Hero Of Our Time Written In Rubian:

A Jewish Professor's Political Punditry Ron Rubin, 2013-06-17 This publication is a collection of Ron Rubin's published writings amassed over his decades long career. With articles ranging from those written for a college newspaper during his years as an undergraduate to more recent pieces published on the national level, this anthology provides an extensive look at the contemporary issues that have influenced the Jewish community. The author addresses a wide variety of topics including American Jewish political and social behavior, Israel among the nations, Soviet anti-Semitism, and political and public personalities who have had an impact on or been affected by the Jewish world. Imagining Our Time Lewis P.

Simpson, 2007-01-01 Lewis P. Simpson towers among scholars of American literary studies as an intellectual historian of the South and American literary culture and a revered essayist. His last book, Imagining Our Time, offers a wide-ranging, erudite, and enlightening look at the culture of letters in American society. Primarily through an examination of the works of some of the leading writers of the twentieth century, many of whom Simpson knew intimately, this final volume provides insight into the struggles and concerns unique to prominent American thinkers, literary artists, and critics contemporary to his own lifetime. Often moving from an intriguing anecdote or recollection to a rigorous discussion of ideas, Simpson's style is captivating. He begins with speculation on Eric Voegelin's interest in Julien Benda's polemic La Trahison des Clercs and follows with thoughts on the declining faith in the university as an embodiment of humanistic letters and learning surveying the American Republic as far back as Benjamin Franklin. In successive chapters, Simpson pays tribute to Malcolm Cowley as a hero of the literary art and probes Robert Penn Warren's fixation with Thomas Jefferson as manifested in the writing and complete rewriting of Brother to Dragons. He ruminates on the vocation of the critic as practiced by Lionel Trilling and Diana Trilling and the literary and cultural politics of the 1930s. Brief portraits of Andrew Lytle and Louis D. Rubin Jr. appear as well as a poignant argument for the autobiographical cast of Eudora Welty's writing. A lengthy, riveting consideration of Simpson's friend Walker Percy and Percy's quest for identity as a modern Christian novelist alienated from the society around him forms the core of the volume. Fred Hobson's introduction fittingly rounds out Imagining Our Time, offering an intimate appreciation of Lewis Simpson, who will remain a giant among scholars of southern literary studies. And in Our Time

Antony Shuttleworth, 2003 This book brings together essays which in diverse ways not only revise existing views on thirties writing but also provide ways of accounting for its critical neglect. The essays examine from a variety of theoretical and critical perspectives a body of work that reflects the true diversity of the literary and cultural contexts of the thirties and includes studies on the work of Louis MacNeice, Frank Sheed, Christopher Dawson, Alick West, Christopher Caudwell, Stevie Smith, Storm Jameson, Phyllis Bottome, Ivy Compton-Burnett, Graham Greene, Eric Ambler, George Orwell, Christina Stead, Randall Swingler, and Ralph Fox. This Is Our Time Trevin Wax, 2017-03-01 Uncertain, Confused, Overwhelmed. Many Christians feel bombarded by the messages they hear and the trends they see in our rapidly changing world. How can we resist being conformed to the pattern of this world What will faithfulness to Christ look like in these tumultuous times How can we be true to the gospel in a world where myths and false visions of the world so often prevail In This is Our Time Trevin Wax provides snapshots of twenty first century American Life in order to help Christians understand the times By analyzing our common beliefs and practices smartphone habits entertainment intake and our views of shopping sex marriage politics and life s purpose Trevin helps us see through the myths of society to the hope of the gospel As faithful witnesses to Christ Trevin writes we must identify the longing behind society s most cherished myths what is good true beautiful expose the lie at the heart of these myths what is false and damaging and show how the gospel tells a better story one that exposes the lie but satisfies the deeper longing
