Holocaust And Genocide Studies Vol 17 Nu 1 Spring 2003:

The German Secret Field Police in Greece, 1941-1944 Antonio J. Muñoz, 2018-03-08 The Geheime Feldpolizei Secret Field Police was the political police force of the German Army during World War II Its members were drawn from both the regular German police including detectives and various Nazi security organizations The goals of the GFP were numerous and included protecting important political and military leaders investigating black market activities as well as acts of sabotage and espionage locating deserters examining anti German activists and hunting down partisans While performing these duties GFP members immersed themselves in criminal activities This book focuses on the function of the GFP in Greece compared to that of the GFP elsewhere in Europe The Scene of the Mass Crime Christian Delage, Peter Goodrich, 2013-05-07 The Scene of the Mass Crime takes up the unwritten history of the peculiar yet highly visible form of war crimes trials These trials are the first and continuing site of the interface of law history and film From Nuremberg to the contemporary trials in Cambodia film in particular has been crucial both as evidence of atrocity and as the means of publicizing the proceedings But what does film bring to justice Can law successfully address war crimes atrocities genocide What do the trials actually show What form of justice is done and how does it relate to ordinary courts and proceedings What lessons can be drawn from this history for the very topical political issue of filming civil and criminal trials This book takes up the diversity and complexity of these idiosyncratic and in strict terms generally extra legal medial situations Drawing on a fascinating diversity of public trials and filmic responses from the Trial of the Gang of Four to the Gacaca local courts of Rwanda to the filmic symbolism of 9 11 from Soviet era show trials to Nazi People s Courts leading international scholars address the theatrical political filmic and symbolic importance of show trials in making history legitimating regimes and most surprising of all in attempting to heal trauma through law and through film These essays will be of considerable interest to those working on international criminal law transitional justice genocide studies and the relationship between law and film Holocaust in Rovno: The Massacre at Sosenki Forest, November 1941 J. Burds, 2013-12-01 In November 1941 near the city of Rovno Ukraine German death squads murdered over 23 000 Jews in what has been described as the second Babi Yar This meticulous and methodologically innovative study reconstructs the events at Rovno and in the process exemplifies efforts to form a genuinely transnational history of the Holocaust The Minsk Ghetto 1941-1943 Barbara Epstein, 2008-07-28 Drawing from engrossing survivors accounts many never before published The Minsk Ghetto 1941 1943 recounts a heroic yet little known chapter in Holocaust history In vivid and moving detail Barbara Epstein chronicles the history of a Communist led resistance movement inside the Minsk ghetto which through its links to its Belarussian counterpart outside the ghetto and with help from others enabled thousands of ghetto Jews to flee to the surrounding forests where they joined partisan units fighting the Germans Telling a story that stands in stark contrast to what transpired across much of Eastern Europe where Jews found few reliable allies in the face of the Nazi threat this book captures the texture of life inside and outside the Minsk ghetto evoking the harsh conditions the life threatening situations and the friendships that helped many escape almost certain death Epstein also explores how and why this resistance movement unlike better known movements at places like Warsaw Vilna and Kovno was able to rely on collaboration with those outside ghetto walls She finds that an internationalist ethos fostered by two decades of Soviet rule in addition to other factors made this extraordinary story possible War Crimes, Genocide, and Justice D. Crowe, 2014-01-15 In this sweeping definitive work historian David Crowe offers an unflinching account of the long and troubled history of genocide and war crimes From ancient atrocities to more recent horrors he traces their disturbing consistency but also the heroic efforts made to break seemingly intractable patterns of violence and retribution

Genocide Perspectives IV Colin Tatz, 2012-01-01 Genocide isn't past tense and the Nazi and Bosnian eras are not yet closed The demonising of people as unworthy and expendable is ever present and the consequences are all too evident in the daily news These fourteen essays by Australian scholars confront the issues the need for a measuring scale that encompasses differences and similarities between seemingly divergent cases of the crime the complicity of bureaucracies the healing professions and the churches in this crime of crimes the quest for historical justice for genocide victims generally following the Nuremberg Trials the fate of children in the Nazi and postwar eras the worthiness of Armenians Jews and Romani people in twentieth century Europe and the imperative to tackle early warning signs of an incipient genocide Colin Tatz is a founding director of the Australian Institute for Holocaust and Genocide Studies visiting fellow in Politics and International Relations at the Australian National University and honorary visiting fellow at the Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies He teaches and publishes in comparative race politics youth suicide migration studies and sports history The Nazi Genocide of the Roma Anton Weiss-Wendt, 2013-06-01 Using the framework of genocide this volume analyzes the patterns of persecution of the Roma in Nazi dominated Europe Detailed case studies of France Austria Romania Croatia Ukraine and Russia generate a critical mass of evidence that indicates criminal intent on the part of the Nazi regime to destroy the Roma as a distinct group Other chapters examine the failure of the West German State to deliver justice the Romani collective memory of the genocide and the current political and historical debates As this revealing volume shows however inconsistent or geographically limited over time the mass murder acquired a systematic character and came to include ever larger segments of the Romani population regardless of the social status of individual members of the community

On the Death of Jews Nadine Fresco, 2021-03-10 A meticulous and shattering investigation of eight horrific pictures L Arche In December 1941 on a shore near the Latvian city of Liepaja Nazi death squads the Einsatzgruppen and local collaborators murdered in three days more than 2 700 Jews The majority were women and children most men having already been shot during the summer The perpetrators took pictures of the December killings These pictures are among the rare photographs from the first period of the extermination during which over 800 000 Jews from the Baltic to the Black Sea were shot to death By showing the importance of photography in understanding persecution Nadine Fresco offers a powerful meditation on these images while confronting the essential questions of testimony and guilt From the forward by Dorota Glowackay Straddling the boundary between historical inquiry and personal reflection this extraordinary text unfolds as a series of encounters with eponymic Holocaust photographs Although only a small number of photographs are reproduced here Fresco provides evocative descriptions of many well known images synagogues and Torah scrolls burning on the night of Kristallnacht deportations to the ghettos and the camps and finally mass executions in the killing fields of Eastern Europe The unique set of photographs included in On the Death of Jews shows groups of women and children from Liepaja Liepja shortly before they were killed in December 1941 in the dunes of Shkedi on the Baltic Sea In the last photograph of the series we see the victims bodies tumbling into the pit

Photography and the Making of the Nazi Racial Community examines the role of photography in the construction of the Nazi Volksgemeinschaft a racially exclusive community during the Third Reich Julie R Keresztes explores how the dictatorship promoted photography for those who belonged to that community and excluded Jews from the practice As Nazi officials dispossessed Jewish photographers and robbed them of their equipment studios and eventually their lives they made photography more accessible to non Jewish Germans But they inadvertently created spaces for photography to be used as resistance and revenge in concentration camps where forced laborers salvaged photographs that exposed the extermination of Europe s Jews As the victims of Nazi persecution used photography to gather evidence of the Holocaust German troops and their families used photography to portray themselves as dutiful members of the Volksgemeinschaft rather than show the reality of war and genocide Ultimately Photography and the Making of the Nazi Racial Community shows how the configuration of photography along racial lines shaped the imagery of the Second World War Published in Association with the US Holocaust Memorial Museum The Child in World Cinema Debbie Olson,2018-02-19 This collection seeks to broaden the discussion of the child image by close analysis of the child and childhood as depicted in non Western cinemas Each essay offers a counter narrative to Western notions of childhood by looking critically at alternative visions of childhood that does not privilege a Western ideal Rather this collection seeks to broaden our ideas about children childhood and the child s place in the global community This collection features a wide variety of contributors from around the world who offer compelling analyses of non Western non Hollywood films starring children Face à la persécution Nicolas Mariot,Claire Zalc,2010-09-09 L histoire de la Shoah en France envisag e dans une nouvelle perspective S appuyant sur un formidable travail d archives et d crivant l ventail des parcours des victimes entre la vie et la mort voici l histoire des 991 Juifs de Lens entre 1940 et 1945 au jour le jour famille par famille Chaque temps de la discrimination antis mite en France est scrut du c t des pers cut s l identification l aryanisation l arrestation la d portation Au total que fallait il faire Se d clarer comme juif ou se taire Fuir ou se cacher Nicolas Mariot est chercheur au CNRS Il a notamment publi Bains de foule Les voyages pr sidentiels en province 1888 2002 et avec A Loez Ob ir d sob ir Les mutineries de 1917 en perspective Claire Zalc est chercheuse au CNRS Elle a codirig 1931 les trangers au temps de l exposition coloniale 2008 le catalogue de l exposition du m me nom dont elle tait commissaire et qui s est tenue la Cit nationale de l histoire de l immigration et a publi Melting Shops Une histoire des commer ants trangers en France So They Remember Maksim Goldenshteyn,2022-01-23 When we think of Nazi camps names such as Auschwitz Bergen Belsen and Dachau come instantly to mind Yet the history of the Holocaust extends beyond those notorious sites In the former territory of Transnistria located in occupied Soviet Ukraine and governed by Nazi Germany s Romanian allies many Jews perished due to disease starvation and other horrific conditions Through an intimate blending of memoir history and reportage So They Remember illuminates this oft overlooked chapter of the Holocaust In December 1941 with the German led invasion of the Soviet Union in its sixth month a twelve year old Jewish boy named Motl Braverman along with family members was uprooted from his Ukrainian hometown and herded to the remote village of Pechera the site of a Romanian death camp Author Maksim Goldenshteyn the grandson of Motl first learned of his family s wartime experiences in 2012 Through tireless research Goldenshteyn spent years unraveling the story of Motl his family members and their fellow prisoners The author here renders their story through the eyes of Motl and other children who decades later would bear witness to the traumas they suffered Until now Romanian historians and survivors have served as almost the only chroniclers of the Holocaust in Transnistria Goldenshteyn s account based on interviews with Soviet born relatives and other survivors archival documents and memoirs is among the first full length books to spotlight the Pechera camp ominously known by its prisoners as Mertvaya Petlya or the Death Noose Unfortunately as the author explains the Pechera camp was only one of some two hundred concentration sites spread across Transnistria where local Ukrainian policemen often conspired with Romanian guards to brutalize the prisoners In March 1944 the Red Army liberated Motl s family and fellow captives Yet for decades according to the author they were silenced by Soviet policies enacted to erase all memory of Jewish wartime suffering So They Remember gives voice to this long repressed history and documents how the events at Pechera and other surrounding camps and ghettos would continue to shape remaining survivors and their descendants

Jewish and Romani Families in the Holocaust and its Aftermath Eliyana R. Adler, Katerina Capková, 2020-10-16 Diaries testimonies and memoirs of the Holocaust often include at least as much on the family as on the individual Victims of the Nazi regime experienced oppression and made decisions embedded within families Even after the war sole survivors often described their losses and rebuilt their lives with a distinct focus on family Yet this perspective is lacking in academic analyses In this work scholars from the United States Israel and across Europe bring a variety of backgrounds and disciplines to their study of the Holocaust and its aftermath from the family perspective Drawing on research from Belarus to Great Britain and examining both Jewish and Romani families they demonstrate the importance of recognizing how people continued to function within family units broadly defined throughout the war and afterward

Judging 'Privileged' Jews Adam Brown, 2015-05 The Nazis persecution of the Jews during the Holocaust included the creation of prisoner hierarchies that forced victims to cooperate with their persecutors Many in the camps and ghettos came to hold so called privileged positions and their behavior has often been judged as self serving and harmful to fellow inmates Such controversial figures constitute an intrinsically important frequently misunderstood and often taboo aspect of the Holocaust Drawing on Primo Levi s concept of the grey zone this study analyzes the passing of moral judgment on privileged Jews as represented by writers such as Raul Hilberg and in films including Claude Lanzmann s Shoah and Steven Spielberg s Schindler s List Negotiating the problems and potentialities of representing the unrepresentable this book engages with issues that are fundamental to present day attempts to understand the Holocaust and deeply relevant to reflections on human nature Genocide in the Modern Age Zachary A. Karazsia, 2025-01-30 This book explores why some episodes of mass political violence and genocide are so much deadlier than others and under what conditions perpetrators in government and society opt for brutality as a means of accomplishing their goals Introducing the new concept of mass political violence to explain genocide and other mass killings in the modern world the author investigates how perpetrators sustain the capacity to enact violence on a large scale irrespective of motives Cases including the Holocaust Soviet Union Rwanda Cambodia the Lord s Resistance Army the Islamic State the Ottoman Empire of the 1890s Mao Zedong s revolutionary violence the Congo Crisis and Darfur are used by the author to identify four types of mass political violence perpetrators state actors state society coalitions state sponsored groups and non state actors to explain historical trends and identify which perpetrators are most likely to emerge in a given socio political context and sustain violence over time Comparative and grounded in case studies this book will interest policymakers diplomats governmental advisers practitioners and industry researchers It will also be invaluable to students and scholars of Political Science International Affairs Holocaust and Genocide Studies Human Rights Sociology Anthropology Geography Political Psychology Religious Studies Gender Studies Public Policy Media Studies and Criminology The Graph Music of Morton Feldman David Cline, 2016-05-26 Morton Feldman is widely regarded as one of America s greatest composers His music is famously idiosyncratic but in many cases the way he presented it is also unusual because in the 1950s and 1960s he often composed in non standard musical notations including a groundbreaking variety on graph paper that facilitated deliberately imprecise specifications of pitch and at times other musical parameters Feldman used this notation intermittently over seventeen years producing numerous graph works that invite analysis as an evolving series Taking this approach David Cline marshals a wide range of source materials many previously unpublished in clarifying the ideology organisation and generative history of these graphs and their formative role in the chronicle of post war music This assists in pinpointing connections with Feldman s compositions in other formats works by other composers notably John Cage and contemporary currents in painting Performance practice is examined through analysis of Feldman s non notated preferences and David Tudor s celebrated interpretations Heidegger's Entscheidung Norman K. Swazo, 2020-04-08 This book critically examines the debate on Martin Heidegger s concept of Entscheidung decision and his engagement and confrontation with Nazism in terms of his broader philosophical thought It argues that one cannot explain Heidegger s actions without accounting for his idea of decision and its connection to his understanding of individual fate and national and European destiny The book looks at the relation of biography to philosophy and the ethical and political implications of appropriating Heidegger s thinking in these domains of inquiry It highlights themes such as Heidegger s differences with the neo Kantians in Germany Heidegger on Kant and practical reason and his reading of Nietzsche and Hegel It offers a philosophical assessment grounded in Heidegger s own texts with reference to historical and other philosophical commentaries on the rise of National Socialism in post Weimar Germany and the philosophical issues
