Genocide in the Carpathians presents the history of Subcarpathian Rus a multiethnic and multireligious borderland in the heart of Europe This society of Carpatho Ruthenians Jews Magyars and Roma disintegrated under pressure of state building in interwar Czechoslovakia and during World War II from the onslaught of the Hungarian occupation Charges of foreignness and disloyalty to the Hungarian state linked antisemitism to xenophobia and national security anxieties Genocide unfolded as a Hungarian policy and Hungarian authorities committed mass robbery deportations and killings against all non Magyar groups in their efforts to recast the region as part of an ethnonational Greater Hungary In considering the events that preceded the German invasion of Hungary in March 1944 this book reorients our view of the Holocaust not simply as a German drive for continent wide genocide but as a truly international campaign of mass murder related to violence against non Jews unleashed by projects of state and nation building Focusing on both state and society Raz Segal shows how Hungary's genocidal attack on Subcarpathian Rus obliterated not only tens of thousands of lives but also a diverse society and way of life that today from the vantage point of our world of nation states we find difficult to imagine

The Armenian Genocide Richard G. Hovannisian, 2007 World War I was a watershed a defining moment in Armenian history Its effects were unprecedented in that it resulted in what no other war invasion or occupation had achieved in three thousand years of identifiable Armenian existence This calamity was the physical elimination of the Armenian people and most of the evidence of their ever having lived on the great Armenian Plateau to which the perpetrator side soon gave the new name of Eastern Anatolia The bearers of an impressive martial and cultural history the Armenians had also known repeated trials and tribulations waves of massacre captivity and exile but even in the darkest of times there had always been enough remaining to revive rebuild and go forward This third volume in a series edited by Richard Hovannisian the dean of Armenian historians provides a unique fusion of the history philosophy literature art music and educational aspects of the Armenian experience It further provides a rich storehouse of information on comparative dimensions of the Armenian genocide in relation to the Assyrian Greek and Jewish situations and beyond that paradoxes in American and French policy responses to the Armenian genocides The volume concludes with a trio of essays concerning fundamental questions of historiography and politics that either make possible or can inhibit reconciliation of ancient truths and righting ancient wrongs
