the foil to the detective in order to accentuate their own abilities at solving crimes or else to simply tell the story to the reader. Instead, essays in the collection explore the representations and functions of the detective's sidekick across a range of forms and subgenres of crime fiction. By incorporating forms such as children's detective fiction, comics, and graphic novels and film and television alongside the more traditional fare of novels and short stories, this book aims to break down the boundaries that sometimes exist between these forms, using the sidekick as a defining thread to link them together into a wider conceptual argument that covers a broad range of crime narratives. Illuminating Comprehension and Close Reading

Isabel L. Beck, Cheryl A. Sandora, 2015-12-08 Grasping the meaning of a text enables K-8 students to appreciate its language and structure through close reading, which in turn leads to deeper comprehension. This book explains the relationship between comprehension and close reading and offers step-by-step guidelines for teaching both of these key elements of literacy. Reproducible lessons are shared for eight engaging texts: excerpts from fiction, nonfiction, and poetry, complete with discussion tips, queries that scaffold comprehension, close reading activities, and connections to the Common Core State Standards (CCSS). The authors model lesson development and guide teachers in constructing their own lessons. Texts for 10 additional lessons are provided in the Appendix. Purchasers get access to a Web page where they can download and print all 18 texts in a convenient 8 1/2 x 11 size. The Hound of the Baskervilles

Clive Francis, Arthur Conan Doyle, 2013-06-17 A bloodcurdling howl is heard across a cold moonlit moor: the spectral hound has claimed another victim. Sherlock Holmes, the world-famous detective of Baker Street, and the ever-reliable Watson are called upon to investigate the legendary plague of Baskerville Manor. This modern adaptation of the hound on the moor was commissioned by Nottingham and Salisbury Playhouses, and Clive worked alongside Tim Bird, who created an ingenious projection design, and the director Richard Baron. Subsequent to this initial production, this adaptation has just completed its third UK tour in seven years. The Incredible Murder of Cardinal Tosca

Alden Nowlan, Walter Learning, 1981 Arthur Conan Doyle's Art of Fiction Nils Clausson, 2019-01-22 This groundbreaking book rescues Arthur Conan Doyle from the sub-literary category of popular fiction and from the myth of Sherlock Holmes. Instead of following new historicists and postcolonialists and asking what Conan Doyle's fiction reveals about its author and what it tells us about Victorian attitudes to crime, class, Empire, and gender, this provocative and convincingly argued literary study shifts the critical emphasis to the neglected art of the novels, tales, and stories. It demonstrates through close reading that they can be read the same way as canonical literary fiction.

Unapologetically polemical and written in an accessible jargon-free style, this book will stimulate debate and provoke counterarguments, but most importantly, it will send readers both within and outside the academy back to the fiction with heightened understanding and renewed pleasure. At a time when evaluation has virtually disappeared from literary studies, this iconoclastic book returns it to the centre. Stephen Hetherington on Epistemology

Stephen Hetherington, 2024-04-18 Philosophy has long embraced epistemology as one of its central elements. What is knowledge? How do we gain it Can we gain it Or do we always deceive ourselves when thinking that we have knowledge Are we too deeply fallible ever to know something For centuries these questions have helped to define and motivate epistemological research This volume engages strikingly with them offering some unusual answers Stephen Hetherington's prominent career within epistemology has been a series of bold varied and provocative arguments and ideas Bringing together some elements of his unique body of writing for the first time this collection features previously published as well as new material displaying and extending some of his highly original approaches to key issues including knowledge justification fallibility scepticism and the Gettier Problem Advancing our understanding of the systemic nature of Hetherington's thinking Stephen Hetherington on Epistemology presents his distinctive perspective on some of philosophy's central questions about knowledge an inviting blend of forensic detail and big picture proposals

The Criminal Mastermind of Baker Street Rob Nunn, 2017-09-19 What if Sherlock Holmes had turned to crime instead of detection THE CRIMINAL MASTERMIND OF BAKER STREET by Rob Nunn investigates this very concept Holmes famously said that when a clever man turns his brains to crime it is the worst of all A sinister influence is at work in Victorian London with Sherlock Holmes and Doctor Watson running a hidden criminal empire THE CRIMINAL MASTERMIND OF BAKER STREET explores all of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's original stories through the lens of Holmes as a criminal while adding many new exciting tales of Holmes daring to delight its readers

The Adventure of Black Drop Radkris, 2011-09-12 A gunshot leaves a dead man in an East End alley A beautiful woman lies dead on the lawns of Windsor Castle The only certain aspect of a beadle's death is its precipitation by gravity A mere bump into a gentleman sends an old man to his death amidst Piccadilly's evening throngs Did the gunshot echo through time and claim the three other souls or had their time simply run out One man's calibre matches these crimes A mathematician's ingenious deviance compounds London's smog as he surpasses his past transgressions and discovers the means to control the future But his plan is plagued by one man brave enough to play in the web in his criminal parlour Coerced to alter his modus operandi this man works on more than one case simultaneously navigating smoke and mirrors while trying to earn back a trusted friend trusting reluctantly in a mysterious Indian and evading death at every corner of London Can this man emerge a victor in a fight to save something as whimsical as the future of the world But above all else will he emerge alive body mind and soul Who is this man He is Sherlock Holmes

Sherlock Holmes and John Watson: The Day They Met Wendy C.
