz musician rather than a Tin Pan Alley lyricist and the interpenetration of jazz and popular song that he created expressed elements of his southern heritage that made his work distinctive and consistently kept his music before an approving audience Saying It With Songs Katherine Spring, 2013-11

Hollywood's conversion from silent to synchronized sound film production not only instigated the convergence of the film and music industries but also gave rise to an extraordinary period of songs in American cinema Saying It With Songs considers how the increasing interdependence of Hollywood studios and Tin Pan Alley music publishing firms influenced the commercial and narrative functions of popular songs While most scholarship on film music of the period focuses on adaptations of Broadway musicals this book examines the functions of songs in a variety of non musical genres including melodramas romantic comedies Westerns prison dramas and action adventure films and shows how filmmakers tested and refined their approach to songs in order to reconcile the spectacle of song performance the classical norms of storytelling and the conventions of background orchestral scoring from the period of silent cinema Written for film and music scholars alike as well as for general readers Saying It With Songs illuminates the origins of the popular song score aesthetic of American cinema A Research Guide to Film and Television Music in the United States Jeannie G.
