Fantastic Female Filmmakers Suzanne Simoni,2008-01-01 Women have been writing producing and directing movies since filmmaking began in the early 1900s From taming wild dogs to filming from the open door of a plane to being nominated for an academy award women directors have done amazing things in the world of film Fantastic Female Filmmakers tells the stories of ten women who are some of the most creative and respected directors in the world From Nell Shipman who started her own production company in the silent movie days to Ida Lupino the American actress who was the first woman to direct herself in a film to Academy Award nominee Deepa Mehta whose films have brought East Indian stories to audiences around the world These directors prove that women can be stars behind the camera as well as on the screen

The Hollywood Motion Picture Blacklist Larry Ceplair,2022-09-06 Seventy five years ago the Hollywood blacklist ruined lives stifled creativity and sent waves of proscription and censorship throughout United States culture When the Hollywood Ten refused to answer the questions of the House Committee on Un American Activities about their membership in the Communist Party they were sentenced to prison the five who were under contract were fired by their studios and all were blacklisted from reemployment until they purged themselves of their communist taint By the 1950s this blacklist publicly stigmatized nearly three hundred other Americans in the entertainment industry who invoked the First and Fifth Amendments in their refusal to apologize for their Communist ties or provide the names of other members. Dozens of others were graylisted as the result of rumors. The Hollywood Motion Picture Blacklist Seventy Five Years Later offers new insights on the origins of the blacklist, the characteristics of those blacklisted, and the probability of future proscriptions of the blacklist type. Author Larry Ceplair draws on previously published work while introducing new material to vigorously recount the events that took place between the US government, Hollywood unions, and motion picture studios. Ceplair thoroughly examines the role of Jewish identity in many anti-communist efforts, a concept that has never been fully examined by scholars, and analyzes the actions of subpoenaed witnesses who were forced to choose between cooperating with the House Committee or joining the blacklist. This fascinating book is an illuminating examination of a dark period in American history and the fragility of our rights to free speech and due process.

Leonard Maltin's Movie Guide Leonard Maltin, 2017-11-28. Previously published as Leonard Maltin's 2015 Movie Guide, this capstone edition includes a new Introduction by the author. Note: No new reviews have been added to this edition. Now that streaming services like Netflix and Hulu can deliver thousands of movies at the touch of a button, the only question is: What should I watch? Summer blockbusters and independent sleepers, the masterworks of Alfred Hitchcock, Billy Wilder, and Martin Scorsese, the timeless comedy of the Marx Brothers, and Woody Allen, animated classics from Walt Disney and Pixar, the finest foreign films ever made. This capstone edition covers the modern era while including all the great older films you can't afford to miss and those you can from box office smashes to cult classics to forgotten gems to forgettable bombs, listed alphabetically and complete with all the essential information you could ask for. With nearly 16,000 entries and more than 13,000 DVD listings, Leonard Maltin's Movie Guide remains head and shoulders above the rest. The New York Times. Also included are a list of mail order and online sources for buying and renting DVDs and videos, official motion picture code ratings from G to NC-17, and Leonard's list of recommended films.
