The Illustrated Australian Encyclopedia Arthur Wilberforce Jose,1925 The What If Histories of Australia Craig Cormick,2022-09-21 Gold Fever is what makes ordinary people act like completely crazy people We all know that gold makes people act a bit crazy but imagine just how peculiar things would be if the 19th Century Australian colonies were all run by different countries The French and British find devious ways to steal each other s gold First Nations people diggers and bushrangers have their own crafty plans And a peculiar bushranger in armour tries to start a new Irish republic what happens next could be anyone s guess The What If histories of Australia imagine a very different history of Australia where the unexpected happens in unexpected ways Starting by defining the real histories the book then looks at possible amusing paths that history could have taken The Countess from Kirribilli Joyce Morgan,2021-07-02 She was Australian born an international bestselling author and a member of the glamorous literary intellectual and society salons of late nineteenth and early twentieth century London and Europe She was amused cynical ironic loving gay ferocious cold ardent but never gentle She was a whirlwind She created around her the atmosphere of a Court at which her friends were either in disgrace or favour a butt or a blessing Elizabeth von Arnim may have been born on the shores of Sydney Harbour but it was in Victorian London that she discovered society and society discovered her She made her Court debut before Queen Victoria at Buckingham Palace was pursued by a Prussian count and married into the formal world of the European aristocracy. It was the novels she wrote about that life that turned her into a literary sensation on both sides of the Atlantic and had her likened to Jane Austen. Her marriage to the count produced five children but little happiness. Her second marriage to Bertrand Russell's brother was a disaster. But by then she had captivated the great literary and intellectual circles of London and Europe. She brought into her orbit the likes of Nancy Astor, Lady Maud Cunard, her cousin Katherine Mansfield and other writers such as E. M. Forster, Somerset Maugham and H. G. Wells with whom it was said she had a tempestuous affair. Elizabeth von Arnim was an extraordinary woman who lived during glamorous, exciting and changing times that spanned the innocence of Victorian Sydney and finished with the march of Hitler through Europe. Joyce Morgan brings her to vivid and spellbinding life.
