Three Faiths-One God John Hick, Edmund S. Meltzer, 1989-01-01 The interactions of the Jewish Christian and Muslim communities over centuries have often been hostile and sometimes violent This book discusses the essential and critical issues in each tradition s views of God and of the earth and humanity The Three Religions Nili Cohen, Andreas

Heldrich, 2002 Three Faiths, One God Jacob Neusner, Bruce D. Chilton, William Graham, 2021-11-08 If Moses Jesus and the Prophet Muhammad were to meet what would they tell one another about Judaism Christianity and Islam Three of today s leading scholars explore the topics such a conversation might entail in this comparative study of the three monotheistic faiths In systematic side by side descriptions they detail the classical theologies of Judaism Christianity and Islam and the authoritative writings that convey those theologies Torah Bible and Qur n They then compare and contrast the three faiths which though distinct and autonomous address a common set of issues While asserting that this book is by no means a background source for issues and conflicts among contemporary followers of Judaism Christianity and Islam the authors nevertheless aspire to reveal among the three a common potential for mutual understanding This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details The Mark of Jesus Timothy George, John Woodbridge, 2005-01-01

How do we as Christians unknowingly block the spread of the Gospel Timothy George and John Woodbridge unpack the blockers that get in the way Ultimately they teach that we must rely on the mark of Jesus genuine sacrificial love to further the good news A fresh new approach to evangelism Conceptualizing Mass Violence Navras J. Aafreedi, Priya Singh, 2021-05-13 Conceptualizing Mass Violence draws attention to the conspicuous inability to inhibit mass violence in myriads forms and considers the plausible reasons for doing so Focusing on a postcolonial perspective the volume seeks to popularize and institutionalize the study of mass violence in South Asia The essays explore and deliberate upon the varied aspects of mass violence namely revisionism reconstruction atrocities trauma memorialization and literature the need for Holocaust education and the criticality of dialogue and reconciliation The language content and characteristics of mass violence genocide explicitly reinforce its aggressive transmuting and multifaceted character and the consequent necessity to understand the same in a nuanced manner The book is an attempt to do so as it takes episodes of mass violence for case study from all inhabited continents from the twentieth century to the present The volume studies consciously enforced mass violence through an interdisciplinary approach and suggests that dialogue aimed at reconciliation is perhaps the singular agency via which a solution could be achieved from mass violence in the global context The volume is essential reading for postgraduate students and scholars from the interdisciplinary fields of Holocaust and Genocide Studies History Political Science Sociology World History Human Rights and Global Studies Three Religions One Temple Mount Gary Cobb, 2007-06 In a unique complement of history current events Bible exegesis and numeric phenomena this book examines the crisis in the world since 9 11 with challenging topics for all people of faith Christian The Blackwell Companion to Catholicism James J.
