Holy Extermination Project Genesis:

Holy Extermination Emmanuel Calderon, 2004-06 And so the god said Let there be darkness The government has found a way to engineer a god The only problem is that a fanatic has released this ultimate force Emmanuel Anderson is a hit man for the Mafia Wean strange creatures appear in San Diego California slaughtering what ever moves he finds his adopted daughter dead Some how he believes another creature is responsible In his quest for revenge he must team up with a group of Marines and an unlikely group of civilians which must face seven plagues which Project Genesis has created around the world Writing War Corinne J. Saunders, Françoise Hazel Marie Le Saux, Neil Thomas, 2004 Essays consider the variety of responses to warfare and combat in medieval literature Paradoxical, Savage and Tender Jassim Happa, Aqedah Jean-Pierre Fortin, Heiko Schulz, 2025-01-27 The Aqedah i e the story of the binding of Isaac by Abraham is a core text in all three Abrahamic religions and has been widely discussed in Judaism Christianity and Islam for centuries It still represents an intellectual moral and spiritual challenge for anyone who claims to be able to link morality and faith in God in a reasonably comprehensible way The contributions in this anthology address this challenge from philosophical theological and literary perspectives by considering exemplary problems epochs and authors pertaining to all three Abrahamic religions The first part contains seven contributions exploring the epistemic and or philosophical dimensions of the Aqedah The second part contains nine essays on the history of the interpretation of the Aqedah from Israelite Jewish Christian and Islamic perspectives The three texts in the third and final part discuss narratological issues and reflections of the problem within modern Hebrew literature The volume complements and expands the existing scholarship on the subject above all through its consistently interreligious approach and the inclusion of current philosophical and literary sources and debates Plato's Timaeus and the Biblical Creation Accounts Russell E. Gmirkin, 2022-05-02 Plato s Timaeus and the Biblical Creation Accounts argues that the creation of the world in Genesis 1 and the story of the first humans in Genesis 2 3 both draw directly on Plato s famous account of the origins of the universe mortal life and evil containing equal parts science theology and myth This book is the first to systematically compare biblical Ancient Near Eastern and Greek creation accounts and to show that Genesis 1 3 is heavily indebted to Plato s Timaeus and other cosmogonies by Greek natural philosophers It argues that the idea of a monotheistic cosmic god was first introduced in Genesis 1 under the influence of Plato s philosophy and that this cosmic Creator was originally distinct from the lesser terrestrial gods including Yahweh who appear elsewhere in Genesis It shows the use of Plato s Critias the sequel to Timaeus in the stories about the Garden of Eden the intermarriage of the sons of God and the daughters of men and the biblical flood This book confirms the late date and Hellenistic background of Genesis 1 11 drawing on Plato s writings and other Greek sources found at the Great Library of Alexandria This study provides a fascinating approach to Genesis that will interest students and scholars in both biblical and classical studies philosophy and creation narratives Sethian Gnosticism and the Platonic Tradition John Douglas Turner, 2001
