Hermeneutical Calisthenics:

The Hermeneutics of Sacred Architecture: Hermeneutical calisthenics : a morphology of ritual-architectural priorities Lindsay Jones, 2000 The two volumes of this investigation into how we perceive sacred architecture propose an original interpretation of built environments as ritual architectural events Exploring the world's cultures and religious traditions Volume One maps out patterned responses to sacred architecture according to the human experience mechanism interpretation and comparison of architecture Volume Two an exercise in comparative morphology offers a comprehensive framework of ritual architectural priorities by looking at architecture as orientation as commemoration and as ritual context

Faith and Place Mark R. Wynn, 2009-05-07 Faith and Place takes knowledge of place as a basis for thinking about the relationship between religious belief and our embodied life Recent epistemology of religion has appealed to various secular analogues for religious belief especially analogues drawn from sense perception and scientific theory construction These approaches tend to overlook the close connection between religious belief and our moral aesthetic and otherwise engaged relationship to the material world By taking knowledge of place as a starting point for religious epistemology Mark Wynn aims to throw into clearer focus the embodied action orienting perception structuring and affect infused character of religious understanding This innovative study understands the religious significance of a site in terms of i its capacity to stand for some encompassing truth about human life ii its conservation of historical meanings where these meanings make a practical claim upon those located at the place at later times and iii its directing of the believer's attention to a sacred meaning through enacted appropriation of the site Wynn proposes that the notion of God functions like the notion of a genius loci where the relevant locus is the sum of material reality He argues that knowledge of God consists in part in a storied and sensuous appreciation of the significance of particular places

The Philosophy of Spirituality Heather Salazar, Roderick Nicholls, 2018-11-05 The essays in The Philosophy of Spirituality explore a new field in philosophy Until recently most philosophers in the analytic and continental Western traditions treated spirituality as a religious concept Any non religious spirituality tended to be neglected or dismissed as irremediably vague Here from various philosophical and cultural perspectives it is addressed as a subject of independent interest This is a philosophical response to increasing numbers of spiritual but not religious people inhabiting secular societies and the heightened interaction between a multitude of spiritual traditions in a globalized age A provocative array of approaches African Indigenous Indian Stoic and Sufic perspectives as well as Western analytic and continental views offer fresh insights many articulated by emerging voices Contributors are Mariapaola Bergomi Moses Biney Christopher Braddock Drew Chastain Kerem Eksen Nikolay Milkov Roderick Nicholls Jerry Piven Heather Salazar Eric Steinhart Richard White Mark Wynn and Eric Yang

Reconstructing the Temple Andrew R. Davis, 2019-08-01 This book examines temple renovation as a rhetorical topic within royal literature of the ancient Near East Unlike newly founded temples which were celebrated for their novelty temple renovations were oriented toward the past Kings took the opportunity to rehearse a selective history of the temple evoking certain past traditions and omitting others In this way temple renovations were a kind of historiography Andrew R Davis demonstrates a pattern in the rhetoric of temple renovation texts that kings in ancient Mesopotamia Israel Syria and Persia used temple renovation to correct or at least distance themselves from some turmoil of recent history and to associate their reigns with an earlier and more illustrious past Davis draws on the royal literature of the seventh and sixth centuries BCE for main evidence of this rhetoric Furthermore he argues for reading the story of Jeroboam I's placement of calves at Dan and Bethel 1 Kgs 12 25 33 as an eighth century BCE account of temple renovation with a similar rhetoric Concluding with further examples in the Hellenistic and Roman periods Reconstructing the Temple demonstrates that the rhetoric of temple renovation was a distinct and longstanding topic in the ancient Near East

Secularizing Buddhism Sarah Shaw, Bhikku Bodhi, Kate Crosby, Roger Jackson, 2021-08-03 A timely essay collection on the development and influence of secular expressions of Buddhism in the West and beyond How do secular values impact Buddhism in the modern world What versions of Buddhism are being transmitted to the West Is it possible to know whether an interpretation of the Buddha's words is correct In this new essay collection opposing ideas that often define Buddhist communities secular versus religious modern versus traditional Western versus Eastern are unpacked and critically examined These reflections by contemporary scholars and practitioners reveal the dynamic process of reinterpreting and reimagining Buddhism in secular contexts from the mindfulness movement to Buddhist shrine displays in museums to whether rebirth is an essential belief This collection explores a wide range of modern understandings of Buddhism whether it is considered a religion philosophy or lifestyle choice and questions if secular Buddhism is purely a Western invention offering a timely contribution to an ever evolving discussion Contributors include

Gabriel Zuchtriegel, 2023-04-20 In this volume Gabriel Zuchtriegel revisits the idea of Doric architecture as the paradigm of architectural and artistic evolutionism Bringing together old and new archaeological data some for the first time he posits that Doric architecture has little to do with a wood to stone evolution Rather he argues it originated in tandem with a disruptive shift in urbanism land use and colonization in Archaic Greece Zuchtriegel presents momentous architectural change as part of a broader transformation that involved religion politics economics and philosophy As Greek elites colonized explored and mapped the Mediterranean they sought a new home for the gods in the changing landscapes of the sixth century BC Greek world Doric architecture provided an answer to this challenge as becomes evident from parallel developments in architecture art land division urban planning athletics warfare and cosmology Building on recent developments in geography gender and postcolonial studies this volume offers a radically new interpretation of architecture and society in Archaic Greece Coequal and Counterbalanced John D. Garr, 2013-01-16

God created woman and man so that they would be consubstantial and coequal and that they would manifest perfectly counterbalanced complementarity The relationship of the two halves of humanity was to be one of love mutuality and fulfillment By recovering the Hebraic understanding of God's blueprint for them both women and men can finally experience the relationship that God designed to be heaven on earth The God Designed Two in One Coequal Counterbalanced Partnership Designer Fashioned Woman Gender Self Identity and Self Fulfillment Spare Ribs and Afterthoughts Marriage as Heaven on Earth Whatever your race ethnicity gender faith or social status this book and the other volumes in this series will literally set you free from misconceptions that have long perverted relationships between women and men As you reconnect with the Hebraic foundations of your faith you will rediscover God's original design for humanity and you will come to understand respect and honor the different God designed distinctives preferences and roles for women and men that counterbalance and complement each other in mutuality and love Art and the Church: A Fractious Embrace Jonathan Koestle-Cate, 2016-04-20

A vibrant critical exchange between contemporary art and Christianity is being increasingly prompted by an expanding programme of art installations and commissions for ecclesiastical spaces Rather than religious art reflecting Christian ideology current practices frequently initiate projects that question the values and traditions of the host space or present objects and events that challenge its visual conventions In the light of these developments this book asks what conditions are favourable to enhancing and expanding the possibilities of church based art and how can these conditions be addressed What viable language or strategies can be formulated to understand and analyse art's role within the church Focusing on concepts drawn from anthropology comparative religion art theory theology and philosophy this book formulates a lexicon of terms built around the notion of encounter in order to review the effective uses and experience of contemporary art in churches The author concludes with the prognosis that art for the church has reached a critical and decisive phase in its history testing the assumption that contemporary art should be a taken for granted element of modern church life Art and the Church A Fractious Embrace uniquely combines conceptual analysis critical case studies and practical application in a rigorous and inventive manner dealing specifically with contemporary art of the past twenty five years and the most recent developments in the church s policies for the arts Sacramentality Renewed Lizette Larson-Miller,2016 Tracing developments in sacramental theology over the past twenty five years this study explores a growing ecumenical dynamism in both the academic study of sacramentality and its centrality in pastoral applications But how does ecumenical excitement in a renewed discovery of sacramental theology fit with different theologies of church and different pastoral beliefs and practices How does the universality of academic accessibility in the form of an expansive ecumenical sharing of perspectives meet the particularities of pastoral reality and ecclesial polity Arguing in favor of fruitful ecumenical conversation this book also focuses on the crucial interaction of ecclesiology liturgical practice and sacramentality which raises the need for a creative tension between the particularities of a given ecclesial system and the catholicity of Christian sacramentality Using Anglican sacramental theologies and Anglicanism as vehicles of exploration this study contributes to an overview of the state of the field of sacramental theology in the twenty first century while challenging the assumption that one size fits all In sacramental theology as in other important areas of Christian life unity in diversity may be the basis for authentic lived sacramentality

When God Comes to Town Rik Pinxten,Lisa Dikomitis,2009-05-01 Around 1800 roughly three per cent of the human population lived in urban areas by 2030 this number is expected to have gone up to some seventy per cent This poses problems for traditional religions that are all rooted in rural small scale societies The authors in this volume question what the possible appeal of these old religions such as Christianity Judaism or Islam could be in the new urban environment and conversely what impact global urbanization will have on learning and on the performance and nature of ritual Anthropologists historians and political scientists have come together in this volume to analyse attempts made by churches and informal groups to adapt to these changes and at the same time to explore new ways to study religions in a largely urbanized environment The Routledge Companion to Theism Charles Taliaferro,Victoria S. Harrison,Stewart Goetz,2013 There are deep and pervasive disagreements today in universities and colleges and popular culture in general over the credibility and value of belief in God This has given rise to an urgent need for a balanced comprehensive accessible resource book that can inform the public and scholarly debate over theism While scholars with as diverse interests as Daniel Dennett Terry Eagleton Richard Dawkins Jrgen Habermas and Rowan Williams have recently contributed books to this debate theism as a concept remains poorly understood and requires a more thorough and systematic analysis than it has so far received in any single volume The Routledge Companion to Theism addresses this need by investigating theism s history as well as its relationship to inquiry in the sciences social sciences and humanities and to its wider cultural contexts The contents are not confined within the philosophy of religion or even within the more expansive borders of philosophy Rather The Routledge Companion to Theism investigates its subject through the lens of a wide variety of disciplines and explores the ramifications of theism considered as a way of life as well as an intellectual conviction The five parts of the volume indicate its inclusive scope I What is Theism II Theism and Inquiry III Theism and the Socio Political Realm IV Theism and Culture V Theism as a Way of Life The result is a well ordered and thorough collection that should provide a wide spectrum of readers with a better understanding of a subject that is much discussed but frequently misunderstood As the editors note in their Introduction while stimulating and informing the contemporary debate a key aim of the volume is to open new avenues of inquiry into theism and thereby to encourage further research into this vital topic Comprised of 54 essays by leading scholars in philosophy history theology religious studies political science education and sociology The Routledge Companion to Theism promises to be the most useful comprehensive resource on an emerging subject of interest for students and scholars

Consciousness, Theatre, Literature and the Arts 2009 Daniel Meyer-Dinkgräfe, 2009-12-14 The essays collected in this volume were initially presented at the Third International Conference on Consciousness Theatre Literature and the Arts held at the University of Lincoln May 16-18 2009 The conference was organised on the basis of the success of its predecessors in 2005 and 2007 and on the basis of the success of the Rodopi book series Consciousness Literature and the Arts which has to date seen twenty one volumes in print with another twelve in press or in the process of being written The 2009 conference and the book series highlight the continuing growth of interest within the interdisciplinary field of consciousness studies and in the distinct disciplines of theatre studies literary studies film studies fine arts and music in the relationship between the object of these disciplines and human consciousness Fifty six delegates from twenty one countries across the world attended the May 2009 conference in Lincoln their range of disciplines and approaches is reflected well in this book

Cityscapes in History Heléna Tóth, 2016-05-23 Cityscapes in History Creating the Urban Experience explores the ways in which scholars from a variety of disciplines history history of art geography and architecture think about and study the urban environment The concept cityscapes refers to three different dynamics that shape the development of the urban environment the interplay between conscious planning and organic development the tension between social control and its unintended consequences and the relationship between projection and self presentation as articulated through civic ceremony and ritual The book is structured around three sections each covering a particular aspect of the urban experience The City Planned looks at issues related to agency self perception the transfer of knowledge and the construction of space The City Lived explores the experience of urbanity and the construction of space as a means of social control And finally The City as a Stage examines the ways in which cultural practices and power relations shape and are in turn shaped by the construction of space Each section combines the work of scholars from different fields who examine these dynamics through both theoretical essays and empirical research and provides a coherent framework in which to assess a wide range of chronological and geographical subjects Taken together the essays in this volume provide a truly interdisciplinary investigation of the urban phenomenon By making fascinating connections between such seemingly diverse topics as 15th century France and modern America the collection raises valuable questions about scholarly approaches to urban studies

Architecture of the World's Major Religions Thomas Barrie, 2020-08-25 In Architecture of the World's Major Religions An Essay on Themes Differences and Similarities Thomas Barrie presents and explains religious architecture in ways that challenge predominant presumptions regarding its aesthetic formal spatial and scenographic elements Two positions frame its narrative religious architecture is an amalgam of aesthetic social political cultural economic and doctrinal elements and these elements are materialized in often very different ways in the world's principal religions Central to the work's theoretical approaches is the communicative and discursive agency of religious architecture and the multisensory and ritual spaces it provides to create and deliver content Subsequently mythical and scriptural foundations and symbols of ecclesiastical and political power are of equal interest to formal organizations of thresholds paths courts and centers and celestial and geometric alignments Moreover it is equally concerned with the aesthetic visual and material cultures and the transcendent realms they were designed to evoke as it is with the kinesthetic the dynamic and multisensory experience of place and the tangible experiences of the body's interactions with architecture

Art & Visual Culture 1100-1600: Medieval to Renaissance Kim W. Woods, 2013-09-05 An innovatory exploration of art and visual culture Through carefully chosen themes and topics rather than through a general survey the volumes approach the process of looking at works of art in terms of their audiences functions and cross cultural contexts While focused on painting sculpture and architecture it also explores a wide range of visual culture in a variety of media and methods 1000 1600 Medieval to Renaissance includes essays on key themes of Medieval and Renaissance art including the theory and function of religious art and a generic analysis of art at court Explorations cover key canonical artists such as Simone Martini and Botticelli and key monuments including St Denis and Westminster Abbey as well as less familiar examples The first of three text books published by Tate in association with the Open University which insight for students of Art History Art Theory and Humanities Introduction Part 1 Visual cultures of medieval Christendom 1 Sacred art as the Bible of the Poor 2 Sacred architecture Gothic architecture 3 Sacred in secular secular in sacred the art of Simone Martini 4 To the Holy Land and back again the art of the Crusades Part 2 The shifting contexts of Renaissance art 5 Art at court 6 Botticelli 7 Did women patrons have a Renaissance Italy 1420 1520 8 From Candia to Toledo El Greco and his art

Renewing the Senses Mark Wynn, 2013 One and the same sensory scene can be differently experienced by different people or by the same person at different times depending upon their bodily and emotional condition and the concepts which they apply Mark R Wynn applies this familiar truth to the realm of religious experience religious commitments and convictions can make a difference to a person's bodily and emotional condition and their repertoire of concepts and accordingly the capacity to experience the everyday world differently may be one mark of spiritual maturity On this view becoming more mature in spiritual terms is not so much a question of directing your gaze away from this world and towards a non material realm it is instead a matter of discovering how the ordinary everyday world can be newly experienced The Sacred In-Between: The Mediating Roles of Architecture Thomas Barrie, 2013-09-13

The sacred place was and still is an intermediate zone created in the belief that it has the ability to co join the religious aspirants to their gods An essential means of understanding this sacred architecture is through the recognition of its role as an in between place Establishing the contexts approaches and understandings of architecture through the lens of the mediating roles often performed by sacred architecture this book offers the reader an extraordinary insight into the forces behind these extraordinary buildings Written by a well known expert in the field the book draws on a unique range of cases reflecting on these inspiring places their continuing ontological significance and the lessons they can offer today Fascinating reading for anyone interested in sacred architecture The Newark Earthworks Lindsay Jones, Richard D.

Shiels, 2016-04-01 Considered a wonder of the ancient world the Newark Earthworks the gigantic geometrical mounds of earth built nearly two thousand years ago in the Ohio valley have been a focal point for archaeologists and surveyors researchers and scholars for almost two centuries In their prime one of the premier pilgrimage destinations in North America these monuments are believed to have been ceremonial centers used by ancestors of Native Americans called the Hopewell culture as social gathering places religious shrines pilgrimage sites and astronomical observatories Yet much of this territory has been destroyed by the city of Newark and the site currently hosts a private golf course making it largely inaccessible to the public The first book length volume devoted to the site The Newark Earthworks reveals the magnitude and the geometric precision of what remains of the earthworks and the site s undeniable importance to our history Including contributions from archaeologists historians cultural geographers and cartographers as well as scholars in religious studies legal studies indigenous studies and preservation studies the book follows an interdisciplinary approach to shine light on the Newark Earthworks and argues compellingly for its designation as a World Heritage Site
