The Heritage of Persia by Richard N. Frye Richard Nelson Frye (12-920-),1966      The Heritage of Persia Richard Nelson Frye,1963      The Heritage of Persia Richard N. Frye,      Day of Empire Amy Chua,2009-01-06 In this sweeping history bestselling author Amy Chua explains how globally dominant empires or hyperpowers rise and why they fall In a series of brilliant chapter length studies she examines the most powerful cultures in history from the ancient empires of Persia and China to the recent global empires of England and the United States and reveals the reasons behind their success as well as the roots of their ultimate demise Chua s analysis uncovers a fascinating historical pattern while policies of tolerance and assimilation toward conquered peoples are essential for an empire to succeed the multicultural society that results introduces new tensions and instabilities threatening to pull the empire apart from within What this means for the United States uncertain future is the subject of Chua s provocative and surprising conclusion      The Heritage of Sufism Leonard Lewisohn,2018-04-30 This comprehensive study is unique in its chronological breadth intellectual diversity and historical scope and which demonstrates the central role played by Sufism in Persianate culture in Iran Central Asia and India      Architectural Heritage in the Western Azerbaijan Province of Iran Maurizio Boriani,Mariacristina Giambruno,2022-01-04 This book represents a reflection on the policies of preservation that were established and interventions for restoration that occurred in Iran before and in the years after the Khomeinist Revolution as well as being an analysis of the impact that Italian restoration culture has had in the country Research concerning the state of conservation and the ongoing restoration of the Armenian churches in the Khoy and Salmas areas is included along with precise documentation of the observation of the two cities their architecture and the context of their landscape The problems of architectural restoration in present day Iran and the compatible use of buildings no longer intended for worship are addressed The book is bolstered by first hand documentation obtained through inspections and interviews with Iranian specialists during three missions carried out between 2016 and 2018 and a large anthology of period texts that have only recently been made available for the first time for study in electronic form including travel reports written by Westerners describing Persia between the 15th and 19th centuries      World Heritage in Iran Ali Mozaffari,2016-02-11 Pasargadae is the location of the tomb of Cyrus the Great founder of the Achaemenid Empire Through the ages it was Islamised and the tomb was ascribed to the Mother of Solomon It was only at the beginning of the twentieth century that archaeological evidence demonstrated the relationship between the site and Cyrus and it was appropriated into conflicting political discourses on nationalism and Islamism while concurrently acknowledged as a national and then a World Heritages site However Pasargadae is neither an isolated World Heritage site nor purely a symbol of abstract state politics Pasargadae and its immediate vicinity constitute a living landscape occupied by villagers nomads and tourists This edited volume presents for the first time a broad multi disciplinary examination of Pasargadae by experts from both outside and within Iran It specifically focuses on those disciplines that are absent from existing studies such as ethnography tourism and museum studies providing valuable insights into this fascinating place In its totality the book argues that to understand World Heritage sites and their problems fully a holistic approach should be adopted which considers the manifold of perspectives and issues It also puts forward a novel approach to the question of heritage representation and construction of collective identity from the framework of place
