Holocaust Remembrance The Shapes Of Memory:

Holocaust Remembrance Geoffrey H. Hartman, 1995 The Holocaust's Ghost F. C. DeCoste, Bernard Schwartz, 2000-05 Numerous scholars explore the moral aesthetic and political outcomes of the Holocaust from the perspectives of various academic backgrounds including art literature political science education and history Tapestry of Memory Nanci Adler, 2017-07-28 In this volume contributors present narratives and explore the way they influence the perception of the past While acknowledging the debate about the validity of qualitative research based on narratives this volume aims to illuminate how truth and evidence form part of a much wider debate on the representation of history The volume includes the work of historians but the interdisciplinary nature of the contributions shows that the validity debate also applies to the broader fields of cultural studies sociology and other social sciences The distinction between memory and testimony is a crucial theme Memory though selective is the basis of testimony Testimony provides an audience with information that becomes evidence of what was seen or experienced Such evidence can form the basis of legal truth Nanci Adler and Selma Leydesdorff divide the volume into three core sections Official Testimony and Other Facts and Evidence The Creation of New History and the Integration of Collective Memory in the Story of One's Self and Claims Based on Narratives vs Official History After a comprehensive introduction by the editors the volume offers twelve essays by leading scholars This work is a new offering in Transaction's acclaimed Memory and Narrative series The Trajectory of Holocaust Memory Stephen D. Smith, 2022-12-30 The Trajectory of Holocaust Memory The Crisis of Testimony in Theory and Practice re considers survivor testimony moving from a subject object reading of the past to a subject subject encounter in the present It explores how testimony evolves in relationship to the life of eyewitnesses across time This book breaks new ground based on three principles The first draws on Martin Buber's I-Thou concept transforming the object of history into an encounter between subjects The second employs the Jungian concept of identity whereby the individual internal identity and the persona external identity reframe testimony as an extension of the individual They are a living subject rather than merely a persona or narrative The third principle draws on Daniel Kahneman's concept of the experiencing self which relives events as they occurred and the remembering self which reflects on their meaning in sum Taken together these principles comprise a new literacy of testimony that enables the surviving victim and the listener to enter a relationship of trust Designed for readers of Holocaust history and literature this book defines the modalities of memory witness and testimony It shows how encountering the individual who lived through the past changes how testimony is understood and therefore what it can come to mean Prosthetic Memory Alison Landsberg, 2004-04-14 Instead of compartmentalizing American experience the technologies of mass culture make it possible for anyone regardless of race ethnicity or gender to share collective memories to assimilate as personal experience historical events through which they themselves did not live That's the provocative argument of this book which examines the formation and potential of privately felt public memories Alison Landsberg argues that mass cultural forms such as cinema and television in fact contain the still unrealized potential for a progressive politics based on empathy for the historical experiences of others The result is a new form of public cultural memory prosthetic memory that awakens the potential in American society for increased social responsibility and political alliances that transcend the essentialism and ethnic particularism of contemporary identity politics

The Work of Memory Alon Confino, Peter Fritzsche, 2002 Coming to terms with a troubled past is the mark of the modern condition But how does memory operate This powerful collection of original essays probes this question by focusing on Germany where historical trauma and political turbulence over the past century have deeply scarred modern memory and identity Tracing the role of memory in German history between the Reformation and reunification contributors show how memory has a history and the presence of the past has historical context With scholarly zeal and keen insight these essays draw on ghost stories and the postwar fiction of Heinrich Böll among other memory sites escorting the reader through the streets of Alt Hildesheim and the grocery aisles of East Germany By historicizing memory this volume surpasses the efforts of previous memory scholarship in confronting Germany's National Socialist past Standard approaches to memory in modern Germany have explored how the past represents social relations and is commemorated in literature art and personal narrative In taking memory out of the museum and beyond the monument The Work of Memory investigates the ways memory forms social relations and is integral to the construction of identities communities and policies Profound and provocative The Work of Memory contributes to a much needed anthropology of memory in modern Germany

Auschwitz, Poland, and the Politics of Commemoration, 1945-1979 Jonathan Huener, 2003-12-15 Few places in the world carry as heavy a burden of history as Auschwitz Recognized and remembered as the most prominent site of Nazi crimes Auschwitz has had tremendous symbolic weight in the postwar world Auschwitz Poland and the Politics of Commemoration is a history of the Auschwitz memorial site in the years of the Polish People's Republic Since 1945 Auschwitz has functioned as a memorial and museum Its monuments exhibitions and public spaces have attracted politicians pilgrims and countless participants in public demonstrations and commemorative events Jonathan Huener's study begins with the liberation of the camp and traces the history of the State Museum at Auschwitz from its origins immediately after the war until the 1980s analyzing the landscape exhibitions and public events at the site Based on extensive research and illustrated with archival photographs Auschwitz Poland and the Politics of Commemoration accounts for the development and durability of a Polish commemorative idiom at Auschwitz Emphasis on Polish national martyrdom at Auschwitz neglect of the Shoah as the most prominent element of the camp's history political instrumentalization of the grounds and exhibitions these were some of the more controversial aspects of the camp's postwar landscape Professor Huener locates these and other public manifestations of memory at Auschwitz in the broad scope of Polish history in the specific context of postwar Polish politics and culture and against the background of Polish Jewish relations Auschwitz Poland and the Politics of Commemoration will be of interest to scholars students and general readers of the history of modern Poland and the Holocaust Spaces of Treblinka Jacob Flaws, 2024 Using an innovative approach that puts Jewish German and Polish voices together to map the impacts of the Treblinka death camp near and far Spaces of Treblinka reconceptualizes the relationship between sites of mass atrocity and the spaces surrounding them The Edges of Trauma Tamás Bényei, Alexandra Stara, 2014-06-30 A collection of essays by an international group of scholars The Edges of Trauma Explorations in Visual Art and Literature addresses the vast cultural and discursive construction that trauma has become in recent decades Unravelling aspects of representing narrating testifying to trauma and of sharing or conveying traumatic non experience many of the essays offer new perspectives on traditionally central topics of trauma studies including shellshock sexual abuse the Holocaust AIDS and 9 11 or on canonical trauma texts such as Art Spiegelman's Maus W G Sebald's Austerlitz and Virginia Woolf's autobiographical writings Some authors take issue with the at least partly commercially motivated canonisation of trauma fiction and with the automatic linking of certain textual features with traumatic experiences In other essays trauma works as an interpretative device that allows us to see otherwise familiar texts like Paul Scott's Raj Quartet and the fiction of Beckett and Agota Kristof in a new light Other contributors interrogate less obvious cultural and artistic representations including First World War British painting Jean Richard Bloch's wartime writings Felix Gonzalez Torres's candy spills the photography of Peter Piller and Ori Gersht and recent American television comedy in the context of trauma while one author explores her own artistic practice as part of the working through of traumatic experiences The Edges of Trauma differs from other volumes concerned with trauma and art in that it gathers together essays on both literature and visual art These essays are concerned with the relationship between trauma and art traumatic non experience and aesthetic experience exploring how the non experience of trauma finds its way into artistic representations Survivor Transitional Narratives of Nazi-Era Destruction Dennis B. Klein, 2017-11-16 Survivor Transitional Narratives of Nazi Era Destruction The Second Liberation examines the historical circumstances that gave rise in the 1960s to the first cohort of Nazi era survivors who massed a public campaign focusing on remembrance of Nazi racial crimes The survivors decision to engage and disquiet a public audience occurred against the backdrop of the Frankfurt Auschwitz trial and the West German debate over the enforcement of statutory limitations for prosecuting former Nazis Dennis B Klein focuses on the accounts of three survivors Jean Amry an Austrian ex patriot who joined the Belgian Resistance during the war Vladimir Janklitch a member of the French Resistance and Simon Wiesenthal who dedicated his life after the war to investigating Nazi crimes As Klein argues their accounts in addition to acting as a reminder of Nazi era endemic criminality express a longing for human fellowship This contextual and interdisciplinary interpretation illustrates the explanatory significance of contemporary events and individual responses to them in shaping the memory and legacy of Nazi era destruction It is essential reading for students and scholars of the Nazi era and its legacy genocide studies Jewish Studies and the history of emotions Screening War Paul Cooke, Marc Silberman, 2010 Re examines German cinema's representation of the Germans as victims during the Second World War and its aftermath The recent discovery of German wartime suffering has had a particularly profound impact in German visual culture Films from Margarethe von Trotta's Rosenstrasse 2003 to Oliver Hirschbiegel's Oscar nominated Downfall 2004 and the two part television mini series Dresden 2006 have shown how ordinary Germans suffered during and after the war Such films have been presented by critics as treating a topic that had been taboo for German filmmakers However the representation of wartime suffering has a long tradition on the German screen For decades filmmakers have recontextualized images of Germans as victims to engage shifting social and ideological discourses By focusing on this process the present volume explores how the changing representation of Germans as victims has shaped the ways in which both of the postwar German states and the now unified nation have attempted to face the trauma of the past and to construct a contemporary place for themselves in the world

Memorial Books of Eastern European Jewry Rosemary Horowitz, 2014-01-10 From the Russian civil wars through the Nazi years the Jews of Eastern Europe were targets of violence during the first half of the twentieth century During the Holocaust especially entire communities were wiped out In response survivors sometimes compiled memorial books or Yizker books in an attempt to preserve historical biographical and cultural information about their shtetls This multipart collection provides a concise history of the memorial books and their cultural contexts eight analytical essays on or using Yizker books key reviews in some cases translated from the Yiddish from the 1950s and later and a bibliographic overview of secondary sources and collections

Beyond Memory G. Uehling, 2004-11-26 In the early morning hours of May 18 1944 the Russian army under orders from Stalin deported the entire Crimean Tatar population from their historical homeland Given only fifteen minutes to gather their belongings they were herded into cattle cars bound for Soviet Central Asia Although the official Soviet record was cleansed of this affair and the name of their ethnic group was erased from all records and official documents Crimean Tatars did not assimilate with other groups or disappear This is an ethnographic study of the negotiation of social memory and the role this had in the growth of a national repatriation movement among the Crimean Tatars It examines the recollections of the Crimean Tatars the techniques by which they are produced and transmitted and the formation of a remarkably uniform social memory in light of their dispersion throughout Central Asia Through the lens of social memory the book covers not only the deportation and life in the diaspora but the process by which the children and grandchildren of the deportees returned and anchored themselves in the Crimean Peninsula a place they had never visited

Fogu,2006-09-20 Comparative case studies of how memories of World War II have been constructed and revised in France Germany Austria Switzerland Poland Italy and the USSR Russia Women's Autobiography V. Stewart,2003-09-16

Examining a range of twentieth century writers including Vera Brittain Anne Frank and Eva Hoffman this study focuses on how recent theories of trauma can elucidate the narrative strategies employed in their autobiographical writing The historical circumstances of each author are also considered The result is a book which provides a vivid sense of how women writers have attempted to encompass key events of the twentieth century particularly the First World War and the Holocaust within their life stories The Shock of the Other ,2015-06-29

Alterity is not a mere synonym of difference what it signifies is otherness a distinction or separation that can entail similarity as well as difference The articles collected here explore ways to define situate and negotiate alterity in a manner that does not do away with the other through negation or neutralization but that instead engages alterity as a reconfiguring of identities that keeps them open to change to a becoming without horizon Alterity and its situated negotiations with identity are configured through the body through the psyche and through translational politics From critical readings of angels specters grotesque bodies online avatars Sex and the City pornography in French literature Australian billboard art Pina Bausch Adrian Piper Kashmiri poetry contemporary German fiction Jacques Brault and Northern Irish poetry there emerges a vision of identities as multi faceted constructions that are continually being transformed by the various alterities with which they intersect and which they must actively engage in order to function effectively in the social political and aesthetic realm Traumatic Verses Andrés José Nader,2007

Traumatic Verses provides psychoanalytically informed close readings of a range of poems and discusses their significance for aesthetic theory and for research on the camps It also tells the stories behind the composition and preservation of these poems and the history of their publication since 1945 Most of the poems appear here for the first time in English translation along with the original texts This book fills a gap left by literary historians who have mostly ignored writings from the camps and avoided careful scrutiny of literature produced under the Nazi regime Studies of trauma have concentrated on post traumatic experiences discussions of aesthetics after the Holocaust have neglected the issue of the artistic impulse in the camps On both counts this book constitutes a unique contribution to scholarship showing that when read attentively the poems written in the camps are invaluable sites for confronting the Nazi past book jacket Writing Outside the Nation

Azade Seyhan,2012-01-06 Some of the most innovative writers of contemporary literature are writing in diaspora in their second or third language Here Azade Seyhan describes the domain of transnational poetics they inhabit She begins by examining the works of selected bilingual and bicultural writers of the United States including Oscar Hijuelos Maxine Hong Kingston and Eva Hoffman and Germany Libuse Mon kov Rafik Schami and E S zdamar among others developing a new framework for understanding the relationship between displacement memory and language Considering themes of loss witness translation identity and exclusion Seyhan interprets diasporic literatures as condensed archives of cultural and linguistic memory that give integrity and coherence to pasts ruptured by migration The book next compares works by contemporary Chicana and Turkish German women writers as innovative and sovereign literary voices within the larger national cultures of the United States and Germany Seyhan identifies in American multiculturalism critical clues for analyzing new cultural formations in Europe and maintains that Germany's cultural transformation suggests new ways of reading the American literary mosaic Her approach however extends well beyond these two literatures She creates a critical map of a third geography where a transnational multilingual literary movement is gathering momentum Writing Outside the Nation both contributes to and departs from postcolonial studies in that it focuses specifically on transnational writers working outside of their mother tongue and compares American and German diasporic literatures within a sophisticated conceptual framework It illustrates how literature's symbolic economy can reclaim lost personal and national histories as well as connect disparate and distant cultural traditions

Memory and Change in Europe Małgorzata Pakier, Joanna Wawrzyniak, 2015-11-01 In studies of a common European past there is a significant lack of scholarship on the former Eastern Bloc countries While understanding the importance of shifting the focus of European memory eastward contributors to this volume avoid the trap of Eastern European exceptionalism an assumption that this region's experiences are too unique to render them comparable to the rest of Europe They offer a reflection on memory from an Eastern European historical perspective one that can be measured against or applied to historical experience in other parts of Europe In this way the authors situate studies on memory in Eastern Europe within the broader debate on European memory
