Stealing Games Maury Klein,2016-03-22 The 1911 New York Giants stole an astonishing 347 bases a record that still stands more than a century later That alone makes them special in baseball history but as Maury Klein relates in Stealing Games they also embodied a rapidly changing America on the cusp of a faster more frenetic pace of life dominated by machines technology and urban culture Baseball too was evolving from the dead ball to the live ball era the cork centered ball was introduced in 1910 and structurally changed not only the outcome of individual games but the way the game itself was played requiring upgraded equipment new rules and new ways of adjudicating Changing performance also changed the relationship between management and players The Giants had two stars the brilliant manager John McGraw and aging pitcher Christy Mathewson and memorable characters such as Rube Marquard and Fred Snodgrass yet their speed and tenacity led to three pennants in a row starting in 1911 Stealing Games gives a great team its due and underscores once more the rich connection between sports and culture Report

Research Serves Colorado Colorado Agricultural Experiment Station,Colorado State University,1889 Something Wicked Douglas Brode,Leah Deyneka,2024-10-31 An anthology of essays that deal with Witchcraft and the figure of the Witch as they have been presented in motion pictures television and popular culture in order to understand how why and when the common anti Witchcraft anti Witch attitude evolved Mainstream tales of Witchcraft including modern movies novels TV series and other examples of our popular culture more often than not express the traditional notion of a Witch as a wild dangerous untamable nasty woman obsessed with a desire for power to control all around her in most narratives such a hunger presented as a negative In truth The Witch is a symbol of threatening evil only to those men and women who accept a conservative sensibility For members of either gender who do not The Witch is perceived as hero and role model This collection begins with the Biblical figure of Lilith followed by Morgan le Fey from Arthurian legend myth in literature as well as in popular culture followed by the more contemporary depictions of the Witch that start to appear in the 1960s for example in the Bewitched sitcom the Star Wars franchise Harry Potter and even the television show Scooby Doo International depictions of the Witch are discussed including Italy's Dario Argento's films Suspiria and Inferno. The final section of this collection focuses on the most iconic depictions of the Witch produced during the 21st century including A Discovery of Witches, Penny Dreadful, Game of Thrones and the history of the Witch in films by the Walt Disney studio from its origins more than a century ago to the latest releases arguing that here if perhaps surprisingly we discover the most fair and balanced portraits of Witches in the history of film and TV.

Atmospheric Architectures Gernot Böhme, 2017-10-12

There is fast growing awareness of the role atmospheres play in architecture. Of equal interest to contemporary architectural practice as it is to aesthetic theory, this atmospheric turn owes much to the work of the German philosopher Gernot Böhme. Atmospheric Architectures: The Aesthetics of Felt Spaces brings together Böhme's most seminal writings on the subject through chapters selected from his classic books and articles, many of which have hitherto only been available in German. This is the only translated version authorised by Böhme himself and is the first coherent collection deploying a consistent terminology. It is a work which will provide rich references and a theoretical framework for ongoing discussions about atmospheres and their relations to architectural and urban spaces. Combining philosophy with architecture, design, landscape design, scenography, music, art, criticism and visual arts, the essays together provide a key to the concepts that motivate the work of some of the best contemporary architects, artists and theorists from Peter Zumthor, Herzog & de Meuron and Juhani Pallasmaa to Olafur Eliasson and James Turrell. With a foreword by Professor Mark Dorrian, Forbes Chair in Architecture, Edinburgh College of Art, and an afterword by Professor David Leatherbarrow, Chair of the Graduate Group in Architecture, University of Pennsylvania, the volume also includes a general introduction to the topic including coverage of its history, development, areas of application and conceptual apparatus.

100 American Horror Films Barry Keith Grant, 2022-03-24

A well-plotted survey. Total Film. In 100 American Horror Films, Barry Keith Grant presents entries on 100 films from one of American cinema's longest standing, most diverse and most popular genres, representing its rich history from the silent era. D.W. Griffith's The Avenging Conscience of 1915 to contemporary productions. Jordan Peele's 2017 Get Out. In his introduction, Grant provides an overview of the genre's history, a context for the films addressed in the individual entries, and discusses the specific relations between American culture and horror. All of the entries are informed by the question of what makes the specific film being discussed a horror film, the importance of its place within the history of the genre, and where relevant, the film is also contextualized within specifically American culture and history. Each entry also considers the film's most salient textual features, provides important insight into its production, and offers both established and original critical insight and interpretation. The 100 films selected for inclusion represent the broadest historical range and are drawn from every decade of American film making movies from major and minor studios examples of the different types or subgenres of horror such as psychological thriller monster terror gothic horror home invasion torture porn and parody as well as the different types of horror monsters including werewolves vampires zombies mummies mutants ghosts and serial killers Small Fruit Trials at the College Levi Rawson Taft, Theodatus Timothy Lyon, H.
